San Anselmo Vote Is 3-2

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

San Anselmo is to continue governing with the help of a city administrator after all.

City councilmen last night voted 3-2 to seek a replacement for City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt, who resigned effective the first of this month.

For the better part of an hour, the council was split down the middle as to whether the city should get a new man or go it alone for a six-month trial.

Mayor John M. Reichmuth and Councilman Duane C. Ragan were in favor of a new administrator; Councilmen Robert M. Scott and Arthur W. Smith, against.

Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro expressed no opinion until he finally tipped the scales in favor of a new administrator.

If the men at the top table faulted at all as to which direction to go, no one else attending the city hall special meeting had any doubts.

The dozen members of the 30-strong audience who spoke were all in favor of a city administrator.

One man summed it up: "It is appaling to me that you should be considering running a $800,000 budget business like this with only five part-time amateur administrators. Every company has a man in charge as well as the board of directors."

SCOTT'S VIEW

Scott said, "I want to see if we can get along without one." He did not consider an administrator helped run the city emergency services "one iota," and he was sure the city attorney could represent the city if the need arose.

He suggested that the city try it out for six months. He was joined by Councilman Smith.

Smith supported the idea of each councilman becoming a "liaison man" with the departments.

Referring to the days before San Anselmo appointed its first administrator, Smith said: "This is the way it has worked in the past and it will work again in the future."

'STILL PAYING'

Replied Mayor Reichmuth: "We are still paying for it, Art. We are still paying for it."

Reichmuth and Reagan were adamant from the beginning that having a city administrator was the only way to run the city.

Said Ragan: "This city cannot be operated without a man in charge. I, for one, have no time to oversee the departments."

Mayor Reichmuth questioned the right of any councilman as an individual to order around a city employee. There was also budget control. "Who would approve every budget request?" he asked. "We have no one in the city who can do this."

Scott expreseed surprise at the reaction from the audience. "These are the first people I have heard advocating the city administrator form of government in my walks around town," he said. "I know the place is loaded but I am going to vote according to my beliefs."

CHAMBER SUPPORTS

William A. Trewhella of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce said his organization was in favor of an administrator.

Other support came from former City Councilmen William F. Franchini and Cedric E. Clute and from an unexpected source, Corte Madera Town Councilman Harold B. Wagstaff.

Wagstaff, who is in business in San Anselmo, said that if Corte Madera had not its own town manager, he felt councilmen would find themselves "floundering."

He added: "In this age of the computer . . . it is a strategic mistake to throw the city on the mercy of a group of volunteers, no matter how unquestionable their loyalty."

The decision taken, the council set for next Thursday a closed meeting to discuss the 37 applications for the job. In the meantime it appointed City Controller Alfred Kaeppel as acting administrator.

Ruby Called 'Misguided' At Funeral

CHICAGO (AP)—Jack Ruby, termed "an avenger of blood—a misguided patriot," went to his grave today followed only by his family, a knot of reporters, and a few of the curious.

All but the family—his three brothers and four sisters — were excluded from the Jewish services conducted by Rabbi David Graubert and Cantor Pavel Slavensky in a room of an undertaking establishment on the northwest side.

Ruby, the slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, died of a cancer-induced blood clot Tuesday in Dallas, Tex., where he had been held for three years since the assassination of President Kennedy and his act to avenge it.

Rabbi Graubert told the small funeral gathering, "on the surface, Ruby was an avenger. He was an avenger of blood who pursued the manslayer while the blood was hot."

"He was a misguided avenger," the rabbi said, "—a misguided patriot. . .he loved the martyred president. But he made it his personal task to avenge his death. We do not condone his act, but we dare not sit in judgment. That is God's business."

The brief service closed with the traditional hymn, "el Moley Rachamin." Then, the short cortege moved to Westlawn Cemetery where the casket was lowered into a grave, prepared beside the graves of Ruby's parents, after reitation of the kaddish.

Ruby's bronze casket was closed during the rites.

Jury Charges Murder In Arizona Gun Death

Mrs. Busolo Jailed After Taking Stand

I-J SPECIAL REPORT

KINGMAN, Ariz.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Busolo was held without bail today to face a charge of murder in the fatal shooting of her husband, Licinio Busolo Jr., former San Anselmo civic leader and businessman.

Mrs. Busolo was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Clyde McCune late yesterday, immediately after a coroner's jury found she had shot her husband "with malice and aforethought" at the couple's home in the resort community of Lake Havasu City, Dec. 19.

No date was set for preliminary hearing on the murder charge.

The seven-man coroner's jury reached its verdict after Mrs. Busolo testified that the shooting occurred at their home Dec. 19 but was not reported until three days later.

TELLS OF ARGUMENT

Mrs. Busolo told the inquest she and her husband argued Dec. 19 over whether she should go to Phoenix for a doctor's examination. She said she ran upstairs to a bedroom for a gun to kill herself. It did not go off because of the safety catch. She heard something behind her, turned, and the gun discharged, she testified.

He husband said "Oh!" and fell to the floor. Panic-stricken, she dragged him down the steps to the living room. She said she went outside to the car, intending to go for a doctor, and then returned to the house to find her husband was not breathing.

TALKING TO HIM

She said beside the body all night "talking to him" and intended to kill herself, Mrs. Busolo testified. However, she wanted "to be sure the children got all the things," and decided to see an attorney before reporting to the police.

The next morning she took their two dogs to a Kingman veterinarian and drove to Las Vegas "to get an attorney to straighten things out for the children."

She went to a hotel, slept about two hours and then found an atorney's name in a newspaper. That attorney, she said, recommended that she call an attorney in Tucson, William Tinney.

She flew to Tucson and returned to Kingman with Tinney, who reported Busolo's death to Sheriff Floyd Gisney. That was on Dec. 22, three days after the shooting.

West Marin Water Annex Is Approved

By RICHARD LYTTLE

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night gave unanimous approval to annexation of a large area of West Marin, including Olema, Point Reyes Station, Inverness Park and Inverness, to the North Marin County Water District.

Next step will be a hearing before the North Marin directors.

Last night's action was taken with hope the Board of Marin Municipal Water District would not be offended by it. This hope was stated most forcefully by Arnold Heise, chairman of the North Marin board, who said his board had not yet taken any action on the petition for annexation signed by residents of the area.

Pope, Rusk, Vietnam Bosses Talk Of Peace

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Point and counterpoint continued a confusing dance today in world-wide efforts to arrive at the truce table in Vietnam.

In Vatican City, Pope Paul VI said today he wants to "talk peace" with China's Communist leaders — and confusion arose over whether he meant to seek to restore religious liberty to mainland China, or to discuss broader issues such as Vietnam.

Radio Hanoi broadcast an "authorized" repeat of North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong's statement to New York Times writer Harrison E. Salisbury that Hanoi's four-point declaration "is a basis of ways to settle Vietnam problems." The repeat left the air no clearer whether Dong was retreating from earlier hard line by saying the points could be discussed at a truce table.

And, in Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk made public a letter saying the U.S. is ready to meet publicly or secretly with both North Vietnamese and Viet Cong spokesmen to talk peace, but again rejected Hanoi demands that the Viet Cong be the sole representatives of the South in peace talks.

In Saigon, South Vietnam's Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said today, "We are getting closer to negotiations every day . . . negotiations mean victory for us. It means they (North Vietnam) recognize they cannot win."

Rusk's letter was addressed to "student leaders" who had written President Johnson inquiring about or criticizing U.S. policy on Vietnam.

Rusk defended the U.S. fight in Vietnam and the bombing of the north. He deplored civilian casualties resulting accidentally from air attacks on military targets.

"I would remind you that tens of thousands of civilians have been killed, wounded or kidnaped in South Vietnam, not by accident but as result of a deliberate policy of terrorism and intimidation conducted by the Viet Cong," Rusk said.

On negotiations issues, Rusk said first that "there will be no difficulty in having the views of the Viet Cong represented at any serious negotiation."

"The details of how this might be done can be discussed with the other side," he said. "There is little point in negotiating such details with those who cannot stop the fighting."

"Meantime, we shall continue to do what is necessary—to protect the vital interests of the

New Shooting Along Border Of Israel

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)—Syrian tanks and soldiers opened fire today on Israelis in a series of border incidents, an Israeli military communique said.

The communique said the latest trouble began at midmorning when an Israeli working on a tractor was fired upon by Syrians while he cultivated uncontested border land.

It said intermittent firing continued for 90 minutes and then Syrian tanks from Khirbet-Dica fired shells at an Israeli position north of Almagor.

Damascus Radio said in a broadcast that the barrage destroyed one Israeli tractor and "killed or wounded" one Israeli farmer.

The broadcast quoted a Syrian spokesman as saying the tractor crossed the joint armistice line near Azeizin north of the Sea of Galilee shortly after an Israeli position opened fire on Syrian farmers.

The Israeli communique said there were no casualties.

India Shuts Schools In Fatal Riots

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Indian government closed all schools and colleges in the eastern state of Bihar today for an indefinite period after three days of riots that took at least nine lives.

Agitation reached a peak yesterday when several thousand students paralyzed Patna, the state capital, with three hours of looting, arson and attacks on police.

Police finally opened fire, killing at least nine persons and wounding 54.

Rioting began when several hundred students clashed with police outside the residence of the state's chief minister (governor) where they had gone to protest alleged police brutality during two previous days of demonstrations in other cities.

Damage was estimated by officials at more than $1 million.

The rioting was not believed related to the severe food shortage in Bihar but rather a reflection of a wave of labor strikes and student demonstrations that have been sweeping India.

No Oath Now For Passport

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can get a passport now even if you refuse to swear allegiance to the United States.

The State Department has concluded it does not have legal authority to deny a passport to a citizen who declines to take an oath, Robert J. McCloskey, press officer, said yesterday.

To avoid taking the oath, however, you must specify that it be lined out on the passport application form. Otherwise, your signature on the application applies to the oath of allegiance, which remains on the application form.

115 Are Believed Dead In Philippines Bus Crash

MANILA (AP) — More than 115 persons were believed killed today when two buses loaded with Roman Catholic pilgrims hurtled into a ravine on a mountain road south of Manila, rescue experts said.

Military rescue experts who took a helicopter to the crash site said there appeared to be only 15 survivors out of more than 130 passengers thought to have been aboard the buses.

Eyewitnesses told of mangled bodies scattered round the bottom of the gorge where one of the buses, crushed and overturned, pinned at least 17 persons.

The second bus was halted in its plunge down the 300-foot outcrop of rock.

The casualty toll, which may not be confirmed until tomorrow, indicated one of the worst road tragedies in history.

The buses were part of a 57-vehicle convoy taking pilgrims to a festival of the Epiphany.

New Look Planned For Post Offices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Post Office Department, the nation's largest tenant, is getting some fancier, more modern buildings over the next five years.

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien said yesterday that 59 new buildings would open within the next five years and an additional 102 buildings will be built within the next decade.

A Bright Light To Shine Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists plan to create an artificial aurora as bright as the full moon above the Eastern Seaboard one night in June.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said yesterday the experiment is a prelude to investigations of the phenomenon known as the northern and southern lights.

The plan is to launch a small electron accelerator aboard an Aerobee 350 rocket from Wallops Island, Va. After reaching an altitude of about 240 miles, the rocket is to turn downward so the accelerator can direct beams of electrons earthward to create an auroral effect at a altitude of about 60 miles.

Marin County has been the home of many fine schools, some of which still exist and some of which are now history. In the latter category is the Hitchcock Military Academy, whose uniformed cadets were once a familiar sight in San Rafael. I-J Historian Florence Donnelly tells the story of that school, and the seminary that now operates at the same site, in tomorrow's issue of the Marin Magazine.

Among the most popular features in the Independent-Journal's weekend supplement have been the picture stories that take the readers inside some of the county's fine homes. Inaugural Ball Draws 5,000 Chilly Dancers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Even Carol Doda, San Francisco's topless dancer, was at Gov. Ronald W. Reagan's Inaugural Ball last night.

Miss Doda wore a high neck, brocade gown which was covered by a matching coat, quite different from her night club act attire.

Nevertheless, the dancer was still a big attraction among the 5,000 politically minded Californians who packed a barn-like State Fairgrounds hall to celebrate Reagan's inauguration.

The biggest attractions were Reagan and his wife, Nancy, two former film stars moving into political life.

The big hall was a mixture of Hollywood and a rural fair. Decorators prettied up the place, but it was so cold women had to wear their coats most of the evening.

Two big bands provided music for dancing. Three Mariachi bands also entertained the guests who had paid $50 a couple for the event.

"Is this for real or is this a movie," cracked comedian Danny Thomas who introduced Reagan and his wife.

"The people of California have given you a four-year contract," he told the new governor. "And if it pleases God, it will be renewed and I hope the residuals are wonderful."

Reagan made the evening bipartisan. He introduced the members of his Republican team — Lt. Gov. Robert Finch, Controller Houston Flournoy, Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, and Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan.

Then he noted the absence of the only Democratic statewide office holder, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch. He called for Lynch, who emerged from the audience and joined the Republicans on the platform.

Homeowners Want Garbage Service Reply

Enchanted Knolls Homeowners Assn. directors Wednesday asked Mill Valley City Council to get Mill Valley Refuse Service to answer their complaint that residents of their area are being overcharged for garbage removal.

Directors are "annoyed," president William Bay said, because the company never answered their letter of Dec. 12 requesting a review of charges to Enchanted Knolls residents. Ninety per cent of the residents' homes are below the 150-foot elevation line, but most are charged at the rate for homes between 150 and 300 feet, or $1.75 a month instead of $1.50, Bay said.

Directors also suggested the city consider having utility lines on East Blithedale Avenue between Lomita and Kipling drives put underground when the avenue is widened this spring.

Inaugural Ball Draws 5,000 Chilly Dancers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Even Carol Doda, San Francisco's topless dancer, was at Gov. Ronald W. Reagan's Inaugural Ball last night.

Miss Doda wore a high neck, brocade gown which was covered by a matching coat, quite different from her night club act attire.

Nevertheless, the dancer was still a big attraction among the 5,000 politically minded Californians who packed a barn-like State Fairgrounds hall to celebrate Reagan's inauguration.

The biggest attractions were Reagan and his wife, Nancy, two former film stars moving into political life.

The big hall was a mixture of Hollywood and a rural fair. Decorators prettied up the place, but it was so cold women had to wear their coats most of the evening.

Two big bands provided music for dancing. Three Mariachi bands also enterta ined the guests who had paid $50 a couple for the event.

"Is this for real or is this a movie," cracked comedian Danny Thomas who introduced Reagan and his wife.

"The people of California have given you a four-year contract," he told the new governor. "And if it pleases God, it will be renewed and I hope the residuals are wonderful."

Reagan made the evening bipartisan. He introduced the members of his Republican team — Lt. Gov. Robert Finch, Controller Houston Flournoy, Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, and Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan.

Then he noted the absence of the only Democratic statewide office holder, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch. He called for Lynch, who emerged from the audience and joined the Republicans on the platform.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Reagan's "Creative Society" plans are drawing cheers of approval from Republicans, qualified backing from the Senate's top Democrat and something less than enthusiasm from other legislators.

More MIGs Bagged; Ground War Inactive

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. Air Force pilots downed two more Communist MIG21s over North Vietnam today, running their score of MIG kills for the week to nine, the Air Force announced.

U.S. officials said no American planes were lost in the duels with MIGs, but they said one Air Force Phantom jet went down today 100 miles west of Hanoi from "unknown causes." Both fliers aboard the reconnaissance Phantom were rescued within nine minutes of each other, a U.S. spokesman said.

Without divulging details, the spokesman said Air Force Phantom pilots by maneuver tactics forced one of the MIGs into an uncontrollable spin. The other MIG was shot down with an air-to-air missile from a Phantom, the spokesman said.

The ground war in South Vietnam continued at a slow pace, as it has since the start of the year, with most of the fighting between Viet Cong and South Viet troops.

U.S. officials disclosed plans to send back to Communist China within a few days 48 fishermen who have been in American hands since early December. The fishermen, picked up by U.S. warships in a storm, will be flown to Hong Kong for repatriation by the British Red Cross.

Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand announced that his government would send more than 1,000 jungle-trained troops to South Vietnam as soon as possible. He made clear, however, that their departure is not imminent, saying the force would be made up of volunteers from the army and the reserve and the call for volunteers would be issued soon."

U.S. pilots flew 71 strike missions over the North yesterday.

B-52 heavy bombers staged four raids in rapid succession, two of them less than 45 miles from Saigon, dropping over 500 tons of bombs.

PEACE

United States, to stand by our allies in Asia and to work with all our energy for a peaceful, secure and prosperous Southeast Asia. Only by meeting these commitments can we keep on this small and vulnerable planet the minimum conditions for peace and order."

The U.S. State Department said yesterday the United States was prepared to order a halt to all bombing of the north as soon as Hanoi gave assurances, privately or otherwise, that the move would result in scaling down of hostilities by the Communist side.

The Pope spoke during a Mass he celebrated in St. Peter's Basilica to call attention to the plight of Christians in China whose priests and bishops have been expelled and jailed.

"We would like to talk peace with those who rule over contemporary Chinese life on the mainland," the pontiff said.

He did not mention mediation or Vietnam directly. But Vatican sources said he had in mind the rebuff last year when Communist party leader Mao Tse-tung reportedly refused to even take into his hand a letter from the Pope urging China's help in bringing about peace negotiations for Vietnam.

New Arrivals On Prison's Death Row

The number of prisoners on San Quentin's Death Row rose to 62 yesterday with arrival of two youths convicted of a $40 robbery and murder in San Diego County.

They are Kenneth Lloyd Brawley, 19, and Larry Andrew Baker, 22, who were found guilty this week of stabbing to death and robbing cab driver Edwin Brewer, 35, lst July 23. Both were Navy seamen at the time of the killing.

No execution dates have been set for the pair, pending customary appeals of the convictions.

Their arrival follows commutation Dec. 28 of the death sentences of four condemned men by former Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Associate Warden James W. L. Park said there are no execution dates set at the prison now, although the Supreme Court recently affirmed the convictions of five condemned prisoners.

Bond Not Likely To Hike Taxes

Passage of a proposed $3 million bond issue in June "probably will not increase the tax rate of Mill Valley School District," Asst. Supt. Leo B. Edson told the district's community relations committee last night.

Payment this year of most of the district's outstanding debt to the state will mean that at least 21.2 cents on the present tax rate could be used to finance interest and redemption on $2 million in bonds next year, Edson said.

Sale of $2 million in bonds would bring the district to its present limit of bonded indebtedness, he explained. The third million of the issue would be for future sale after some present indebtedness has been retired and assessed valuation has increased.

Meeting Cancelled

The regular meeting Monday of Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission has been canceled, commission secretary Julie Butler said today. Next meeting will be Jan. 23 at 8 p.m. in the board room of the new library.

District designated in a joint session between LAFC and directors of the two boards two years ago.

"That was such a pleasant session," Commissioner Hugh G. Marchant said. "I hope we are not breaking faith."

Dr. Leslie Webber, Point Reyes Station physician, said the community had tried unsuccessfully to get some action on annexation to the municipal district, but finally went to North Marin. "They are willing," he said.

He said the area is full of problems and no water district is eager to take it on.

Commissioner Thomas T Storer, who made the motion for approval, said the Marin Municipal District might have "broken faith" in not agreeing to annex the property.

The application called for annexation of 13,400 acres, but the action last night recommended deletion of about a fifth of the territory on the east side of Tocoloma Ridge, the exact boundary to be settled jointly by the two districts.

Commission Executive Officer John F. Barrows said that under written policy of the Marin Municipal District, annexation fee could run up to $330,000 for the entire territory. The North Marin iDstrict has no annexation fee policy, but directors made it clear there might well be initial charges to cover costs.

"We don't expect North Marin to be a Santa Claus," said Jack S. Mason, Point Reyes Station restaurant owner.

Dr. Webber said the Marin Municipal District wants payments to cover established reservoirs and facilities upon annexation, while the North Marin District will allow payment as facilities are developed.

Commissioner Peter H. Behr said there appeared to be a philosophical difference between "an ongoing district with a future and one that is mature."

No one was present to represent Marin Municipal Water District. All commissioners had was a letter from the district which Commissioner Jan Paul Dyk called inconclusive.

SLAYING

shooting differed from testimony by a pathologist, Dr. D. Benham. Mrs. Busolo said her husband had been standing seven to nine feet from her when the shot was fired. Benham testified that Busolo died of a contact chest wound and had bruises on his face, in addition to post-mortem injuries consistent with the body being dragged down steps.

Mrs. Busolo testified she and her husband had argued over money and doctors for the last two years.

The couple, who moved to Lake Havasu City two years ago, had a stormy married history during their residence in Marin County.

Busolo, who operated service stations in San Rafael, Kentfield and San Anselmo, once signed a complaint against his wife, charging she tried to run him down with the family car.

It was a second marriage for both. Busolo had a son by a previous marriage, Beverly Busolo of Miami, Fla. Mary Busolo had a daughter by a privious marriage, Mrs. Helen Canady of Charleston, S. C., and they had a son of their marriage, Lucinio Busolo III of Eureka.

At yesterday's inquest, their son, Lucinio, testified that his father had stopped Mrs. Busolo from shooting herself on one occasion and that she had once taken an overdose of sleeping tablets.

Another witness was Mrs. Remola Benton, who testified she met Mrs. Busolo at Kingman two days after the shooting and Mrs. Busolo told her there had been "a terrible accident."

Busolo was a past president of the San Anselmo Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce, and was a member of the San Anselmo Planning Commission from 1954 to 1960.

Hill Protests Use Of Name

Gerald N. Hill, president of the California Democratic Council, today repudiated the use of his name in connection with a meeting of the Conference for New Politics in Santa Rosa this weekend.

Hill, San Francisco attorney and former Marin resident, declared : "I do not belong to this group, I have never attended a meeting, I was never invited by its planning committee, and I am not attending."

Hill said he has written to Phillip Drath of San Rafael, chairman of the New Politics group, protesting the use of his name. He said his name was listed as a speaker in a brochure advertising the New Politics meeting.

Jets Fly To Games

Portions of the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron left Hamilton Air Force Base today to participate in the annual training and weapons firing mission at Tyndal Air Force Base, Fla.

Probation Given To Actor's Son

John Weissmuller, 26, son of the famed movie Tarzan, was placed on two years probation yesterday for battery on a police officer and kicking in a car window during a Sausalito fracas last Sept. 24.

Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court also ordered Weissmuller to make restitution to the car owner, Thomas Driskill, 301 Reed Boulevard, Strawberry.

Weissmuller, of San Francisco, and Margaret Geri, 33, of Gate 6 Road, Marinship, had pleaded no contest to assaulting Officer Michael Kielman. Weissmuller also pleaded no contest to the destruction of property.

Miss Geri was placed on a year's probation and fined $56 on Dec. 22.

Woodacre Club Committees Set

Committee chairmen for 1967 for the Woodacre Improvement Club have been announced by club president Bart Richardson.

They are: Rodney Thorsen, activities; Mrs. Lloyd C. Davis, communications; Stanley Dentkos, clubhouse; Ronald Marcacci, membership; Charles Mathis, club grounds; Donald Pederson, pools; Mrs. Robert Benz, tennis; Mrs. Emil Kandela, landscaping; Mrs. Harold Perriman, auditing; Ted P. Yates, parliamentarian; Mr. and Mrs. J. Kay Schneider, bingo, and Mrs. Bart Richardson, publicity.

A membership meeting will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse. Plans for the year will be outlined and the membership will be asked to vote on changes in the by-laws.

School District, Employee Sued

Tamalpais High School District and an employee today were sued in Marin Superior Court for $50,000 by a 6-year-old girl struck by a district-owned truck last July 12.

The victim, Marie Chase, daughter of Mrs. Marie L. Chase of Mill Valley, who filed the complaint on her daughter's behalf, alleges negligent driving by the employee, Manuel Nunes, resulted in the utility truck striking the girl in front of Tamalpais High School auditorium

She suffered head, neck and back injuries, the complaint charges.

Maloney Says Mill Valley Board Wrong

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said today that a closed session such as that held by the Mill Valley School District Board to consider employment of an architect does not come under the exceptions to the legal ban on closed sessions of public bodies.

Only exceptions under Ralph M. Brown Act Act are to hire, dismiss, or hera charges against officers or employees.

Maloney said he had earlier given such an opinion to the Sausalito School District, which subsequently canceled a closed session and held an open session to employ an architect.

AIDE NOT ASKED

Had Supt. G. R. McConnell asked prior to Wednesday night's session of Mill Valley trustees about the legality of a closed meeting on the architect question, Maloney said today he would have advised McConnell of his earlier opinion.

However, Maloney said that a recent decision by a state appelate court, in William R. Letsch vs. the North San Diego County Hospital District, might alter his view.

The issue is whether an architect would be an officer or employee of the district and subject to closed session for employment. Maloney has said an architect is a consultant, not an employee. The appelate case, however, included a ruling that Letsch, a radiologist, was properly dismissed by the hospital board in closed session. Maloney said the radiologist may have been serving the district on a consultant basis.

He will look into this prior to replying to a formal request by McConnell for a written legal opinion, received today.

OTHER TOPICS

McConnell did not ask for legal opinion on the other two matters considered by the board in closed session. These were selection of consultants to screen applicants for the superintendency, appointment of a committee to assist the board in setting policy on a forthcoming bond issue.

Here again, Maloney said, the issue is whether the persons would be officers or employees of the district.

An Independent-Journal reporter covering the Wednesday night session informed trustees of Maloney's previous opinion regarding hiring of an architect, but the trustees went ahead with the closed session.

Hidden Valley New Units Open

The San Anselmo School District board learned last night that three new units at Hidden Valley School opened Tuesday.

The addition includes two science rooms, with adjoining conference rooms and locker room, another building with three classrooms separated by folding partitions, and a library.

Two Viewpoints On Annexation

Annexation of Marin City and Tennessee, Tamalpais and Homestead valleys to the City of Mill Valley would provide a "workable" city equipped to handle urban problems, Mayor Albert E. White told Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club members last night.

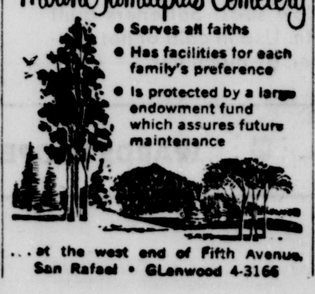

Such a city, he said, would give southern Marin residents better control of planning and government than now provided by the county. Developers are planning unincorporated areas, he said, and the wishes of residents are being ignored.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, however, told the 65 club members present that cities place too much emphasis on annexation and not enough on how citizens are governed. Some more uniform and efficient form of government eventually will develop in the county, he said, and it would be best to plan for it rather than let it simply happen.

More MIGs Bagged; Ground War Inactive

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. Air Force pilots downed two more Communist MIG21s over North Vietnam today, running their score of MIG kills for the week to nine, the Air Force announced.

U.S. officials said no American planes were lost in the duels with MIGs, but they said one Air Force Phantom jet went down today 100 miles west of Hanoi from "unknown causes." Both fliers aboard the reconnaissance Phantom were rescued within nine minutes of each other, a U.S. spokesman said.

Without divulging details, the spokesman said Air Force Phantom pilots by maneuver tactics forced one of the MIGs into an uncontrollable spin. The other MIG was shot down with an air-to-air missile from a Phantom, the spokesman said.

The ground war in South Vietnam continued at a slow pace, as it has since the start of the year, with most of the fighting between Viet Cong and South Viet troops.

U.S. officials disclosed plans to send back to Communist China within a few days 48 fishermen who have been in American hands since early December. The fishermen, picked up by U.S. warships in a storm, will be flown to Hong Kong for repatriation by the British Red Cross.

Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand announced that his government would send more than 1,000 jungle-trained troops to South Vietnam as soon as possible. He made clear, however, that their departure is not imminent, saying the force would be made up of volunteers from the army and the reserve and the call for volunteers would be issued soon."

U.S. pilots flew 71 strike missions over the North yesterday.

B-52 heavy bombers staged four raids in rapid succession, two of them less than 45 miles from Saigon, dropping over 500 tons of bombs.

PEACE

United States, to stand by our allies in Asia and to work with all our energy for a peaceful, secure and prosperous Southeast Asia. Only by meeting these commitments can we keep on this small and vulnerable planet the minimum conditions for peace and order."

The U.S. State Department said yesterday the United States was prepared to order a halt to all bombing of the north as soon as Hanoi gave assurances, privately or otherwise, that the move would result in scaling down of hostilities by the Communist side.

The Pope spoke during a Mass he celebrated in St. Peter's Basilica to call attention to the plight of Christians in China whose priests and bishops have been expelled and jailed.

"We would like to talk peace with those who rule over contemporary Chinese life on the mainland," the pontiff said.

He did not mention mediation or Vietnam directly. But Vatican sources said he had in mind the rebuff last year when Communist party leader Mao Tsetung reportedly refused to even take into his hand a letter from the Pope urging China's help in bringing about peace negotiations for Vietnam.

New Arrivals On Prison's Death Row

The number of prisoners on San Quentin's Death Row rose to 62 yesterday with arrival of two youths convicted of a $40 robbery and murder in San Diego County.

They are Kenneth Lloyd Brawley, 19, and Larry Andrew Baker, 22, who were found guilty this week of stabbing to death and robbing cab driver Edwin Brewer, 35, lst July 23. Both were Navy seamen at the time of the killing.

No execution dates have been set for the pair, pending customary appeals of the convictions.

Their arrival follows commutation Dec. 28 of the death sentences of four condemned men by former Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Associate Warden James W. L. Park said there are no execution dates set at the prison now, although the Supreme Court recently affirmed the convictions of five condemned prisoners.

Bond Not Likely To Hike Taxes

Passage of a proposed $3 million bond issue in June "probably will not increase the tax rate of Mill Valley School District," Asst. Supt. Leo B. Edson told the district's community relations committee last night.

Payment this year of most of the district's outstanding debt to the state will mean that at least 21.2 cents on the present tax rate could be used to finance interest and redemption on $2 million in bonds next year, Edson said.

Sale of $2 million in bonds would bring the district to its present limit of bonded indebtedness, he explained. The third million of the issue would be for future sale after some present indebtedness has been retired and assessed valuation has increased.

Meeting Cancelled

The regular meeting Monday of Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission has been canceled, commission secretary Julie Butler said today. Next meeting will be Jan. 23 at 8 p.m. in the board room of the new library.

shooting differed from testimony by a pathologist, Dr. D. Benham. Mrs. Busolo said her husband had been standing seven to nine feet from her when the shot was fired. Benham testified that Busolo died of a contact chest wound and had bruises on his face, in addition to post-mortem injuries consistent with the body being dragged down steps.

Mrs. Busolo testified she and her husband had argued over money and doctors for the last two years.

The couple, who moved to Lake Havasu City two years ago, had a stormy married history during their residence in Marin County.

Busolo, who operated service stations in San Rafael, Kentfield and San Anselmo, once signed a complaint against his wife, charging she tried to run him down with the family car.

It was a second marriage for both. Busolo had a son by a previous marriage, Beverly Busolo of Miami, Fla. Mary Busolo had a daughter by a privious marriage, Mrs. Helen Canady of Charleston, S. C., and they had a son of their marriage, Lucinio Busolo III of Eureka.

At yesterday's inquest, their son, Lucinio, testified that his father had stopped Mrs. Busolo from shooting herself on one occasion and that she had once taken an overdose of sleeping tablets.

Another witness was Mrs. Remola Benton, who testified she met Mrs. Busolo at Kingman two days after the shooting and Mrs. Busolo told her there had been "a terrible accident."

Busolo was a past president of the San Anselmo Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce, and was a member of the San Anselmo Planning Commission from 1954 to 1960.

Hill Protests Use Of Name

Gerald N. Hill, president of the California Democratic Council, today repudiated the use of his name in connection with a meeting of the Conference for New Politics in Santa Rosa this weekend.

Hill, San Francisco attorney and former Marin resident, declared : "I do not belong to this group, I have never attended a meeting, I was never invited by its planning committee, and I am not attending."

Hill said he has written to Phillip Drath of San Rafael, chairman of the New Politics group, protesting the use of his name. He said his name was listed as a speaker in a brochure advertising the New Politics meeting.

District designated in a joint session between LAFC and directors of the two boards two years ago.

"That was such a pleasant session," Commissioner Hugh G. Marchant said. "I hope we are not breaking faith."

Dr. Leslie Webber, Point Reyes Station physician, said the community had tried unsuccessfully to get some action on annexation to the municipal district, but finally went to North Marin. "They are willing," he said.

He said the area is full of problems and no water district is eager to take it on.

Commissioner Thomas T Storer, who made the motion for approval, said the Marin Municipal District might have "broken faith" in not agreeing to annex the property.

The application called for annexation of 13,400 acres, but the action last night recommended deletion of about a fifth of the territory on the east side of Tocoloma Ridge, the exact boundary to be settled jointly by the two districts.

Commission Executive Officer John F. Barrows said that under written policy of the Marin Municipal District, annexation fee could run up to $330,000 for the entire territory. The North Marin iDstrict has no annexation fee policy, but directors made it clear there might well be initial charges to cover costs.

"We don't expect North Marin to be a Santa Claus," said Jack S. Mason, Point Reyes Station restaurant owner.

Dr. Webber said the Marin Municipal District wants payments to cover established reservoirs and facilities upon annexation, while the North Marin District will allow payment as facilities are developed.

Commissioner Peter H. Behr said there appeared to be a philosophical difference between "an ongoing district with a future and one that is mature."

No one was present to represent Marin Municipal Water District. All commissioners had was a letter from the district which Commissioner Jan Paul Dyk called inconclusive.

Probation Given To Actor's Son

John Weissmuller, 26, son of the famed movie Tarzan, was placed on two years probation yesterday for battery on a police officer and kicking in a car window during a Sausalito fracas last Sept. 24.

Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court also ordered Weissmuller to make restitution to the car owner, Thomas Driskill, 301 Reed Boulevard, Strawberry.

Weissmuller, of San Francisco, and Margaret Geri, 33, of Gate 6 Road, Marinship, had pleaded no contest to assaulting Officer Michael Kielman. Weissmuller also pleaded no contest to the destruction of property.

Miss Geri was placed on a year's probation and fined $56 on Dec. 22.

School District, Employee Sued

Tamalpais High School District and an employee today were sued in Marin Superior Court for $50,000 by a 6-year-old girl struck by a district-owned truck last July 12.

The victim, Marie Chase, daughter of Mrs. Marie L. Chase of Mill Valley, who filed the complaint on her daughter's behalf, alleges negligent driving by the employee, Manuel Nunes, resulted in the utility truck striking the girl in front of Tamalpais High School auditorium

She suffered head, neck and back injuries, the complaint charges.

Maloney Says Mill Valley Board Wrong

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said today that a closed session such as that held by the Mill Valley School District Board to consider employment of an architect does not come under the exceptions to the legal ban on closed sessions of public bodies.

Only exceptions under Ralph M. Brown Act Act are to hire, dismiss, or hera charges against officers or employees.

Maloney said he had earlier given such an opinion to the Sausalito School District, which subsequently canceled a closed session and held an open session to employ an architect.

AIDE NOT ASKED

Had Supt. G. R. McConnell asked prior to Wednesday night's session of Mill Valley trustees about the legality of a closed meeting on the architect question, Maloney said today he would have advised McConnell of his earlier opinion.

However, Maloney said that a recent decision by a state appelate court, in William R. Letsch vs. the North San Diego County Hospital District, might alter his view.

The issue is whether an architect would be an officer or employee of the district and subject to closed session for employment. Maloney has said an architect is a consultant, not an employee. The appelate case, however, included a ruling that Letsch, a radiologist, was properly dismissed by the hospital board in closed session. Maloney said the radiologist may have been serving the district on a consultant basis.

He will look into this prior to replying to a formal request by McConnell for a written legal opinion, received today.

OTHER TOPICS

McConnell did not ask for legal opinion on the other two matters considered by the board in closed session. These were selection of consultants to screen applicants for the superintendency, appointment of a committee to assist the board in setting policy on a forthcoming bond issue.

Here again, Maloney said, the issue is whether the persons would be officers or employees of the district.

An Independent-Journal reporter covering the Wednesday night session informed trustees of Maloney's previous opinion regarding hiring of an architect, but the trustees went ahead with the closed session.

Two Viewpoints On Annexation

Annexation of Marin City and Tennessee, Tamalpais and Homestead valleys to the City of Mill Valley would provide a "workable" city equipped to handle urban problems, Mayor Albert E. White told Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club members last night.

Such a city, he said, would give southern Marin residents better control of planning and government than now provided by the county. Developers are planning unincorporated areas, he said, and the wishes of residents are being ignored.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, however, told the 65 club members present that cities place too much emphasis on annexation and not enough on how citizens are governed. Some more uniform and efficient form of government eventually will develop in the county, he said, and it would be best to plan for it rather than let it simply happen.

College Business Office Due Razing For Parking Center

Marin Junior College District last night turned the business office at 139 Kent Avenue into a parking lot because it doesn't meet the state's earthquake resistant standards.

Trustees voted to raze the building used for business offices, and put a parking lot on the site, at cost estimated at $3,500.

They voted to house the business staff in a building at 20 Laurel Avenue—which will have to be repaired to bring it up to the earthquake standards.

Acting President Irwin P. Diamond described it as "an emergency move, undoubtedly a temporary move that will get us by this semester. The repairs at 20 Laurel can be made by college employees, he said.

Th vote on the entire package was 6-1, with Alan D. Ewen dissenting.

Chairman Robert E. Rogers said there should be a long-range study on housing in periphery areas and housing of faculty "rather than moving from shanty to shanty."

Board Member Elizabeth M. Deedy said she was distressed over going "from one emergency or temporary situation to another."

Trustees agreed to purchase the 61.18-acre Rowland parcel for the north campus on the Pacheco Ranch in Novato, at $158,000.

The land, on which there are no improvements, is shown at an appraised "full market value" of $110,000 on the county assessor's roles. County records show the $158,000 price was established in a March 31, 1964, agreement between the college district and Abigal Rowland, et al.

The purchase, fourth in the district's purchase schedule for the north campus site, will bring the acreage to 212.4. Under the schedule the district will purchase an 80.26 acre site Jan. 31, 1968, and a 40.76 acre cite by Jan. 31, 1970 for a total of 333.42 acres.

Trustees rejected a recommendation by Diamond that the district give the Marin County Schools Office an additional two months to decide whether it wants to renew its contract for joint occupancy of the college's data processing center. Deadline for terminating the contract is past for this year, but Diamond suggested that the board waive the deadline until Feb. 28.

Weaver Meadows, chairman of the business and economics division said the county schools office is considering having its own data processing center.

Rogers said the problem should be tackled "in the spirit of the contract, and as fas as I'm concerned they still have a contrict."

The Marin College District Board Also:

1. Approved change orders for the parking lot control gates at a cost of $3,307 by 6-1 vote, with Joseph D. Gargiulo dissenting. Donna Ryan, president of the Associated Students, said the student executive committee opposed spending any money on the parking gates.

2. Approved change orders in the Fine Arts Building totaling $2,226.

3. Accepted a grant of interest in the Newman Center at 881-885 College Avenue, scheduled to be occupied by the college July 1.

4. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Johnette Jensen, account clerk, effective Dec. 30, and hired Mrs. Jessie Jo Bertini as account clerk at $425 a month, effective Jan. 15.

5. Agreed to offer a sociology and history course at San Quentin Prison with John C. Curtin as instructor.

6. Awarded East Bay Printing Co. of Oakland, lowest of three bidders, contract to print 6,000 copies of the 1967-68 college catalogue, and deferred action on a recommendation by Diamond that the district sell them at 50 cents at the bookstore and $1 if they have to be mailed.

7. Heard an estimate from Diamond that the college enrollment would increase by 12 per cent next fall.

8. Received a report from Trustee Theodore C. Wellman that Diamond has resigned as chairman of the scholarship awards committee of the College of Marin Foundation and Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy has become chairman.

9. Adjourned until a special session with architects and faculty to discuss construction of the Science Building at 8 p.m. Monday in Room G-3, Physical Education Building.

10. Changed its next regular meeting from Jan. 19 at Jan. 17 at 8 p.m. in Room G-3, Physical Education complex, with the citizens financial advisory committee scheduled to present its report, starting at 8:30 p.m.

11. Received an audit for the fiscal year ending last June 30, from Robert D. Soberblom, with a recommendation that the district prepare its federal and state project reports so it knows exactly how much the district's cost are.

Firm Hit Again By Young Robber

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A savings and loan company lost an estimated $4,500 yesterday to a bandit thought to be the same man who robbed the company of $2,000 two weeks ago.

The young robber entered Colonial Savings and Loan Co. shortly before noon carrying a black plastic bag and an automatic pistol. He approached two women tellers and ordered them to fill his bag "and hurry up."

Two Get Probation, Drunken Driving Fines

Mary Nell Bulto, 43, San Francisco, was fined $174 and put on six months probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. California Highway Patrol arrested her Dec. 26 on Highway 101.

Preston Shackelford, 18, of 204 Laurel Place, San Rafael, was fined $87 and put on six months probation for drunken driving. He was arrested by Mill Valley police on Amicita Avenue Oct. 9.

Legislators Urge An End To Powell Probe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two Negro California legislators, in a telegram to President Johnson, describe the move to unseat Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., as "an attempt to undermine black political leadership."

Sen. Mervyn Dymally and Assemblyman Bill Greene, both Los Angeles Democrats, said yesterday they sent telegrams to the President and others defending Powell and urging a halt of his "purge."

The move is being led, they alleged, by "some reactionary forces who are creeping out of the walls after the defeat of the New York police review board and the nullification of California's fair housing act by Prop. 14."

They also attacked Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D - Calif., for his role in the Powell ouster attempt. They said they "are not impressed" by the San Diego representative's statement that he is "a friend of civil rights."

Faculty Exodus Draws Trustee Contract Stand

By FRANK FARRARA

Marin Junior College District trustees, disturbed by a series of officials quitting while under contract, agreed last night to establish a policy on contracts.

Their concern was expressed when they received the resignation of Ward Blanchard, head librarian, to become director of libraries for the Newark-Fremont Junior College District in Alameda County.

Blanchard was the latest in a series of officials to resign starting with former college president Stephen E. Epler, who quit to become president of Fremont-Newark.

James Duke later resigned as director of planning to become vice president under Epler. Then William Collins, administrative assistant in charge of government projects, resigned to take a similar position in the Newark-Fremont district.

Roy Mikalson, dean of the evening college and community services, resigned in September to become president of Clackamas Community College in Milwaukie, Ore.

Trustees accepted Blanchard's resignation by 5-2 vote, with Trustees Thomas A. Skornia and Elizabeth M. Deedy dissenting.

Mrs. Deedy said her opposition was not directed against Blanchard, but she felt "the time has passed when we can accept resignations when they come."

She said she was "becoming increasingly concerned and distressed at the tendency to request release from contract, and the tendency of the board to acquiese."

Skornia said the district should have a policy, so it is known what the board will accept and won't accept resignations.

Chairman Robert E. Rogers appointed Skornia, Mrs. Deedy and trustee Theodore C. Wellman as a committee to review the "contract picture for the college," and make recommendations for a policy.

Acting President Irwin. P. Diamond reported that it will take time to find a replacement for Blanchard, but with some part-time help and the use of a consultant, the library program and planning can continue in the meantime.

Blanchard's contract ran until June 30—"the same as the others," quipped Diamond.

Tool Box Theft

Theft of a tool box and watch from a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. truck was reported yesterday to Mill Valley police by Bruce A. Brower, employee of the company. The theft occurred Wednesday night, he said, while the truck was parked behind Malugani's Tire Service, 15 Montford Avenue.

New Governor To Be Married

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk appears headed for the altar with a dazzling Brazilian.

Kirk, Florida's first Republican governor since 1876, took his oath of office Tuesday. He immediately stunned Florida's predominantly Democratic legislature by calling for a special session to revamp the state's proposed new constitution. Critical reaction soon was forthcoming.

Then the handsome, twice-divorced Kirk created a social uproar at his inaugural ball Tuesday night when he appeared with a blonde, German-born socialite from Brazil.

Speculation that Kirk and Miss Erika Mittfeld would wed was confirmed yesterday when her former husband said the wedding date would be Jan. 30.

Marin Dining And Wining

First New Marin Restaurant Of Year To Be Located In Ross

First new restaurant opening in Marin for 1967 comes sooner than I anticipated. If all goes well it will be in action Monday in an area I never expected—Ross.

This is Jean's Kitchen on Poplar Avenue in the former beauty salon quarters next to Ross Cleaners—seems there are no street numbers here. It will have table service for 40 people and be open for breakfast, lunch and dinner seven days a week from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Anything on the menu may also be purchased to take out.

Owner is Mrs. Jean Dobson of San Anselmo, who has been two years at Pier 15 and was about the same length of time at Eugene's pancake house on Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael as night manager. She has enlisted husband Marvin to help her open in the morning and do night service after his day's work with Northern Marin Plumbing.

Jean has modeled her operation somewhat after that of Pier 15—on the cafeteria style where you serve yourself to beverage, salad and dessert and then pick up a hot entree.

Menu will have steaks (top sirloin, T-bone, New York and rib), a seafood plate and at least one special a day. Price range (a la carte) will be from $1.35 to $3.25. And there will be pastrami, corned beef and steak sandwiches, and a merchants lunch or special at $1.

THERE WILL BE OTHER OPENINGS during 1967. Among those most certain to go into operation soon are:

Miz Brown's—sometime in the spring. This will be part of the Consumers Cooperative complex on Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera. Look for it to serve breakfast, lunch and dinner and also operate a snack bar in the market area.

The Pepperwood, San Anselmo. This will be in the new Red Hill Shopping Center now being rushed toward completion. It is a Gene Compton enterprise, will serve breakfast, lunch and dinner and have a cocktail lounge. I understand Dick Atherton is to be bar manager and George Loizos, now manager at the International Inn Restaurant in South San Francisco, will be restaurant manager. Open February or March.

Lyons Restaurant —Northgate Shopping Center (unit three). This will be an operation of Lyons-Magnus, Inc., now a division of Consolidated Foods. Gary Nachmann, executive vice president of the Lyons restaurant division, by the way, is new president of the Golden Gate Restaurant Assn. The company has a list of restaurant successes and no doubt has assessed its possibilities at Northgate to be good. Construction is just under way and an opening isn't anticipated until spring.

IT IS SAID that 44 per cent of the food service operations in the country are brand new to the business every two years. And one out of five in all categories of restaurants hasn't been in business a full year. This of course includes all type of food establishments and it is estimated that 31 per cent of them sell principally sandwiches and refreshments.

I haven't thoroughly checked the percentages in Marin, but in spite of the usual sales, dropouts and new places, the older established places still predominate.

During 1966 we have seen such new openings as Sausalito Inn changed over from Peter Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito a short time ago. In the same city also opened Patty's (where Cafe Lito used to be), The Lion's Share (formerly the Cantina), Latitude 38 on the Bridgeway—and Pier 16 was sold to Johnny McKeon, Richard Blacow and Bucky Stevens. Apparently it is designed to be a seafood house.

New in Strawberry last year was Kublai Khan, Chinese and American restaurant of Stanley Toy who specializes in Mongolian firepots and other delightful viands of that sort.

El Rebozo is new at the Fireside Motel near the Richardson Bridge. Owners are Francisco Uanua and Maria Vasquez who used to have a place in San Francisco. Open daily for lunch and dinner—from about noon to 11 p.m. Day of closing has not yet been established. Homemade Mexican food.

IN TIBURON LAST YEAR there were two new openings — the Windjammer — another Ernie Van Asperen enterprise — and Tiburon Lodge, operated by Ben Farlatti. You should make it a point to take in both of these places.

A NEWCOMER to San Anselmo during 1966 was Pasquale Parrillo, who opened Pasquale's next to Hal Matteuci's Knot Inn on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Pasquale goes in for Italian dishes and has a wine and beer license. Usually there's a bottle of the former that goes with the dinner.

San Geronimo National Golf Course opened its clubhouse in San Geronimo Valley for breakfasts and lunches every day of the week last year. But dinners—there are none, except for groups and parties by special arrangement.

Eugene's Country Club Restaurant at the Country Club Bowl is East San Rafael was a recent opener. Eugene Lackenbach came back form Las Vegas and out of retirement to try his hand again. And he has a very neat place, good food and good prices. Breakfast, lunch and dinner.

L'Europe Restaurant on the Miracle Mile at Santa Margarita Drive was another San Rafael opening for 1966. Frits Verburg and Leo Cantayre took over what had been the Casa Linda location and changed decor and operation from Mexican to French and European. So don't go there looking for an enchilada. Settle for beef Bourguignon, maybe.

And in Novato, the newest opening is the Peacock at 1618 Grant Avenue, owned by Mrs. Walter Del Rose. It's my loss that I haven't made it here yet, for I'm told by several that it's excellent.

THE YEAR 1966 was not without its dropouts in Marin.

Aside from the changeovers already mentioned, MacArthur's in San Anselmo withdrew from the lunch and dinner scene for a very modified food service. And Brothers 2 in Northgate Shopping Center was a casualty.

MOST RECENT PLACE to be closed entirely is King Cotton in San Rafael and the future here is still uncertain.

Jim Bigelow, who has the lease, says he just doesn't have the time to give the operation his personal attention. What may result is an affiliation with someone else to make it go.

I MAY HAVE MISSED a change or two that transpired last year, and if the foregoing list of revisions (which will be reflected in our forthcoming Dining and Wining Guide next month) seem voluminous—it really isn't. The total is still less than 20 per cent.

MOST MARIN STANDBYS keep both their owners and customers—like San Rafael Joe's which never ceases to amaze me with its check list of patrons by day and by night.

Joe's must be a Fourth Street fixture of about a score of years now—I'd have to look up the exact date of its origin—and it has never lacked for visitors. You can draw your own conclusions, but if your thinking is like mine, you'll agree it isn't happenstance. Or gimmicks.

As a matter of fact, there's an idea of my own I'd like to see promoted here. I've talked briefly with Hector Rubini and Guido Farina about it and I think they'll go along. This is a contest to give the right number of separate pieces of glass in that stained glass gondola scene in back of the bar.

The only trouble is, no one seems to know for sure what the answer is and that will have to be determined. Meanwhile I suppose there's no reason why you shouldn't start counting—from your own side of the bar, of course.

More about this later.

EL BORRO in Tiburon reopens tonight after a week of refurbishing, a customary procedure here the first of each year. One favorite at this place is its spicy chile verde—and another is Pedro Salas and his guitar, alternating between Friday and Saturday nights each week.

EXHIBITION of the paintings of Willard Cox at Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon wasn't meant to go beyond the first of the year —but the display period has been extended to Jan. 15.

ROMONA'S RESTAURANT in San Rafael has had its exterior completed and newly painted. At last check the new sign still had to go up—so watch out you don't go in Fred Kittler's Baronial Cake Box by mistake. He doesn't make tamales—nor even tamalitos.

Inside, the restaurant still has a few touches to go. Brickwork is completed but wall paintings have to be done and there is some work coming up on the tables.

But the latter are quite suitable for service — and you can get the general idea of the new look.

Novato Kiwanis Club Installation Tomorrow

Paul Mobley will be installed as president of the Novato Kiwanis Club at a dinner meeting tomorrow at the Marin Country Club.

Also being installed by Sebastian Cimino, Kiwanis lieutenant governor, will be Eugene DeBrecht, first vice president; Gerald Smith, second vice president; Eugene Lounder, treasurer, and George McDaniel, secretary.

Escapee Caught In Las Vegas

William A. Carnes Jr., who escaped from the San Quentin Prison ranch Dec. 11, has been arrested in Las Vegas, Nev., on a minor charge and is serving 10 days in jail there, Associate Warden James W. L. Park said today.

Park said Carnes will be returned to San Quentin as soon as Las Vegas authorities release him.

Carnes, 39, walked away from the ranch while serving a term for forgery in Riverside County.

Doctor Loses Million Dollar Slander Action

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A San Francisco physician lost a $1.1 million slander suit yesterday against the chief of staff at Mt. Zion Hospital, who had him dropped from the staff in 1959.

Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman charged in his suit that Dr. Leonard D. Rosenman had slandered him in reporting alleged unethical conduct to the hospital's credentials committee and suggesting he not be allowed to practice at the hospital.

The jury voted 9 to 3 against Dr. Ascherman.

Superior Judge Charles S. Peery took under submission a request for an injuntion to compel the hospital to reinstate Dr. Ascherman.

Dr. Ascherman has a $6 million suit filed against four other hospitals and the San Francisco Medical Society, charging they conspired to refuse him staff privileges because of his pro-Medicare views.

$300,000 Blast In Bay School

HAYWARD (UPI) —A janitor was seriously injured last night in an explosion and fire that wrecked the Burbank Elementary School.

Custodian Mike Mikia was the only person in the school when the blast occurred at about 8:30 p.m.

A fireman and a policeman received minor injuries during the fight to control the blaze. Damage was estimated at $300,000.

Police said the cause of the explosion has not been determined. The blast rocked the neighborhood.

Tomales High Studying Bond Issue's Impact

Passage of a $780,000 Tomales High School District bond issue on Feb. 28 would increase the district's tax rate by from 24.5 to 46.5 cents, provided there were no increase in assessed valuation.

These figures were given the citizens committee for the bonds, meeting last night at the high school, by Supt. Anthony Matulich.

Tomales High School District's present tax rate for bond redemption is 12 cents per $100 assessed valuation. With the new bonds, it would range from a high of 58.5 cents to a low of 36.5 cents, Matulich said.

Mrs. Lois Parks noted the Tomales bond redemption rate is below that in nearby districts. She cited San Rafael High School District's rate of 21.5 cents for bond retirement, Tamalpais High School District, 18.5 cents, and Petaluma High School District, 28.5 cents.

Operating taxes are higher also in San Rafael, Tamalpais and Analy High School Districts, she reported.

Next meeting of the committee will be Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school.

Convicted Union Man Wins Delay

A stay of execution of a six-month county jail term was granted Douglas A. Smith, president of Mailer Union Local 18, yesterday pending appeal proceedings to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. said Smith, convicted Jan. 7, 1965, of trespassing on Marin Guide property at 200 Shoreline Highway, Tamalpais Valley, has indicated he will file a petition seeking a hearing and reversal by the highest court.

Marin Superior Appellate Court upheld Judge Goldstein's ruling and denied a certification to the District Court of Appeals. Smith had been ordered to begin his jail term and pay a $500 fine yesterday.

What Else Can Smokeater Say?

Corte Madera's single paid fireman, Lee Larson, so rarely has a fire report to make out that he makes the most of one when he gets one.

About 1 a. m. today, police received a report that juveniles were trying to set fire to dry Christmas trees stacked in front of the Holy Innocents' Episopal Church, meant to be burned as part of the church's Feast of the Epiphany service today at 7:30 p. m.

Larson's report on the fire read:

"Upon arrival found Christmas trees going up in smoke (holy smoke!); Same was extinguished. Plenty of trees left to burn tonight, however."

Homes Entered By Burglars

Three home burglaries in unincorporated areas of Marin County were reported yesterday by sheriff's officers.

Frank T. Lynch of 345 Dolman Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, told deputies someone entered his home—probably via an open front window—and made off with a $150 portable typewriter. Also taken were a clock, an antique telephone, an electric razor and two rifles.

Intruders took an electric light globe from the Stinson Beach weekend home of John Marsh Davis of 12 Caledonia Street, Sausalito. The home on Calle Del Sierra was entered by forcing a front door.

A movie camera and camera light bar were reported missing by Maurice J. Lynch Jr. of 633 Cedarberry Lane, Marinwood. He told officers they were taken from his unlocked garage since Christmas.

The Ring of Fire is a belt of volcanic activity which surrounds the Pacific Ocean.

Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting Wednesday night of Marin City Homeowners and Improvement Assn. was postponed because several members were sick, reported Mrs. Mary Freeman, corresponding secretary. Date of the meeting will be announced, she said.

Canal Residents Put On Impressive Yule Show

Of all the holiday lights and decorations that are coming down to be stored away for another year, the ones that will be remembered with greatest anticipation next Christmas are probably those that set San Rafael Canal aglow with a myriad of colors.

And the inspiring thing about the Canal decorations is that they were spontaneous, unpromoted and noncommercial. The lights and decorations were the work of individual homeowners and boatowners. In fact, the commercial establishments with canal frontage were conspicuous for the absence of lights.

For years, the Christmas lights at St. Francis Yacht Club in San Francisco and the adjacent Marina homes have been regarded as one of the best examples of enterprising decorations. This year, the San Rafael Canal community's holiday show may have equalled or even topped the effort along the San Francisco Marina.

One drawback in San Rafael is the relative inaccessibility of the display to passing motorists. Only by riding up and down the Canal by boat can one get a full appreciation of the lights and their reflections on the water below.

An added touch this year were the decorated boats drifting up and down the canal, lingering in front of waterfront homes to serenade the residents with Christmas Carols.

Years ago, Belvedere-Tiburon held its annual Night-in-Venice lighting display on the lagoon and the bay front for the enjoyment of the handful of residents who lived on the peninsula then.

San Rafael Canal seems to have picked up the torch, so to speak, and the color and variety seems to be growing each year as boating and apartment houses increase along the waterfront.

All of those who took the time and effort to decorate their homes and boats, and the serenaders who added to the holiday atmosphere are to be commended.

We hope the Canal display will continue to grow with the years, and that more residents will be able to cruise along the Canal at Christmastime to view the waterfront spectacular at its best.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

GIRL SEES OWN PICTURE, RECOVERS SPEECH

A teen-age girl regained her speech and hearing after seeing her picture on television.

The girl, 17, was found wandering on a London street apparently suffering from amnesia. The British Broadcasting Corporation, cooperating with police, carried the girl's picture in hopes that someone would recognize her. Nobody did.

But the shock of seeing herself on the screen brought back the girl's ability to hear and talk. She told police that she had become deaf and dumb after a head injury a year before, and that her parents had recently been killed in a car accident.

Whatever it may mean to others, the sight of one's own face has a very personal significance.

One reason for this fact is that almighty God, Who created us in His own likeness, made each of us completely unique.

To grow and mature in a loving relationship with Him through service to others is the best way to live up to the high mission He gives to every person.

"Through love be servants of one another."

Enlighten me, Lord, that I may better know You so that I may understand myself and see You in others.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Misner Sticks To Unity Theme; Pulls Out In Favor Of Michals

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

THE VENERABLE Gerald E. Misner, whose main theme has been GOP unity throughout his four years as head of the Marin Republican Central Committee, stuck to that theme Tuesday night when he graciously turned over the baton to the younger Chuck Michals.

By bowing out of the contest for chairmanship of the Marin Republican Central Committee, Misner paved the way for a smooth transfer of leadership to Michals and his Marin Republican Council supporters.

MISNER APPARENTLY had enough support to make it an extremely close contest, had he decided to go for another term. At least one unofficial estimate had the 22 members of the central committee deadlocked 11 for Misner and 11 for Michals. If this had developed, three ex-officio votes by Congressman Don Clausen, State Sen. John F. McCarthy, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley would have been the deciding factor.

You could sense the feeling of tenseness among the 50 Republicans who assembled for the election. Senator McCarthy was there to cast his vote if needed. The fact that Congressman Clausen and Assemblyman Bagley did not show up gave some indication of what was to come.

Then Misner got up for the dramatic pullout, and the open struggle for power never developed.

IN A SENSE, it was a fitting climax to the role of peacemaker that Misner has played ever since he took over the reins four years ago. During the bitter Rockefeller-Goldwater rift that threatened to split the Republicans wide open, Misner maintained strict neutrality.

His contention has always been that the county's party chief should steer clear of intraparty strife in the primaries so that he can effectively lead a unified GOP against the Democrats in the finals.

That's the role he played during the Reagan-Christopher primary battle last June and in the Reagan landslide in November.

We've always been impressed with the gentlemanly and dignified manner in which Misner has conducted himself at all times. He will continue to play a leading role in GOP politics as chairman of the Republican Committee of the First Congressional District and as adviser and consultant to the new leaders.

FRED ULLNER of Santa Venetia, former Goldwater supporter and organizer of the 26 Million Club, has launched his writing career in earnest. The latest issue of The Sunday Ramparts carries a full page spread by Ullner on how he worked for Ronald Reagan, became a welcome guest in the Reagan household, and then was gradually eased out of the picture.

It may be a preview of a full-length book on Reagan that Ullner is working on now.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"Last year's problems were last year's problems, and we like to start out the year with fresh placards!"

20 YEARS AGO

A group of Marin residents advocated development of five harbors for small pleasure and commercial craft at Tomales Bay, Bolinas Lagoon, Richardson Bay, Belvedere Cove, and Greenbrae.

John C. Oglesby, retiring member of the Marin County Planning Commission, was honored at a dinner preceding a commission session.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Balanced Freeway Study Is Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In response to your editorial of Dec. 21, I must insist that no more short-sighted than those who blindly oppose all freeways are those who insist on freeways at any cost as "the necessary evils accompanying progress and population growth."

This county and, indeed, our entire country lies in the grip of the world's most horrendous man-made blight because in our fondness for that elusive progress we have been willing to accept a multitude of similar evils as "necessary." The short-sightedness demonstrated by your paper and two of our supervisors, and ultimately by the Division of Highways, has created a climate in which blind opposition seems to many people the only alternative to yet another necessary evil. The citizens of Marin have begun to realize that in life there are other possibilities than the expedient solution which considers only economic and technologic values at the expense of the human environment. If the price of this realization is the scuttling of Route 17, it will have been worth it. But the significant reality is that through a majority of the supervisors the people of Marin have called for a study of the transportation needs of the county that is not limited — to restate a familiar phrase — to making Marin County a fit place for a car to live. This action, not blind acceptance of another ghastly example of expedient freeway engineering, is the "enlightened approach" needed here.

The main problem purportedly solved by Route 17 is commuters, but to insist that wider traffic arteries will do more than broaden congestion here and in San Francisco is foolhardy. Increased automobile lanes alleviate traffic briefly until increased flow potential creates increased flow and the jam occurs. In the meantime, alternate methods of transport have been killed off. The car as commuter transport is unreasonable in the extreme, in travel and storage space, and in use of the machine. When an automobile moves at a fraction of its potential speed, carrying a fraction of its possible cargo, is idly stored at great expense most of the day, and must be stored at ever-increasing distances from the driver's destination, its individual benefits quickly vanish. The freeway will only extend this in greater numbers than now.

For simple repeated daily journeys, fast, clean, convenient mass transit is the obvious answer. But commuters are only one area of the problem. Hence the need for a balanced study. The opportunity lies before the county to make out of this problem a creative and humane solution, that demonstrates other means of transport than the car need study and support and realization; that maintains and complements the human and the natural order of Marin; rather than accepting without a whimper yet another "necessary rape" of our land.

CARY JAMES

At Least Help The Injured Pet

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I've been very much interested in Mrs. Rapp's letter "Sad Experience" and Mrs. O'Connor's and Miss Eldred's opinions which followed. Both women were quick to condemn Mrs. Rapp, but no one made any comment on the driver.

I also am an animal lover. I have two good-sized "family" dogs in a fenced yard. Six months ago, one had gotten out; she was hit by a hit-and-run driver from Point Reyes. My dog was left in the street screaming in pain, her pelvis had been broken in several places. Due to an excellent vet, Dr. Bond, and I think a miracle, she recovered. The driver went scot free. He never even paid the medical expenses after he said he would, but that wasn't the first lie he'd told us. He claimed he didn't see the dog, then he claimed he was going to come back. I had to go after him and bring him back! He also claimed he didn't know he had hit anything (I could hear my dog from inside the house).

If he'd been traveling the speed posted, he could have stopped in time. Recently, I'd learned this same driver hit-and-ran another dog with the same consequences. No doubt he told the same story.

There isn't enough I can say against this kind of person who has absolutely no compassion or mercy for animals, and have no more regret upon hitting an animal and leaving it to suffer (or die quickly if it is lucky) than to run over a paper bag.

I sincerely hope that more people will become aware of this and other cruelties inflicted upon animals and do something about it!

Let's Use The Right Word

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Because the Independent-Journal is essentially a high quality newspaper, I am generally moved to overlook small faults, with a mood of gentle tolerance. But this time you have gone too far! And the charge must be made to lie at your own door, Mr. Editor, for it appeared in the editorial column itself.

This is a mistake of the most profound and basic sort, and it simply cannot be allowed to pass unnoticed, or, in the words of the immortal Dickens: "the country's done for!"

You will permit me, then, I trust, to admonish you to take greater care in distinguishing adjectives from nouns. In your editorial of Dec. 21, with reference to the health of the noted Mr. Claus, you confused populous with populace.

I call your attention to the following definitions, taken from The Random House Dictionary of the English Language:

POPULOUS, adj. 1. full of residents or inhabitants, as a region; heavily populated. . . . 2. jammed or crowded with people. . . . 3. forming or comprising a large number of quantity. . . .

POPULACE, n. 1. the common people of a community, nation, etc., as distinguished from the higher classes. 2. all the inhabitants of a place; population.

Therefore, the second definition of populace being the relevant one, the concluding sentence of your editorial should have read: "Reports from Marin County are that the populace remains calm."

That being so, I join many others of your readers in wishing you a wondrous and merry New Year.

RIDING ALLIGATORS? There's really nothing to it—if you believe what blonde, 28-year-old Barbara Parra told Larry Merchant between innings at a Yankee ball game.

"You can't try it with the big 'gators," began Barbara, reasonably enough, but then continued, "The four-footers, however, can give you a right good ride. You get in front of one and hold down his jaws; they're real weak. Honest! Then you slip on his back, making sure you don't let him whip you with his tail. You guide him by holding on to the sides of his eyes and pressing them. That's all there is to it."

Mao's Pure Communism Visits Tragedy Upon Chinese Culture

WASHINGTON—Red China is today in such a shambles of terror and chaos as to defy belief.

The whole regime is in a state of continuing political convulsion. The government is fighting itself from top to bottom. The highest officials of party and state are being purged. Millions of violent and armed youngsters, the Red Guards, are unleashed against the Chinese people to make them like it.

THE END IS NOT in sight, but it seems to me that one thing is now clear beyond doubt:

The most formidable and fantastic failure of the entire 20th Century is surely Mao Tse-Tung, party chairman, former chief of state, and the supreme architect of Chinese Communism—and Chinese misery.

After 18 years in control of his nation, Mao's principal accomplishments are these:

1. He totally alienated the Soviet Union during a period when he desperately needed Soviet aid.

2. He turned his nation's slow but steady industrialization into a gigantic setback by ordaining the "great leap forward" through empty exhortation and back yard steel furnances which never produced.

3. He contributed to China's continuing food deficit by attempting to herd the Chinese peasant farmers into massive, collectivist communes they would not accept.

4. At first he split the Communist world almost down the middle and ended by holding onto only one ally—Albania.

During these years of distress and despair, the Mao regime devoted its scarce and precious resources to building an atomic bomb. What comfort and compensation for the Chinese people!

CAN YOU THINK of any political leader in the world who in this century has achieved less for his country?

Mao and communism are inseparable. Mao would surely agree. Therefore, the record of Mao Tse-tung's despotic 18-year rule over his nation and his people—all he has done and failed to do—represent communism's gift to China.

Mao avows that he is the purest of all Marxist-Communists. The alienation of Russia, the "great leap forward," the massive peasant communes, the willingness to split the Communist world stemmed from his conviction that his communism alone was pure and all other communism — except Albania's — is dangerously deviationist.

I see no reason to question that Mao's communism is the purest communism. And in view of the abyss into which Mao has taken his country, this can only mean that, the more strictly Communist ideas are applied, the more harm they do.

APPARENTLY, Communist leaders never look into the mirror. They are instantly certain that, whatever has gone wrong, somebody else is to blame; never themselves and never their ideas.

Looking back on the wreckage of the past decade, Mao as a pure Communist naturally concluded that all his failures and those of his colleagues and his party should be blamed on the Chinese people because they "resisted Mao's thoughts."

And what, in his last act of desperation, is he doing about it? He is setting out by force and terror to impose upon the whole Chinese people two of the most terrible evils in all human thinking. His stated purposes are:

To eradicate the concept of the individual person in the minds of every Chinese.

To establish such a blind devotion to everything that Mao has ever thought or said so Mao's "pure communism" will be irreversable and unchanging.

His method of "persuading" the Chinese people that Mao alone is right and that they must want his communism forever is to turn loose on the whole nation millions of Red Guard zealots to pillage and terrorize.

WHAT SHAME that this should happen to such a great and cultured people.

LBJ Builds His Own East-West Bridges

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is trying his own hand at building those bridges to Communist countries that he has been advocating.

Brushing aside the objections of his security guards, the President personally gave red-carpet treatment to Vitaly Petroussenko, a Tass News Agency correspondent, on a tour of the LBJ ranch, followed by a leisurely lunch at the ranch house.

Petroussenko is the first Soviet newsman to cover the President on his home base. On this assignment the Russian spent 10 days in Texas.

AT ONE POINT, during a stop to look over some of the President's grazing cattle, he noticed that Petroussenko's clothing was covered with dust and sand. Jokingly, the President brushed it off, saying, "I'll bet your government never furnished you this kind of valet service."

With a grin the Russian reporter replied, "I do all right."

In the Washington press corps, Petroussenko is reputed to have one of the biggest expense accounts among foreign correspondents. He dresses in expensive tailored clothes and is a regular patron of the most expensive dining places in the capital.

The extraordinary hospitality extended to Petroussenko has given rise to much conjecture as to its real purpose —whether the President was merely going out of his way to be friendly, which seems improbable, or actually was using the occasion to convey a personal message to the Kremlin leaders.

As of this writing, nothing has been published by Tass or any Soviet paper of Petroussenko's talk with the President.

HOWEVER, immediately after Petroussenko's unique visit with the President, the Russian sought and obtained permission to fly to Mexico. Such authorization is necessary in order to return to the U. S. Immigration sources say the State Department approved Petroussenko's trip following a telephone call from the White House.

It is well known to U. S. intelligence that the Soviet embassy in Mexico City has a high-powered radio transmitter used to communicate directly with Moscow.

DURING THE CUBAN missile crisis, Soviet correspondents in Washington were used by the Kennedy administration to transmit messages to Nikita Khrushchev.

Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois is forecasting defeat for one of President Johnson's most important East - West "bridge building" proposals.

Dirksen is saying there now are enough votes in the Senate to block ratification of the U. S.-Soviet consular treaty.

Dirksen claims his latest survey revealed "30 Republicans and 12 Democrats are definitely opposed to this treaty."

Also, "there is strong opposition among Republican senators to the President's proposals to increase trade with the Soviet bloc," Dirksen told one GOP leader.

Canal Residents Put On Impressive Yule Show

Of all the holiday lights and decorations that are coming down to be stored away for another year, the ones that will be remembered with greatest anticipation next Christmas are probably those that set San Rafael Canal aglow with a myriad of colors.

And the inspiring thing about the Canal decorations is that they were spontaneous, unpromoted and noncommercial. The lights and decorations were the work of individual homeowners and boatowners. In fact, the commercial establishments with canal frontage were conspicuous for the absence of lights.

For years, the Christmas lights at St. Francis Yacht Club in San Francisco and the adjacent Marina homes have been regarded as one of the best examples of enterprising decorations. This year, the San Rafael Canal community's holiday show may have equalled or even topped the effort along the San Francisco Marina.

One drawback in San Rafael is the relative inaccessibility of the display to passing motorists. Only by riding up and down the Canal by boat can one get a full appreciation of the lights and their reflections on the water below.

An added touch this year were the decorated boats drifting up and down the canal, lingering in front of waterfront homes to serenade the residents with Christmas Carols.

Years ago, Belvedere-Tiburon held its annual Night-in-Venice lighting display on the lagoon and the bay front for the enjoyment of the handful of residents who lived on the peninsula then.

San Rafael Canal seems to have picked up the torch, so to speak, and the color and variety seems to be growing each year as boating and apartment houses increase along the waterfront.

All of those who took the time and effort to decorate their homes and boats, and the serenaders who added to the holiday atmosphere are to be commended.

We hope the Canal display will continue to grow with the years, and that more residents will be able to cruise along the Canal at Christmastime to view the waterfront spectacular at its best.

GIRL SEES OWN PICTURE, RECOVERS SPEECH

A teen-age girl regained her speech and hearing after seeing her picture on television.

The girl, 17, was found wandering on a London street apparently suffering from amnesia. The British Broadcasting Corporation, cooperating with police, carried the girl's picture in hopes that someone would recognize her. Nobody did.

But the shock of seeing herself on the screen brought back the girl's ability to hear and talk. She told police that she had become deaf and dumb after a head injury a year before, and that her parents had recently been killed in a car accident.

Whatever it may mean to others, the sight of one's own face has a very personal significance.

One reason for this fact is that almighty God, Who created us in His own likeness, made each of us completely unique.

To grow and mature in a loving relationship with Him through service to others is the best way to live up to the high mission He gives to every person.

"Through love be servants of one another."

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Misner Sticks To Unity Theme; Pulls Out In Favor Of Michals

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

THE VENERABLE Gerald E. Misner, whose main theme has been GOP unity throughout his four years as head of the Marin Republican Central Committee, stuck to that theme Tuesday night when he graciously turned over the baton to the younger Chuck Michals.

By bowing out of the contest for chairmanship of the Marin Republican Central Committee, Misner paved the way for a smooth transfer of leadership to Michals and his Marin Republican Council supporters.

MISNER APPARENTLY had enough support to make it an extremely close contest, had he decided to go for another term. At least one unofficial estimate had the 22 members of the central committee deadlocked 11 for Misner and 11 for Michals. If this had developed, three ex-officio votes by Congressman Don Clausen, State Sen. John F. McCarthy, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley would have been the deciding factor.

You could sense the feeling of tenseness among the 50 Republicans who assembled for the election. Senator McCarthy was there to cast his vote if needed. The fact that Congressman Clausen and Assemblyman Bagley did not show up gave some indication of what was to come.

Then Misner got up for the dramatic pullout, and the open struggle for power never developed.

IN A SENSE, it was a fitting climax to the role of peacemaker that Misner has played ever since he took over the reins four years ago. During the bitter Rockefeller-Goldwater rift that threatened to split the Republicans wide open, Misner maintained strict neutrality.

His contention has always been that the county's party chief should steer clear of intraparty strife in the primaries so that he can effectively lead a unified GOP against the Democrats in the finals.

That's the role he played during the Reagan-Christopher primary battle last June and in the Reagan landslide in November.

We've always been impressed with the gentlemanly and dignified manner in which Misner has conducted himself at all times. He will continue to play a leading role in GOP politics as chairman of the Republican Committee of the First Congressional District and as adviser and consultant to the new leaders.

FRED ULLNER of Santa Venetia, former Goldwater supporter and organizer of the 26 Million Club, has launched his writing career in earnest. The latest issue of The Sunday Ramparts carries a full page spread by Ullner on how he worked for Ronald Reagan, became a welcome guest in the Reagan household, and then was gradually eased out of the picture.

It may be a preview of a full-length book on Reagan that Ullner is working on now.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Balanced Freeway Study Is Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In response to your editorial of Dec. 21, I must insist that no more short-sighted than those who blindly oppose all freeways are those who insist on freeways at any cost as "the necessary evils accompanying progress and population growth."

This county and, indeed, our entire country lies in the grip of the world's most horrendous man-made blight because in our fondness for that elusive progress we have been willing to accept a multitude of similar evils as "necessary." The short-sightedness demonstrated by your paper and two of our supervisors, and ultimately by the Division of Highways, has created a climate in which blind opposition seems to many people the only alternative to yet another necessary evil. The citizens of Marin have begun to realize that in life there are other possibilities than the expedient solution which considers only economic and technologic values at the expense of the human environment. If the price of this realization is the scuttling of Route 17, it will have been worth it. But the significant reality is that through a majority of the supervisors the people of Marin have called for a study of the transportation needs of the county that is not limited — to restate a familiar phrase — to making Marin County a fit place for a car to live. This action, not blind acceptance of another ghastly example of expedient freeway engineering, is the "enlightened approach" needed here.

The main problem purportedly solved by Route 17 is commuters, but to insist that wider traffic arteries will do more than broaden congestion here and in San Francisco is foolhardy. Increased automobile lanes alleviate traffic briefly until increased flow potential creates increased flow and the jam occurs. In the meantime, alternate methods of transport have been killed off. The car as commuter transport is unreasonable in the extreme, in travel and storage space, and in use of the machine. When an automobile moves at a fraction of its potential speed, carrying a fraction of its possible cargo, is idly stored at great expense most of the day, and must be stored at ever-increasing distances from the driver's destination, its individual benefits quickly vanish. The freeway will only extend this in greater numbers than now.

For simple repeated daily journeys, fast, clean, convenient mass transit is the obvious answer. But commuters are only one area of the problem. Hence the need for a balanced study. The opportunity lies before the county to make out of this problem a creative and humane solution, that demonstrates other means of transport than the car need study and support and realization; that maintains and complements the human and the natural order of Marin; rather than accepting without a whimper yet another "necessary rape" of our land.

At Least Help The Injured Pet

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I've been very much interested in Mrs. Rapp's letter "Sad Experience" and Mrs. O'Connor's and Miss Eldred's opinions which followed. Both women were quick to condemn Mrs. Rapp, but no one made any comment on the driver.

I also am an animal lover. I have two good-sized "family" dogs in a fenced yard. Six months ago, one had gotten out; she was hit by a hit-and-run driver from Point Reyes. My dog was left in the street screaming in pain, her pelvis had been broken in several places. Due to an excellent vet, Dr. Bond, and I think a miracle, she recovered. The driver went scot free. He never even paid the medical expenses after he said he would, but that wasn't the first lie he'd told us. He claimed he didn't see the dog, then he claimed he was going to come back. I had to go after him and bring him back! He also claimed he didn't know he had hit anything (I could hear my dog from inside the house).

If he'd been traveling the speed posted, he could have stopped in time. Recently, I'd learned this same driver hit-and-ran another dog with the same consequences. No doubt he told the same story.

There isn't enough I can say against this kind of person who has absolutely no compassion or mercy for animals, and have no more regret upon hitting an animal and leaving it to suffer (or die quickly if it is lucky) than to run over a paper bag.

I sincerely hope that more people will become aware of this and other cruelties inflicted upon animals and do something about it!

Let's Use The Right Word

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Because the Independent-Journal is essentially a high quality newspaper, I am generally moved to overlook small faults, with a mood of gentle tolerance. But this time you have gone too far! And the charge must be made to lie at your own door, Mr. Editor, for it appeared in the editorial column itself.

This is a mistake of the most profound and basic sort, and it simply cannot be allowed to pass unnoticed, or, in the words of the immortal Dickens: "the country's done for!"

You will permit me, then, I trust, to admonish you to take greater care in distinguishing adjectives from nouns. In your editorial of Dec. 21, with reference to the health of the noted Mr. Claus, you confused populous with populace.

I call your attention to the following definitions, taken from The Random House Dictionary of the English Language:

POPULOUS, adj. 1. full of residents or inhabitants, as a region; heavily populated. . . . 2. jammed or crowded with people. . . . 3. forming or comprising a large number of quantity. . . .

POPULACE, n. 1. the common people of a community, nation, etc., as distinguished from the higher classes. 2. all the inhabitants of a place; population.

Therefore, the second definition of populace being the relevant one, the concluding sentence of your editorial should have read: "Reports from Marin County are that the populace remains calm."

That being so, I join many others of your readers in wishing you a wondrous and merry New Year.

Mao's Pure Communism Visits Tragedy Upon Chinese Culture

WASHINGTON—Red China is today in such a shambles of terror and chaos as to defy belief.

The whole regime is in a state of continuing political convulsion. The government is fighting itself from top to bottom. The highest officials of party and state are being purged. Millions of violent and armed youngsters, the Red Guards, are unleashed against the Chinese people to make them like it.

THE END IS NOT in sight, but it seems to me that one thing is now clear beyond doubt:

The most formidable and fantastic failure of the entire 20th Century is surely Mao Tse-Tung, party chairman, former chief of state, and the supreme architect of Chinese Communism—and Chinese misery.

After 18 years in control of his nation, Mao's principal accomplishments are these:

1. He totally alienated the Soviet Union during a period when he desperately needed Soviet aid.

By PAUL PETERZELL

Marincello—The Only Area In County That's Wide Open

Marin County zoning permits the highest density of any county in the Bay Area except San Francisco, according to the preliminary regional plan released this week by the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

Southern Marin residents will be surprised to find that the only bright spot in their end of the county — the only low density area — is Marincello. The only other large areas where development is restricted to low density (one to four units an acre) are Bolinas-Stinson and northeast of Kent Lake. Mount Tamalpais and Marin Municipal Water District lands are shown preserved as a park, but even Point Reyes is depicted as a medium density area.

IN ALL THE REST of Marvelous Marin, except for a few tiny specks, medium density (five through nine units an acre) and higher is permitted.

Vast areas of all other Bay Area counties, again except San Francisco, have restricted development with open space and agricultural controls. If the Bay Area develops as permitted by present zoning, Marinites may move to the East Bay not only to take advantage of rapid transit, but also to find some vestige of the life they once knew in Marin.

AN EVEN LESS bright note in the map of permitted development is a three-mile-wide band zoned for industry all the way from San Francisco Airport to Oakland Airport. That's quite a runway.

Immediate amendment of the county zoning ordinance to reduce densities permitted for most of Marin County will be recommended by Mill Valley Planning Director Harvey Bragdon to the city planning commission for consideration by the county planning staff and commission. It could be an interesting contest. There's a lot of money riding on present zoning.

A CRITICAL NEED for funds to keep the Boys' Club of Southern Marin going through 1967, particularly in the first months of the year, has been forecast by Richard N. Bale of Tiburon, president of the club's board of directors.

December bank balance of the club was $1,815, after starting with $33,342 early in 1966. Of its original cash, the club spent more than $22,000 to rebuild an old maintenance shed in Marin City and to equip it. Administrative expenses for the club, which opened in September, were about $5,800.

Of the original cash, the county contribution was $3,000. The rest was raised by the energetic men who organized the club.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS last month agreed to contribute $5,000 to keep the club going, but made it clear that the contribution would not be repeated.

The club had asked the supervisors to contribute $12,000. If the club fails after the $5,000 contribution, cautioned Supervisor Peter H. Behr, "It simply fails."

It would be a pity.

"FULL STEAM AHEAD" for rejuvenation of Mill Valley's commercial areas was promised this week by Mrs. Jeffory S. Morshead, chairman of the Civic Beautification Committee. Progress on plans for the paint-up, clean-up in March, just before Easter, was stalled by the holiday season, she said, but the "big effort is well on its way!"

Peter Traphagen, metal artist, has donated his design of the plaque in the new library to the rejuvenation project, Mrs. Morshead reported.

If her good cheer and enthusiasm could do the job, it would be done tomorrow.

ART BUCHWALD

Statistics Show It's Too Costly For Us To Win War In Vietnam

WASHINGTON — Everyone knows the Viet war is costly, but no one realized how costly, until the other day when the Washington Post revealed that it costs $332,000 to kill one Viet Cong. The writer arrived at his figure by taking the monthly average of enemy killed and dividing it by the monthly cost of the war, which now seems to be running at a rate of $1.7 billion.

If these figures are correct, it would take $332 million to kill 1,000 of the enemy, and even if we found a division of North Vietnamese soldiers we wouldn't have the funds to destroy it.

IT IS OBVIOUS that if we want to have both guns and butter in 1967 we're going to have to cut down the cost of knocking off the Viet Cong.

Better brains than I have been working on the problem, and while no decision has been made, these are a few of the suggestions that the experts have come up with.

It has been proposed that instead of bombs, American planes drop new automobiles that have been called in for defects on the suburbs of Hanoi. Once enough cars have been dropped, the North Vietnamese would proceed to kill each other on their own highways (providing we don't destroy the highways). The main value of this plan, besides eliminating the enemy, is that it would solve the problem of what the United States should do with its unsafe cars.

Another project that is being given close study is to drop pamphlets on North Vietnam and Viet Cong zones offering anyone who deserts to our side a $25,000 home, free education for his children, color television and a paid-up membership in the country club of his choice.

THIS WOULD COME to far less than $332,000 and would certainly be a great propaganda victory for our side.

If the Viet Cong deserter prefers, we could give him a numbered bank account in Switzerland so Ho Chi Minh would never find out about it.

Still another suggestion is that the United States build American-type factories all along the North-South Vietnam border. The smoke from the factories, with the help of a prevailing southeasterly wind, would pollute the air of North Vietnam and the Communists would slowly expire. It might take a little longer than other methods of eliminating the enemy, but the factories could be making war materials, so all the effort would not be wasted.

THIS IS A LITTLE far out and would require a great deal of coordination, but there are supposed to be quite a few American draft dodgers in Canada. In exchange for an amnesty we would persuade them to go to Hanoi, and they could teach North Vietnamese students how to avoid their draft. If there were enough North Vietnamese draft dodgers who would refuse to fight, we could save several billion dollars a year.

No idea is too far-fetched in time of war, and one that is also being considered has to do with giving out "contracts" to certain people in the American underworld. The going rate in the underworld to wipe out somebody is $25,000.

The idea would be for the United States to make a "contract" with an underworld syndicate and let private enterprise take over the elimination of our Viet Cong friends.

THERE ARE ONLY a few of the suggestions that are being considered. The reason why a solution to the problem has to be found fast is that at the present cost of fighting the enemy we really can't afford to wipe them out. As a matter of fact, the less Viet Cong we kill, the more money we save and the stronger our economy will be to fight the war.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Economic Development Chief's Report Branded As Rhetoric

Fusselman

On Dec. 16 I started discussing the report addressed to the board of supervisors by John M. Douglas, director of the Department of Economic Development. I proposed to peer through the silken veils of rhetoric to see just what the gentleman, together with the staff created for him by the administrator and with a budget of $24,632, has actually accomplished in a year.

I just finished peering. The rhetoric is there, but little else. I wish to make it clear that my comments are in no way a reflection on Mr. Douglas as an individual.

HOWEVER, when one considers the outrageous performance by the administrator in placing him in the position, in spite of the fact that the review board of knowledgeable men had marked the gentleman 10 in a field of 13, because of his lack of experience and did not recommend him, he cannot escape comment on the very obvious negative result.

After an elaborate preamble he has these things to say: "... In coming to recommendations or suggestions for changes in our procedures ... some real problems (are posed). First we must address ourselves to the basic question —What is it that we want developed?' It seems to me that the vast majority of the residents of this county do not want industrial development, not in its traditional sense of belching smoke stacks, clanking punch presses or odorous refinery flares." — (What nonsense to even list such things. Anyone with even the slightest knowledge of our county would not waste time with such an exposition. We are not the kind of county which has the necessary environment to even interest industrials of this caliber. It's a well known fact of life here that we don't want them and would not have them. It shouldn't have taken a year to come to this conclusion.)

HE GOES ON TO SAY: "What they do want seems to be tax release, preservation of natural beauty and highly sophisticated, culturally oriented activity areas and their affiliated service enterprises. (rhetoric) If these assessments are valid, then the assessment of some of our existing resources should lead us in specific directions.

"1. Development of greatly expanded visitor activity. With San Francisco as the prime lure, we must develop ways and means of having a greater portion of San Francisco's visitor traffic attracted our way.

"2. (a) Marinas ... a $35,000 boat provides the same tax income as a $35,000 house, but unencumbered with the need for expensive services that always comes with industry." (This seems like apples, oranges and cocoanuts. And then we have an expensive planning staff fighting this very thing out at Bolinas.)

"(b) Greatly expanded public parks, not amusement parks but family recreational facilities" (Who pays for this sort of thing? Just what sort of net income to relieve tax burdens does this bring in?)

"(c) Public golf courses." (Ditto above).

"(d) Performing arts and fine arts activity." Where has the man been the past year? He should look on pages 69-70 and 71 of the budget and also consider the Marin Arts and Garden groups.

Even though the money for this year's activity of the department has come from the hotel tax in the unincorporated area, experience with the administrator's departments points to an inevitable home owners' tax for the inevitable expansion of the department. More next week.

Mental Health Assn. Meeting Slated Jan. 17

Dr. David Fisher, associate director of the Behavior Therapy Institute of Sausalito, will speak on "The Puzzle of Personality" at the annual election of officers and board members of the Marin Assn. of Mental Health, Jan. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Cherish Inn in the Town and Country Shopping Center, Strawberry.

Mrs. Larry Mishkind of Greenbrae is slated to succeed Dr. William L. Bewley of Tiburon as president of the association. Fourteen persons have been nominated to fill vacancies on the board.

Arrangements for the dinner meeting are being made at the San Rafael office of the association at 1368 Lincoln Avenue.

Woman Is Checked For Auto Injuries

A 21-year-old Berkeley woman was checked Wednesday at Terra Linda Valley hospital for head injuries suffered shortly after 6 p.m. in Mill Valley when her car collided with another on East Blithedale Avenue at Kipling Drive.

Jackqueline Sami Armistead was driving east on the avenue when she hit a stopped car driven by Frances Lok, 37, of 933 East Blithedale Avenue, police said.

Dental Clinic Broken Into By Burglars

Door-kicking burglars, probably seeking narcotics, late Wednesday entered offices of three dentists at Ross Valley Dental Clinic, 1036 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, but gained only petty cash, a roll of stamps and a clothes hamper for their trouble.

Sheriff's officers said adjacent offices of Dr. William C. Sullivan and Dr. Ralph F. McMurry were entered by kicking open a locked rear door. Change of less than $10 from a petty cash fund, and the hamper were taken from Dr. McMurry's office.

Nothing was reported missing by Dr. Sullivan.

Deputies said the intruders smashed open the front door of the office of Dr. Arnold W. Wieser in a separate building in the same complex. A roll of 5-cent stamps and possibly a small amount of cash were taken there.

The dentists reported all three offices were ransacked, but no narcotics is kept at the clinic.

Marincello—The Only Area In County That's Wide Open

Marin County zoning permits the highest density of any county in the Bay Area except San Francisco, according to the preliminary regional plan released this week by the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

Southern Marin residents will be surprised to find that the only bright spot in their end of the county — the only low density area — is Marincello. The only other large areas where development is restricted to low density (one to four units an acre) are Bolinas-Stinson and northeast of Kent Lake, Mount Tamalpais and Marin Municipal Water District lands are shown preserved as a park, but even Point Reyes is depicted as a medium density area.

IN ALL THE REST of Marvelous Marin, except for a few tiny specks, medium density (five through nine units an acre) and higher is permitted.

Vast areas of all other Bay Area counties, again except San Francisco, have restricted development with open space and agricultural controls. If the Bay Area develops as permitted by present zoning, Marinites may move to the East Bay not only to take advantage of rapid transit, but also to find some vestige of the life they once knew in Marin.

AN EVEN LESS bright note in the map of permitted development is a three-mile-wide band zoned for industry all the way from San Francisco Airport to Oakland Airport. That's quite a runway.

Immediate amendment of the county zoning ordinance to reduce densities permitted for most of Marin County will be recommended by Mill Valley Planning Director Harvey Bragdon to the city planning commission for consideration by the county planning staff and commission. It could be an interesting contest. There's a lot of money riding on present zoning.

A CRITICAL NEED for funds to keep the Boys' Club of Southern Marin going through 1967, particularly in the first months of the year, has been forecast by Richard N. Bale of Tiburon, president of the club's board of directors.

December bank balance of the club was $1,815, after starting with $33,342 early in 1966. Of its original cash, the club spent more than $22,000 to rebuild an old maintenance shed in Marin City and to equip it. Administrative expenses for the club, which opened in September, were about $5,800.

Of the original cash, the county contribution was $3,000. The rest was raised by the energetic men who organized the club.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS last month agreed to contribute $5,000 to keep the club going, but made it clear that the contribution would not be repeated.

The club had asked the supervisors to contribute $12,000. If the club fails after the $5,000 contribution, cautioned Supervisor Peter H. Behr, "It simply fails."

It would be a pity.

"FULL STEAM AHEAD" for rejuvenation of Mill Valley's commercial areas was promised this week by Mrs. Jeffory S. Morshead, chairman of the Civic Beautification Committee. Progress on plans for the paint-up, clean-up in March, just before Easter, was stalled by the holiday season, she said, but the "big effort is well on its way!"

Peter Traphagen, metal artist, has donated his design of the plaque in the new library to the rejuvenation project, Mrs. Morshead reported.

If her good cheer and enthusiasm could do the job, it would be done tomorrow.

ART BUCHWALD

Statistics Show It's Too Costly For Us To Win War In Vietnam

WASHINGTON — Everyone knows the Viet war is costly, but no one realized how costly, until the other day when the Washington Post revealed that it costs $332,000 to kill one Viet Cong. The writer arrived at his figure by taking the monthly average of enemy killed and dividing it by the monthly cost of the war, which now seems to be running at a rate of $1.7 billion.

If these figures are correct, it would take $332 million to kill 1,000 of the enemy, and even if we found a division of North Vietnamese soldiers we wouldn't have the funds to destroy it.

IT IS OBVIOUS that if we want to have both guns and butter in 1967 we're going to have to cut down the cost of knocking off the Viet Cong.

Better brains than I have been working on the problem, and while no decision has been made, these are a few of the suggestions that the experts have come up with.

It has been proposed that instead of bombs, American planes drop new automobiles that have been called in for defects on the suburbs of Hanoi. Once enough cars have been dropped, the North Vietnamese would proceed to kill each other on their own highways (providing we don't destroy the highways). The main value of this plan, besides eliminating the enemy, is that it would solve the problem of what the United States should do with its unsafe cars.

Another project that is being given close study is to drop pamphlets on North Vietnam and Viet Cong zones offering anyone who deserts to our side a $25,000 home, free education for his children, color television and a paid-up membership in the country club of his choice.

THIS WOULD COME to far less than $332,000 and would certainly be a great propaganda victory for our side.

If the Viet Cong deserter prefers, we could give him a numbered bank account in Switzerland so Ho Chi Minh would never find out about it.

Still another suggestion is that the United States build American-type factories all along the North-South Vietnam border. The smoke from the factories, with the help of a prevailing southeasterly wind, would pollute the air of North Vietnam and the Communists would slowly expire. It might take a little longer than other methods of eliminating the enemy, but the factories could be making war materials, so all the effort would not be wasted.

THIS IS A LITTLE far out and would require a great deal of coordination, but there are supposed to be quite a few American draft dodgers in Canada. In exchange for an amnesty we would persuade them to go to Hanoi, and they could teach North Vietnamese students how to avoid their draft. If there were enough North Vietnamese draft dodgers who would refuse to fight, we could save several billion dollars a year.

No idea is too far-fetched in time of war, and one that is also being considered has to do with giving out "contracts" to certain people in the American underworld. The going rate in the underworld to wipe out somebody is $25,000.

The idea would be for the United States to make a "contract" with an underworld syndicate and let private enterprise take over the elimination of our Viet Cong friends.

THERE ARE ONLY a few of the suggestions that are being considered. The reason why a solution to the problem has to be found fast is that at the present cost of fighting the enemy we really can't afford to wipe them out. As a matter of fact, the less Viet Cong we kill, the more money we save and the stronger our economy will be to fight the war.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Economic Development Chief's Report Branded As Rhetoric

Fusselman

On Dec. 16 I started discussing the report addressed to the board of supervisors by John M. Douglas, director of the Department of Economic Development. I proposed to peer through the silken veils of rhetoric to see just what the gentleman, together with the staff created for him by the administrator and with a budget of $24,632, has actually accomplished in a year.

I just finished peering. The rhetoric is there, but little else. I wish to make it clear that my comments are in no way a reflection on Mr. Douglas as an individual.

HOWEVER, when one considers the outrageous performance by the administrator in placing him in the position, in spite of the fact that the review board of knowledgeable men had marked the gentleman 10 in a field of 13, because of his lack of experience and did not recommend him, he cannot escape comment on the very obvious negative result.

After an elaborate preamble he has these things to say: "... In coming to recommendations or suggestions for changes in our procedures ... some real problems (are posed). First we must address ourselves to the basic question —What is it that we want developed?' It seems to me that the vast majority of the residents of this county do not want industrial development, not in its traditional sense of belching smoke stacks, clanking punch presses or odorous refinery flares." — (What nonsense to even list such things. Anyone with even the slightest knowledge of our county would not waste time with such an exposition. We are not the kind of county which has the necessary environment to even interest industrials of this caliber. It's a well known fact of life here that we don't want them and would not have them. It shouldn't have taken a year to come to this conclusion.)

HE GOES ON TO SAY: "What they do want seems to be tax release, preservation of natural beauty and highly sophisticated, culturally oriented activity areas and their affiliated service enterprises. (rhetoric) If these assessments are valid, then the assessment of some of our existing resources should lead us in specific directions.

"1. Development of greatly expanded visitor activity. With San Francisco as the prime lure, we must develop ways and means of having a greater portion of San Francisco's visitor traffic attracted our way.

"2. (a) Marinas ... a $35,000 boat provides the same tax income as a $35,000 house, but unencumbered with the need for expensive services that always comes with industry." (This seems like apples, oranges and cocoanuts. And then we have an expensive planning staff fighting this very thing out at Bolinas.)

"(b) Greatly expanded public parks, not amusement parks but family recreational facilities" (Who pays for this sort of thing? Just what sort of net income to relieve tax burdens does this bring in?)

"(c) Public golf courses." (Ditto above).

"(d) Performing arts and fine arts activity." Where has the man been the past year? He should look on pages 69-70 and 71 of the budget and also consider the Marin Arts and Garden groups.

Even though the money for this year's activity of the department has come from the hotel tax in the unincorporated area, experience with the administrator's departments points to an inevitable home owners' tax for the inevitable expansion of the department. More next week.

West opened the king of clubs and continued with the ace. South ruffed and saw that the hand was a piece of cake if trumps broke normally.

The trouble was that one opponent might hold all the missing trumps.

DON'T FEAR WEST

There was no need to worry about West. From the lead it was clear that West had started with at least three clubs. From the bidding it was a cinch that West held at least six diamonds.

There wasn't room in West's hand for as many as four spades.

There was plenty of room in the East hand, so South took the precaution of starting the trumps by leading low from his own hand.

West discarded a diamond, and dummy's queen forced out the ace.

South had hept his eye on the dangerous opponent.

Opening lead — ♣ K

West opened the king of clubs and continued with the ace. South ruffed and saw that the hand was a piece of cake if trumps broke normally.

The trouble was that one opponent might hold all the missing trumps.

DON'T FEAR WEST

There was no need to worry about West. From the lead it was clear that West had started with at least three clubs. From the bidding it was a cinch that West held at least six diamonds.

There wasn't room in West's hand for as many as four spades.

There was plenty of room in the East hand, so South took the precaution of starting the trumps by leading low from his own hand.

West discarded a diamond and dummy's queen forced out the ace.

South had kept his eye on the dangerous opponent.

CONTINUES CLUBS

East continued with the queen of clubs, and South threw away a diamond.

He could not afford to ruff in his own hand and then draw trumps.

Then declarer could take the rest of the tricks with good hearts and the ace of diamonds.

Stocks Up For Fourth Day In Row

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today for the fourt straight session. Trading was fairly active.

Stocks rallied for the entire first week of 1967, buoyed by the cessation of tax-loss selling which depressed the end of 1966 trading.

A rise in copper prices and other items of bullish news helped stock prices.

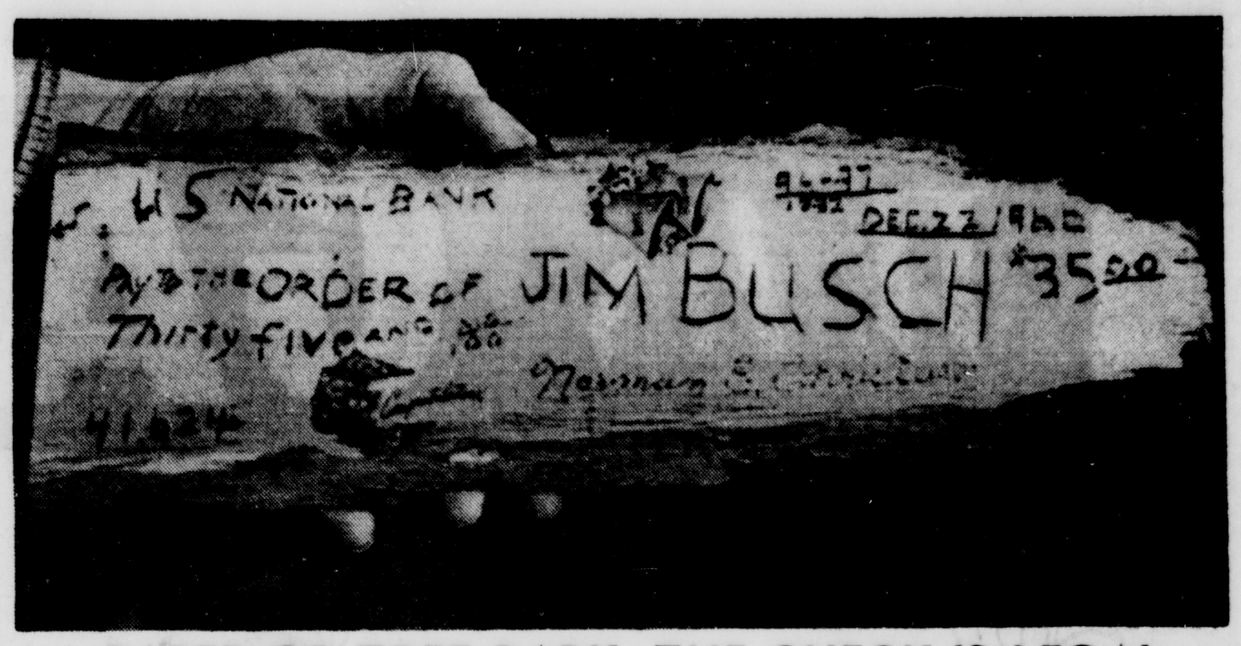

The best level was in the morning. Thereafter, profit taking by trades pared the general level.

Control Data was off 1 at 38 on a block of 9,500 shares after selling at 37⅞ on a block of 42,400 shares. The stock was kway ahead as most active issue.

Union Oil of California, off 1⅝ at 48¼, traded on 109,800 shares and New England Electric was up ¼ at 28 on 100,000 shares, pushing them up in the ranking of the volume leaders.

Prices rose on the American Stock Exchange in active trading.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Strong Growth Stock Better For Grandchildren's Future

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We'd like to give two small grandchildren 50 shares each of Consolidated Edison as an investment for their future. Do you think this would be a good investment for them?" A.M.

A. It is very generous of you to prepare for your grandchildren's future, but I don't think you have picked the best stock for your purpose. Consolidated Edison of New York serves a rather static area, and earning gains have been moderate for many years. Net income per share was probably down in 1966 and over the past decade has increased about 32 per cent. Reflecting slow growth, the share price since 1956 has risen only 45 per cent. Consolidated Edison is an excellent stock for relatively secure 5.7 per cent yield.

In my opinion, you should disregard income and buy a strong growth stock for your grandchildren to enhance their capital substantially over the next several years. In this category, I recommend Avon Products, which has increased earnings seven-fold in the past decade, rising in price about 2,000 per cent during the same period. I do not expect this rate of growth to be maintained, but I do believe that it will be at a fast enough pace to help very materially with educational costs.

Q. "I am 50. I have $4,000 in series E bonds. Would you advise me to redeem them and put the proceeds into savings & loans and get the extra few dollars?" A.L.

A. Very definitely I would not. The interest accruals on your series E bonds are guaranteed by the government to yield at least 4.15 per cent to maturity. No savings institution can make any such guarantee. The rate of payment there is voted periodically by the directors and may be higher or lower a few years hence, depending on the demand for mortgages and money rates in general. I advise you to hold your series E bonds.

Rash Of Suits On File Against Eichler Homes, Inc.

A rash of suits for money allegedly owed to subcontractors have been filed in Marin Superior Court against Eichler Corp., successor to trouble-plagued Eichler Homes, Inc.

The suits, by six firms, total $105,108. All ask foreclosure and public sale of subdivision holdings in Lucas Valley and Strawberry Point to pay subcontractors for work performed for Eichler.

Latest two suits, filed yesterday, were by Bormolini-Anderson Co. of Novato and Carcano and Velcich, Inc. of San Rafael.

The Novato firm seeks $19,047 allegedly due for construction of a bridge at a Lucas Valley tract.

Carcano and Velcich seeks $7,767 from Eichler and co-defendants Linscott Co., Earl E. Gilson, American Savings and Loan Assn. of California, and Transamerica Insurance Co., for curb, gutter, and sidewalk work at Harbor Point tract on Strawberry Point.

George S. Nolte Consulting Civil Engineers Inc. of Palo Alto asks a total of $24,030 for subdivision engineering and preparation of subdivision maps.

Ceccotti and Son of Marin, Inc., Corte Madera, asks $19,915 for off-site improvements in Lucas Valley. Earl E. Gilson has sued Eichler for $6,000 due for sewers, pipes, and electrical facilities at Harbor Point.

Soiland Co., Inc., of Bel Marin Keys asks $18,349 from Eichler for installing a water distribution system at Harbor Point.

Two savings and loan associations have received approval from the state savings and loan commissioner to open branch offices in downtown San Francisco. Peninsula Savings and Loan, headquartered in San Mateo, will open in the vicinity of Geary and Stockton Streets within 60 to 90 days. Fidelity Savings and Loan, having its main office in Berkeley, plans to open its new branch in San Francisco's Chinatown, where a site is under study.

TWO COMPANIES have announced expansion in foreign financing. Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. has established a new subsidiary, Allis-Chalmers International Finance Corp. to obtain funds abroad for making loans to and investments in the company's foreign subsidiaries and to finance purchases of Allis-Chalmers products and services by foreign customers.

THE TORONTO-DOMINION BANK, one of Canada's major banks, has acquired a substantial interest in World Banking Corp. of Nassau, The Bahamas and is now a major stockholder with Bank of America in the multinational banking organization. Other stockholders are Bank Lambert, Brussels; Skandinaviska Banken, Stockholm; Commerzbank, Duesseldorf; Banca Commerciale Italiana, Milan; Banque Nationale de Paris; Fira F. AUTOMATIC SPRINKLER CORP. OF AMERICA, Cleveland will acquire operating assets of Smith-Essick, Inc., Los Angeles manufacturer and supplier of labor saving equipment. Smith-Essick will continue under its present management as a division of Automatic Sprinkler. Its sales for '66 are expected to exceed 24 million dollars; those of Automatic Sprinkler about 105 million dollars. The latter also plans to acquire the assets and business of Scott Industries, Inc., a manufacturer of protective breathing devices, aviation equipment and hydraulic cylinders, headquartered in Lancaster, N. Y. Under the merger Automatic also acquires Ward Hydronics, Scott Midland Corp. and Scott Engineering Sciences Corp., subsidiaries.

INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRIES, INC. (parent company of International House of Pancakes) has reported an increase of 38 per cent in net income for the first quarter of fiscal 1967, ended Dec. 4. Total resources at Dec. 31 stood at 203 million dollars, the highest in the bank's history. Loans and discounts increased to 116 million dollars from 109 million dollars a year ago.

Stocks Up For Fourth Day In Row

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today for the fourt straight session. Trading was fairly active.

Stocks rallied for the entire first week of 1967, buoyed by the cessation of tax-loss selling which depressed the end of 1966 trading.

A rise in copper prices and other items of bullish news helped stock prices.

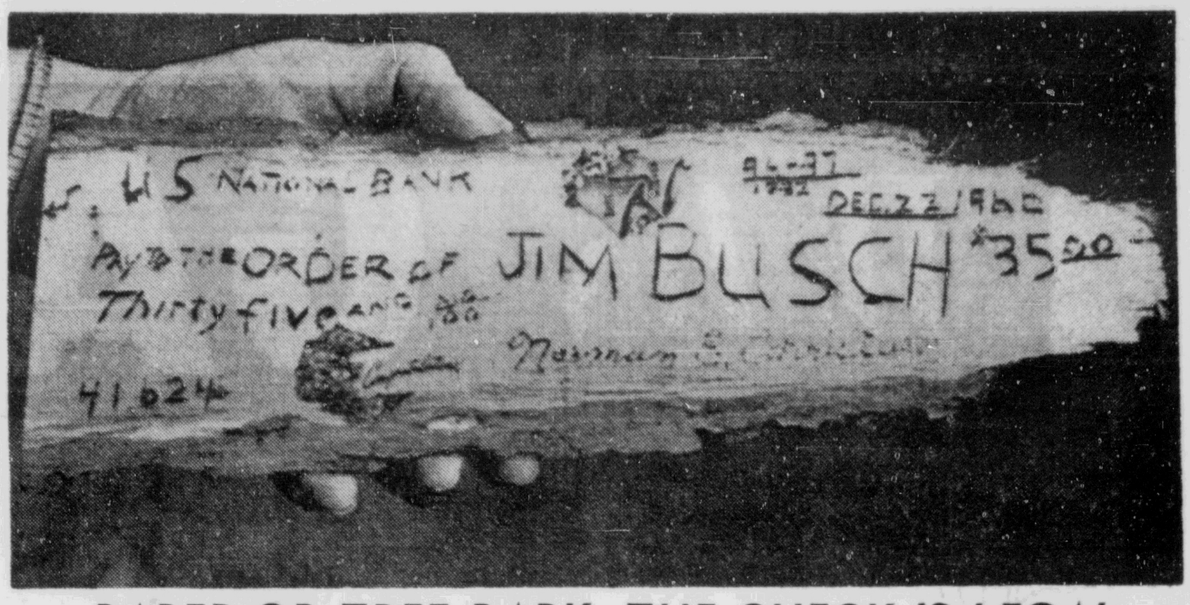

The best level was in the morning. Thereafter, profit taking by trades pared the general level.

Control Data was off 1 at 38 on a block of 9,500 shares after selling at 37⅞ on a block of 42,400 shares. The stock was kway ahead as most active issue.

Union Oil of California, off 1⅝ at 48¼, traded on 109,800 shares and New England Electric was up ¼ at 28 on 100,000 shares, pushing them up in the ranking of the volume leaders.

Up a point or more were Texas Instruments, Republic Steel, Goodrich, Lorillard, Merck, U.S. Gypsum and Union Carbide.

Prices rose on the American Stock Exchange in active trading.

PAPER OR TREE BARK—THE CHECK IS LEGAL

Officials of the Ashland branch of the U. S. National Bank of Oregon had to get out the hand stamps this week to cancel this check written on a piece of tree bark as a wedding gift to a couple. It was all very legal, however. (UPI Telephoto)

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Strong Growth Stock Better For Grandchildren's Future

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We'd like to give two small grandchildren 50 shares each of Consolidated Edison as an investment for their future. Do you think this would be a good investment for them?" A.M.

A. It is very generous of you to prepare for your grandchildren's future, but I don't think you have picked the best stock for your purpose. Consolidated Edison of New York serves a rather static area, and earning gains have been moderate for many years. Net income per share was probably down in 1966 and over the past decade has increased about 32 per cent. Reflecting slow growth, the share price since 1956 has risen only 45 per cent. Consolidated Edison is an excellent stock for relatively secure 5.7 per cent yield.

In my opinion, you should disregard income and buy a strong growth stock for your grandchildren to enhance their capital substantially over the next several years. In this category, I recommend Avon Products, which has increased earnings seven-fold in the past decade, rising in price about 2,000 per cent during the same period. I do not expect this rate of growth to be maintained, but I do believe that it will be at a fast enough pace to help very materially with educational costs.

Q. "I am 50. I have $4,000 in series E bonds. Would you advise me to redeem them and put the proceeds into savings & loans and get the extra few dollars?" A.L.

A. Very definitely I would not. The interest accruals on your series E bonds are guaranteed by the government to yield at least 4.15 per cent to maturity. No savings institution can make any such guarantee. The rate of payment there is voted periodically by the directors and may be higher or lower a few years hence, depending on the demand for mortgages and money rates in general. I advise you to hold your series E bonds.

HELEN HELP US!

Mother Can't Win For Losing In Preparing The Family Meals

DEAR HELEN:

My husband complains about at least one food, usually more, on the table at every meal. For instance, last night he announced he preferred boiled shrimp to my breaded ones, and he didn't like the new salad dressing. I had home-made chocolate cake and bought ice cream for dessert. He said the ice cream was good.

Recently he refused to eat his salad because the lettuce wasn't green enough. No matter how I make coffee in the electric percolator, he says it tastes burnt. He doesn't like the way I make toast in the toaster. I could go on and on.

Now our 11-year-old is taking a leaf from her father's notebook. I can't win for losing. Helen, I am not the best cook, but neither am I the worst in the world. Should I smile and say nothing, or what? —DEFLATED

DEAR DEF.:

I'd be tempted to dump the food they knock over their picky-pickin' heads, but instead, why not say something, loud and clear? Like, "One more complaint and you'll get a meal to complain about!" And prove it by cheerfully serving cold canned beans and instant coffee next day.

When they learn constant slams bring out the "bean-ness' in you, I think they'll switch to praise. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

What a time we had last evening! This is our sophomore daughter's first year to date, and the first event to arise was the "Sno-Ball," a big dance.

Three boys asked her. Number One called first and she told him, "You can't take me, you're taking Carla—remember?" "I am?" the boy asked, surprised. Carla and our girl are good friends and she knew Carla wanted to go with Number One —she even had her dress bought —so she worked it so he'd take her. He never knew what hit him. Sadly, daughter wanted to go with Number One, but she sacrificed him for her friend.

Then Number Two called three times. Daughter says he's a creep with a bad reputation. So, "Thank you, but no."

Number Three comes along. He's a nice boy but "not neat!" By this she means he's clean-neat, but not Hep-neat. She says, "Sorry I have other plans."

When "dumb mother's" opinion was asked, I said, "Come the big night you're going to feel pretty sad staying home. As long as Number Three is a nice boy, why not go and have a good time—it could lead to "neater" dates later, and, besides, give him a chance: maybe he's neater than you think."

Result: "Mothers just don't understand." She stayed home.

I remember back to my dating days when I refused several New Year's offerings, waiting for that "special one," who, of course, didn't call. And I was most miserably alone at home on New Year's Eve! Does Mother sometimes know best? —DUMB MOTHER

DEAR D.M.:

Of course Mother sometimes knows best, but Mother isn't an unsure, idealistic young teen who could NEVER date a boy she doesn't like! It "wouldn't be honest," and, besides, the kids might "put her down" for not attracting a "neater guy, or — worse—pair her off, so that she'd have a rough time shaking him.

You scorned advice and learned from experience, remember? Your daughter must too. She'll make several wrong moves before she is adept at the dating game, but she will find them out for herself. A mother's job is to give her opinion when asked, smile and quietly understand when it's considered "prehistoric," and never—but never—say, "I told you so!" —H.

NOTE TO THE BOTTEL GIRLS, before they do an expose on me, I said that's what a mother should do. Who's perfect? —H.

Mother Can't Win For Losing In Preparing The Family Meals

DEAR HELEN:

My husband complains about at least one food, usually more, on the table at every meal. For instance, last night he announced he preferred boiled shrimp to my breaded ones, and he didn't like the new salad dressing. I had home-made chocolate cake and bought ice cream for dessert. Her other sisters, Marcia and Monica Hatter, were the flower girls.

Roger Madden of San Rafael served as best man, and Bob Taylor and Ed Nickel, both of San Rafael, were the ushers.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

A graduate of Terra Linda High School, Celeste attended College of Marin, and is employed there. She is the sister of Arthur Hatter, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brannan of San Francisco are her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Connell of Santa Venetia are parents of the bridegroom.

Edward was graduated from Terra Linda High School and attended College of Marin. He is stationed with the Army at Ft. Lee, Va.

MARIN FILM FARE

'A Man And A Woman' Makes Debut

By LESLIE DARD

The holiday might be over, but cinema is still very much in season this weekend in Marin. There's a wide variety of offerings.

LARK THEATER

"A Man and a Woman" opens tonight. This is a superby and beautiful film—one of the finest ever made. It shared last year's Grand Prize at Cannes, and deserved it.

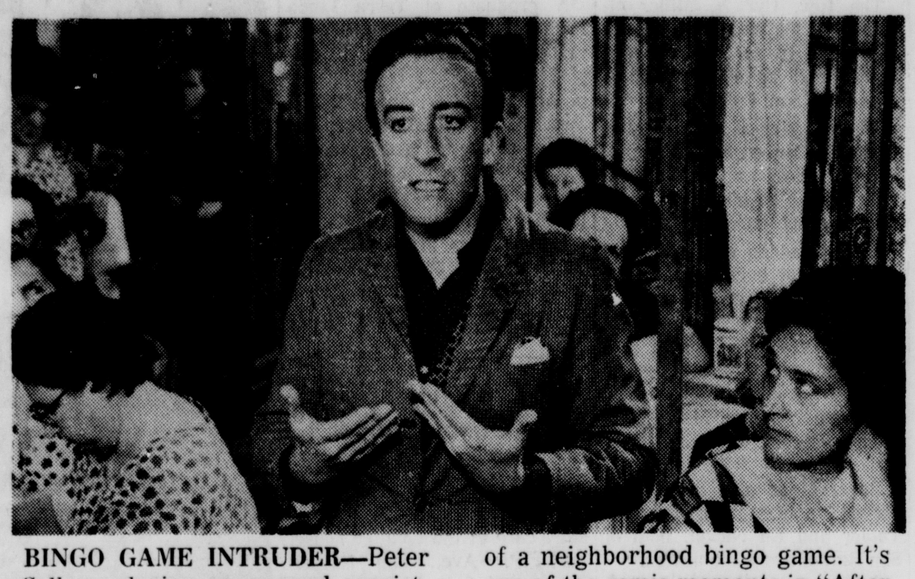

Claude LeLouch has created a unique emotional and theatrical experience. The photography experience. The photography especially is unforgettable—different scenes are filmed in hues of green, yellow and so on, to match the mood and contrast with the reality of the Technicolor and black-and-white that is also employed. The music is poignant and meaningful.

Jean-Louis Trintignant and Anouk Aimee star. She is a widow, lonely, defensive, haunted by the memory of her dead husband. He is a race car driver whose wife committed suicide after he crashed at Le Mans. They meet at a boarding school where they both visit their children—he a small son, she a daughter.

Slowly and cautionsly their relationship matures and at first the end seems predictable. But she is haunted by flashback images of her former love and attempts to reject her new-found happiness. The tale resolves itself excellently, in keeping with the rest of the film.

Portrayals are fresh and fascinating, particularly that of Miss Aimee who is extraordinarily sensitive and lovely. With the poetic photography and the simple but beautifully universal story-line to boot, this is a magnificent effort.

Top-flight fare for cinema lovers.

BINGO GAME INTRUDER—Peter Sellers, playing an escaped convict, arrives at his mother's apartment in Rome to find himself in the middle of a neighborhood bingo game. It's one of the comic moments in "After the Fox," opening Sunday at the Rafael Theater.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Hilarity, social satire and rebellion are the fare in "Morgan!" now on screen, one of Britain's latest and hippest comedies.

The title role is played with terrific flair by David Warner. He's accompanied by Vanessa Redgrave, who won the Cannes Best Actress for this role.

Co-featured is the classic "Black Orpheus."

SEQUOIA THEATER

Now playing is "Not With My Wife You Don't," a new bit of fluff that features Tony Curtis, George C. Scott and Virna Lisi amidst lots of madcap comedy.

Co-featured is Sean Connery in a really different and excellent role of a non-conformist poet in "A Fine Madness."

MOTOR MOVIES

James Coburn takes the title role in "Our Man Flint," an American super-spoof of the super-spy movies

The world is challenged by Galaxy, a power-hungry sundicate that wants to rule by controlling the weather. Governments and scientists are stymied. The computers call for only one solution: Send for Derek Flint!

101 DRIVE-IN

It's the funniest Western ever: "Cat Ballou," now showing.

Jane Fonda takes the lead role, of a schoolmarm turned outlaw. Right beside her are two low-grade cattle rustlers, a wise-cracking Sioux and Lee Marvin—who won Best Actor for being the funniest man in the show—in one of his two roles.

Co-featured is the heartwarming family bill "Born Free"—tale of a Kenya game warden and his wife who adopt an orphaned lioness.

NOVATO THEATER

Jack Lemmon stars and Walter Matthau steals the show right from under him in the delightfully funny "Fortune Cookie," a Billy Wilder special now playing.

Co-featured is "Namu, The Killer Whale."

RAFAEL THEATER

Staying with us until Sunday is Fred MacMurray and Vera Miles in "Follow Me, Boys."

It's a Walt Disney production aimed at the whole family.

TAMALPAIS

A big name cast—including Burt Lancaster, Lee Marvin, Robert Ryan, Ralph Bellamy, Jack Palance, Woody Strode and Claudia Cardinale — highlights action and intrigue in "The Professionals," held over.

A blustering tycoon in the seething Mexico of the early 1800's hires four expert gunmen to rescue his kidnaped Mexican wife from a renegade bandido. These four—professionals working at $10,000 apiece—are intensely varied in character, but unuified in purpose.

NORTHGATE THEATER

An interesting view of World War I—through German eyes—is presented in "The Blue Max," also held over.

George Peppard plays a young pilot in the German Air Force who has ruthlessly set out to win the highest award of an airman—a blue enamel cross received after he shoots down 20 planes.

Vintage planes, excellent aerial photography and lovely Ursula Andress ail add to the film's fine effect.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Staying with us is "Alfie," featuring quick-rising Cockney-star Michael Caine. The wild humor make you laugh, the ending will make you cry and you'll never forget these half-intelligible British dialects.

Caine as Alfie is an irrepressible rogue who seems irresistible to the birds(girls) he ardently pursues. He has a moral code: he tells his girls that he has absolutely no honorable intentions, and then proceeds to prove it to them.

The ending brings him, and the audience, back to earth with a start. It's excellently handled and makes a first-rate evening's entertainment.

Novato Brothers Plan For Army Pilot Careers

Two brothers, former Novato residents who graduated from Novato High School and were Independent-Journal carriers, are aiming for careers as Army helicopter pilots.

Warrant officer James P. Davidson, a Novato High School graduate in 1964, was graduated Dec. 6 from the Army Aviation Center at Fort Rucker, Ala., receiving his wings as a helicopter pilot. He will leave for Vietnam after a leave.

Warrant Officer Candidate Stephen L. Davidson, his brother who was in Novato High School's class of 1965, completed his basic training at Fort Polk, La., on Dec. 14 and after a leave will report to the Army helicopter school at Fort Wolters, Tex.

Both are sons of SM/Sgt. and Mrs. Frank L. Davidson, formerly of 60 Sierra Vista, Novato, but now stationed in Bangor, Maine.

Library To Get Iron Hand Rail

Mill Valley Library trustees last night accepted an offer of Robert F. Warnick, Mill Valley resident and owner of Crown Iron Works in San Francisco, to donate an iron hand rail for the front steps to the new library.

Design of the railing will be reviewed by architects for the library, Wirster, Bernardi and Emmons, said Mrs. Helen Dreyfus, board president.

Mrs. Dreyfus appointed trustees Henry Horowitz and Mrs. John P. Farnham as a committee to review proposals to form a Friends of the Library Assn.

Trustees appealed to an unknown thief to return an $85 bronze letter stolen from the facade of the library. The second "R" in "library" was taken early this week, Mrs. Dreyfus said.

Trustee Paul G. Fourman and Mrs. Farnham were absent.

Tiburon Fire Board Headed By Wheeler

Kelly J. Wheller was elected president of the Tiburon Fire Protection District board last night.

Newly appointed member Fred C. Hannahs was made vice president, and George C. Drejes continues as secretary.

Directors granted 5 per cent salary increases, effective Jan. 1, raising hosemen from $556 to $676 monthly; engineer from $584 to $710; Lieutenant from $613 to $745; Captain from $644 to $782; assistant chief from $710 to $862, and chief from $821 to $998.

The board heard a report that total property losses from fire in 1966 were $89,035, down from the more than $150,00 fire losses in 1965.

Chief Franklin J. Buscher was authorized to purchase $844 of furniture for Station No. 1 and gravel and four fire hydrants for the station's rear parking lots.

The district will hold an election in April for two vacacies on the board. Commissioner Wheeler's term will expire in April and commissioner Fred Mantegani has resigned effective Feb. 1.

Nominee Named For President

Herbert Brauner has been nominated for president of the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. for this year with Robert Flanders as vice president.

Other Sleepy Hollow residents nominated for office last night were Marcia Schauer, corresponding secretary; Barbara Rogers, recording secretary, and J. G. Ingels, treasurer.

The officers, to be voted by members on Jan. 19, also include directors Donald Luchessa, Frank Jose, and Harry Sannar.

Ross Valley Kiwanis Officers Dinner Set

Lee Gammill, George Bogel, John Hourihan, Jack Younger, Jack McGlynn, Ronald Plambeck, Warren Westerhoff, Andre Zeh, Harold Pascoe, and Ralph Peterson will become directors.

Ex-Marin Woman Plans Safari To Study Disappearing Gorillas

Dian Fossey, 32 - year - old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fossey of Kentfield, begins an adventure of a lifetime tomorrow.

In an unusual safari, Dian will study the fast - disappearing mountain gorillas of the Virunga Mountains in the Congo.

A former student at College of Marin and University of California at Davis, Dian has been interested in Africa and its wildlife since she took a two-month safari there in 1963.

An occupational therapist in Louisville, Ky., where she was director of the Kosair Children's Hospital, Miss Fossey took a three-year bank loan for that memorable 1963 safari. By chance she met Dr. Louis Leakey, world renowned anthropologist and archaeologist, whose excavations in Olduvai Gorge have traced the beginnings of early man to the African continent.

When she takes off from Nairobi tomorrow to establish a base camp for her gorilla study, she will be driving a Land Rover supplied by Dr. Leakey.

During her earlier safari, Miss Fossey took some rare photographs of the mountain gorillas, predicted by some authorities to become extinct in another 20 years. The photographs and an article were published in the Louisville Courier Journal, which later was seen by Dr. Leakey. Last April, while on a tour of the U. S., Dr. Leakey interviewed the former Marinite, then asked her to return to Africa and pursue her study of the gorillas.

There's a chance the National Geographic Society will sponsor her trip, too, and she hopes, after the gorilla study (which may last years) to earn her Ph.D. degree at Cambridge University with a thesis on the gorilla's life habits.

In a letter to her parents, who operate the Kentfield Flea Market and Kay's of Kentfield, Miss Fossey wrote last week: "There are a million reasons why I shouldn't go alone, but at the same time I know way down deep that I could rise to the occasion and somehow bluff my way through without mishap."

One or two Africans will accompany her to the base camp, located 13,000 feet up the side of Mount Mikeno. Once she locates a group of gorillas (they average 15 to a group), she hopes to stay with them for periods of time, camping nearby when they make their nests for the night.

Her dedication and courage in making the lonely trip can be explained, perhaps, by what she wrote of the gorillas when she returned from Nairobi in 1963: ". . . I had come to know and respect their individuality, their independence and their majesty. Will the gorilla, like so many other wild animals in Africa, merely become the hapless victim of our times, whose future bends to the will of frenzied human aggrandizements?"

Homeowners Schedule Date For Election

The Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. last night set its annual meeting for March 2 at Granada School to elect new officers.

The association learned that 200 trees ordered earlier have arrived to be distributed to homeowners today.

An occupational therapist in Louisville, Ky., where she was director of the Kosair Children's Hospital, Miss Fossey took a three-year bank loan for that memorable 1963 safari. By chance she met Dr. Louis Leakey, world renowned anthropologist and archaeologist, whose excavations in Olduvai Gorge have traced the beginnings of early man to the African continent.

When she takes off from Nairobi tomorrow to establish a base camp for her gorilla study, she will be driving a Land Rover supplied by Dr. Leakey.

During her earlier safari, Miss Fossey took some rare photographs of the mountain gorillas, predicted by some authorities to become extinct in another 20 years. The photographs and an article were published in the Louisville Courier Journal, which later was seen by Dr. Leakey. Last April, while on a tour of the U.S., Dr. Leakey interviewed the former Marinite, then asked her to return to Africa and pursue her study of the gorillas.

There's a chance the National Geographic Society will sponsor her trip, too, and she hopes, after the gorilla study (which may last years) to earn her Ph.D. degree at Cambridge University with a thesis on the gorilla's life habits.

In a letter to her parents, who operate the Kentfield Flea Market and Kay's of Kentfield, Miss Fossey wrote last week: "There are a million reasons why I shouldn't go alone, but at the same time I know way down deep that I could rise to the occasion and somehow bluff my way through without mishap."

One or two Africans will accompany her to the base camp, located 13,000 feet up the side of Mount Mikeno. Once she locates a group of gorillas (they average 15 to a group), she hopes to stay with them for periods of time, camping nearby when they make their nests for the night.

Her dedication and courage in making the lonely trip can be explained, perhaps, by what she wrote of the gorillas when she returned from Nairobi in 1963: ". . . I had come to know and respect their individuality, their independence and their majesty. Will the gorilla, like so many other wild animals in Africa, merely become the hapless victim of our times, whose future bends to the will of frenzied human aggrandizements?"

Homeowners Schedule Date For Election

The Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. last night set its annual meeting for March 2 at Granada School to elect new officers.

The association learned that 200 trees ordered earlier have arrived to be distributed to homeowners today.

GREENBRAE, U.S.A., PLEASE

Greenbrae would appear from this envelope to be as widely known as New York, Paris, or Rome. An Ottawan didn't think it necessary to mention a state when writing to the Charles Stoffers of 65 Corte Toluca. Or, perhaps the efficient post office would have no trouble identifying Middletown, Central City, or Newburg.

San Rafael Annex Hits Delay: 'Island' Issue

Members of the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night continued consideration of the San Rafael annexation request made by Maggiora and Ghilotti on 32.7 acres on the south side of Highway 17 near the approach to the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

The decision came after a long discussion, and after San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said he would be willing to accept a continuance to talk to adjacent property owners to see if they, too, would join the city.

It was unclear whether this would satisfy objections raised by County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who charged that the annexation was premature, would be an island of incorporated land in county territory, and the neighboring owners would have no say with city officials on the land use for the 32.7 acres.

The owners were recently turned down by the county on application to rezone the land from planned industrial to heavy industrial without restrictions.

Andersen said he believed that the city would retain the planned industrial zone, which was shown in the city's master plan prepared by Dan Coleman and Associates.

Co.eman was representing the property owners last night.He conceded that the "island" argument might be a valid one and other lands should come into the city, too

Zucker said he was not sure whether the property south of Highway 17 and east of Highway 101 should be in the city or in the county, but all should be in one or the other.

Andersen said the annexation was a key to getting other lands to join the city. He challenged the sense of the county's planned residential zone next to the subject piece.

Zucker said the county planning department is concerned about the vistas on the entrance to the county.

He also said that the local agency formation commission was on the wrong track in considering annexation rather than in determining "government structure" for Marin. This left Andersen shaking his head with a dazed expression on his face.

Commissioner Thomas T. Storer suggested that city annexations in the area might be conditioned on joint city and and county planning to assure pleasant views along the highway.

"Are you telling us that we're not capable of doing a good job, but have to come up here to God?" Andersen asked in pique, with a gesture to Zucker.

The commission, soon after Andersen's suggestion, agreed to put the whole thing off until Feb. 2.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission also:

1. Approved annexation of 43 acres southwest of Center Road and Wilson Avenue to the City of Novato. The land includes the site of a junior high school proposed by the Novato Unified School District.

2. Approved annexation of the Berkeley Co-Op store property west of Highway 101 and of a 2.4-acre narrow strip of land south of Meadowsweet Drive owned by Frederick Sanford to the Town of Corte Madera.

3. Adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

Cyclist, Passenger Injured In Accident

A motorcyclist and his passenger suffered minor injuries yesterday at 5:20 p. m. when the cycle overturned on San Pedro Road near Beach Road in San Rafael.

The cyclist, James Romagg Prince, 16, of 39 Lochinvar Road, San Rafael, told the California Highway Patrol his cycle overturned when he tried to avoid a car driven by Margery Richbyrg Smith, 51, of 700 San Pedro Road, which was making a U-turn. Prince suffered bruises, and his passenger, Gregory Alden Van Pelt, 16, of 36 Lochness Lane, San Rafael, was scraped. Both were treated at Marin General Hospital.

Library Bond Amount Questioned

Sausalito Citizens Council "probably" will submit an argument against the March 7 $250,000 bond measure for a new library, council president Theodore T. Boutmy said today.

Council directors last night "questioned the necessity of such a large bond issue," Boutmy reported. "We are for a library, but we wonder about the size, cost and location of the proposed library."

Boutmy and directors Arie Slikkerveer and Mrs. Merrill Sisson were named to study the proposal and report at a special meeting of directors Jan. 23 at 8 p. m. at Boutmy's home, 127 Toyon Lane.

Mrs. Sievers Will Direct Library Drive

Mrs. Howard Sievers, former trustee of Sausalito School District and wife of a former mayor of Sausalito, was elected last night chairman of a citizen committee to promote the $250,000 March 7 bond election for a new library.

City Councilman Jan Paul Dyk was elected co-chairman.

More than 50 persons attended an organizational meeting of the committee at Cambell Hall. Mayor Mel Wax, who chaired the meeting, reported that most of them signed up to work on the committee.

"Therre is absolutely no known opposition to the library," he said, aside from doubts by some residents about the site on the city-owned sand spit northeast of Vina Del Mar Plaza." The site was recommended by the city's planning consultants, including Garrett Eckbo, dean of the School of Envionmental Design at University of California, the mayor noted, the library board and city council.

A second committee meeting was set for Jan 19 at 8 p. m. in city hall.

Hub Chamber Names Officers

James J. Levensaler, president of the J. A. Levensaler Insurance Co., was elected president of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Other new officers are Kenneth Adams, assistant manager of the San Anselmo branch of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, vice president, and Lee C. Jett, assistant cashier at the San Anselmo branch of Bank of America, treasurer. Harriet Haly was re-elected secretary-manager.

The chamber voted to accept the design review ordinance prepared by the Congress for Community Progress and recommend its adoption by the city council.

It also voted to recommend that the city council "proceed with hiring of a chief administrative officer at a salary approximately equal to the amount budgeted for this position in the 1966-67 budget." (The council voted 3-2 last night to hire a new administrator.)

The chamber donated $25 toward the landscaping of parking lot A.

Clothing Is Stolen

About $90 worth of clothing, left by Wilson B. Partridge of 1004 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, at the Village Laundrette, 1139 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur at 3 p.m. yesterday, was gone when he returned at 4 p.m., he told Larkspur police.

Dakin Bodies To Be Flown To San Diego

Bodies of seven members of the Dakin family and the pilot of the plane that carried them to death were to be flown from La Paz, Mexico, to San Diego today by the 41st Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron from Hamilton Air Force Base.

The eight bodies were recovered yesterday north of La Paz. They were those of former Belvedere residents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Y. Dakin of San Francisco; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Dakin of Tiburon, and three of the Roger Dakins' children, and the pilot, Elton C. Stone of Alameda.

The body of a fourth child and that of the co-pilot had still not been recovered.

Search continued for two other planes also reported to have crashed — one near a volcano area in the Sierra de las Virgenes, and a second between San Vicente and Esmeralda.

The plane which crashed near a volcano slightly south of Mexicali while flying from San Lucas to Mexicali Dec. 30 has not been sighted since Wednesday, when a flier said he sighted three Americans waving handkerchiefs. The plane was identified as a single-engine Cessna.

Officers at Hamilton Air Force Base said the three probably are Donald McConnell, his son Don, and Steven Haas, all of Orinda, Calif. They left California the day after Christmas in a Cessna 337 bound for Loreto, Mexico.

The third plane was sighted crashed between San Vicente and Esmeralda, south of Tijuana. It was believed to be a private U.S. plane, but there have been no details.

Youth Caught After Shoplifting Spree

While on patrol near the Safeway, 700 B Street, San Rafael, yesterday, Patrolman Gilbert Fretias noticed a man emerge from the store with his sweater bulging.

Fretias stopped the youth, later identified as Robert W. Hullinger, 22, of Wilkens Hotel, San Rafael. He said Hullinger admitted shoplifting two cartons of cigarettes from the store and stuffing them under his sweater. Hullinger was booked at the sheriff's office.

Larkspur's High Rise Home For Elderly Obtains Permit

A building permit for construction of the Tamalpais, multi-million dollar 12-story retirement residence in the Bon Air Hills of Greenbrae, has been issued by the City of Larkspur—a year and a half after ground was broken for the project., Since groundbreaking on June 28, 1965, work has been devoted to clearing and grading the land, building a model apartment nearby, and preparing foundations and underpinnings.

A building permit in the amount of $6,450,000 was issued Dec. 30.

By the end of 1967 the Tamalpais should be in its final stages of completion, according to James Rowan, general manager of Retirement Residence, Inc. owner and developer of the project. Rowan said between 65 and 70 per cent of all residential units have been subscribed.

The Tamalpais, at 521 Via Casitas, is sponsored by Ross Valley Medical Clinic and its chairman, Dr. John C. Siemens. It will have 280 apartments, with medical, convalescing and recreational facilities for persons 62 and older. It is the first project of its kind in Marin County but similar developments of Retirement Residence, Inc. have already been constructed in other California cities.

The Tamalpais was designed by architect Benson Eschenbach. Construction is being handled jointly by Henry C. Beck Co. and Utah Construction and Mining Co.

Marin Professors Argue War Policies

"We have decided that the Vietnamese people are better dead than red, and I don't think we had the right to make that decision," Carter Hanner, a College of Marin professor, told students there yesterday.

Hanner, a psychology professor, was one of four faculty members who were speakers in a discussion of the war, sponsored by the Students Against War. T. Howell Breece, chairman of the English department, joined Hanner in opposing the Johnson administration's position in Vietnam. Robert Essig, a political science professor, and Edward Willeford, a history professor, supported the administration's war policies.

Hanner said the United States backed the Diem regime in 1956 in blocking free elections proposed at the Geneva Conference of 1954, because the United States knew that if the people of Vietnam were allowed to choose a leader, they would choose Ho Chi Minh.

"The United States may have to swallow the concept that maybe some countries do want to be Communist," he said. "I'm not, never have been and don't plan to be a Communist, but if a country wants to be Communist, I think they should have the right to be."

He said the original hostilities were an attempt at liberation from the Diem regime, but that the United States, in escalating the war, has forced the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong), North Vietnam and Communist China to join forces.

Essig argued that a nation has to pursue its own interests in an international situation where power is the only tool.

"China is a huge nation with tremendous power and a fabulous potential for power, and like it or not, one of the roles of the United States is to achieve a balance of power in the Far East," he said.

"If we were privileged to redo it, we might do it differently, but we're not," he said. "By contributing to the defense of South Vietnam we are trying to bring about a stable political economy there."

Willeford agreed that China is a threat to world peace, and that the United States is in Vietnam to control that threat.

Breece said he is "horrified at the pain, suffering and death we are certainly bringing about in Vietnam.

He said he does not believe the United States has any specific war aims. "Why do we have to wonder whether the Chinese are in North Vietnam? No one doubts that the United States is in South Vietnam. I don't like to see the powerful walk over the weak simply because they are the weak."

About 200 students attended the discussion.

Solution To Harbor Fight Is Proposed

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney today suggested that the Bolinas Harbor District might comply with county zoning ordinances, reserving rights to contest decisions.

Maloney made the suggestion as one method of solving the dispute between the harbor district and the county over who has control of planning of Bolinas Lagoon. His suggestion was made in reply to Thomas J. Barfield, a lawyer and a newly elected member of the harbor district board, who challenged the county's jurisdiction in a letter to Maloney.

"If the county ultimately approves the proposed land uses (of the harbor district), the legal issues will become moot," Maloney wrote.

"If however, the district is aggrieved by a county decision, the stage would then be set for a determinative suit."

Tiburon Wants To Restate Its Railroad Ideas

Now that Northwestern Pacific Railroad has been granted approval to abandon its Tiburon line, Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissioners want to restate their ideas on use of the railroad right-of-way, they decided last night.

A resolution will be drafted at the next meeting of the commission on Jan. 19.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Mann of Belvedere asked why no action had been taken on a joint landscaping proposal with Belvedere for the Lagoon Road park area. The commission agreed to notify the State Division of Highways of its interest in the project.

Committees appointed for the year include George McKegney, chairman and Mrs. Mimi Berticevich, hiking and bicycle trails; new members Joseph H. Bacheller, chairman, and Mrs. Berticevich, budget; Mrs. Polly D. Smith, chairman, Bacheller and Irving Moulin, dedication of park lands; Bacheller, chairman, and Moulin, railroad right-of-way study; Moulin, chairman, Bacheller, landscaping Tiburon Boulevard.

The commission decided to ask Frederick G. Zelinsky of Belvedere for more specific information on his proposal to help establish a senior citizens' fishing platform at Elephant Rock.

Del Mar School principal Robert Gaw will bivideetnt to ert Gaw will be invited to the next meeting to talk about his proposal for a city-sponsored after-school recreation program.

To Buy Centifuge

Directors of Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, after considerable discussion last night, agreed to purchase rather than rent a centrifuge sludge system for the district, secretary Helen Foulks reported today. The system, estimated at $35,000, would eliminate the sludge pond at the district plant.

Marin Professors Argue War Policies

"We have decided that the Vietnamese people are better dead than red, and I don't think we had the right to make that decision," Carter Hanner, a College of Marin professor, told students there yesterday.

Hanner, a psychology professor, was one of four faculty members who were speakers in a discussion of the war, sponsored by the Students Against War. T. Howell Breece, chairman of the English department, joined Hanner in opposing the Johnson administration's position in Vietnam. Robert Essig, a political science professor, and Edward Willeford, a history professor, supported the administration's war policies.

Hanner said the United States backed the Diem regime in 1956 in blocking free elections proposed at the Geneva Conference of 1954, because the United States knew that if the people of Vietnam were allowed to choose a leader, they would choose Ho Chi Minh.

"The United States may have to swallow the concept that maybe some countries do want to be Communist," he said. "I'm not, never have been and don't plan to be a Communist, but if a country wants to be Communist, I think they should have the right to be."

He said the original hostilities were an attempt at liberation from the Diem regime, but that the United States, in escalating the war, has forced the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong), North Vietnam and Communist China to join forces.

Essig argued that a nation has to pursue its own interests in an international situation where power is the only tool.

"China is a huge nation with tremendous power and a fabulous potential for power, and like it or not, one of the roles of the United States is to achieve a balance of power in the Far East," he said.

"If we were privileged to redo it, we might do it differently, but we're not," he said. "By contributing to the defense of South Vietnam we are trying to bring about a stable political economy there."

Willeford agreed that China is a threat to world peace, and that the United States is in Vietnam to control that threat.

Breece said he is "horrified at the pain, suffering and death we are certainly bringing about in Vietnam.

He said he does not believe the United States has any specific war aims. "Why do we have to wonder whether the Chinese are in North Vietnam? No one doubts that the United States is in South Vietnam. I don't like to see the powerful walk over the weak simply because they are the weak."

About 200 students attended the discussion.

Solution To Harbor Fight Is Proposed

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney today suggested that the Bolinas Harbor District might comply with county zoning ordinances, reserving rights to contest decisions.

Maloney made the suggestion as one method of solving the dispute between the harbor district and the county over who has control of planning of Bolinas Lagoon. His suggestion was made in reply to Thomas J. Barfield, a lawyer and a newly elected member of the harbor district board, who challenged the county's jurisdiction in a letter to Maloney.

"If the county ultimately approves the proposed land uses (of the harbor district), the legal issues will become moot," Maloney wrote.

"If however, the district is aggrieved by a county decision, the stage would then be set for a determinative suit."

To Buy Centifuge

San Rafael Annex Hits Delay: 'Island' Issue

Members of the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night continued consideration of the San Rafael annexation request made by Maggiora and Ghilotti on 32.7 acres on the south side of Highway 17 near the approach to the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

The decision came after a long discussion, and after San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said he would be willing to accept a continuance to talk to adjacent property owners to see if they, too, would join the city.

It was unclear whether this would satisfy objections raised by County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who charged that the annexation was premature, would be an island of incorporated land in county territory, and the neighboring owners would have no say with city officials on the land use for the 32.7 acres.

The owners were recently turned down by the county on application to rezone the land from planned industrial to heavy industrial without restrictions.

Andersen said he believed that the city would retain the planned industrial zone, which was shown in the city's master plan prepared by Dan Coleman and Associates.

Co.eman was representing the property owners last night.He conceded that the "island" argument might be a valid one and other lands should come into the city, too

Zucker said he was not sure whether the property south of Highway 17 and east of Highway 101 should be in the city or in the county, but all should be in one or the other.

Andersen said the annexation was a key to getting other lands to join the city. He challenged the sense of the county's planned residential zone next to the subject piece.

Zucker said the county planning department is concerned about the vistas on the entrance to the county.

He also said that the local agency formation commission was on the wrong track in considering annexation rather than in determining "government structure" for Marin. This left Andersen shaking his head with a dazed expression on his face.

Commissioner Thomas T. Storer suggested that city annexations in the area might be conditioned on joint city and and county planning to assure pleasant views along the highway.

"Are you telling us that we're not capable of doing a good job, but have to come up here to God?" Andersen asked in pique, with a gesture to Zucker.

The commission, soon after Andersen's suggestion, agreed to put the whole thing off until Feb. 2.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission also:

1. Approved annexation of 43 acres southwest of Center Road and Wilson Avenue to the City of Novato. The land includes the site of a junior high school proposed by the Novato Unified School District.

2. Approved annexation of the Berkeley Co-Op store property west of Highway 101 and of a 2.4-acre narrow strip of land south of Meadowsweet Drive owned by Frederick Sanford to the Town of Corte Madera.

3. Adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

Cyclist, Passenger Injured In Accident

A motorcyclist and his passenger suffered minor injuries yesterday at 5:20 p. m. when the cycle overturned on San Pedro Road near Beach Road in San Rafael.

The cyclist, James Romagg Prince, 16, of 39 Lochinvar Road, San Rafael, told the California Highway Patrol his cycle overturned when he tried to avoid a car driven by Margery Richbyrg Smith, 51, of 700 San Pedro Road, which was making a U-turn. Prince suffered bruises, and his passenger, Gregory Alden Van Pelt, 16, of 36 Lochness Lane, San Rafael, was scraped. Both were treated at Marin General Hospital.

Library Bond Amount Questioned

Sausalito Citizens Council "probably" will submit an argument against the March 7 $250,000 bond measure for a new library, council president Theodore T. Boutmy said today.

Council directors last night "questioned the necessity of such a large bond issue," Boutmy reported. "We are for a library, but we wonder about the size, cost and location of the proposed library."

Boutmy and directors Arie Slikkerveer and Mrs. Merrill Sisson were named to study the proposal and report at a special meeting of directors Jan. 23 at 8 p. m. at Boutmy's home, 127 Toyon Lane.

Mrs. Sievers Will Direct Library Drive

Mrs. Howard Sievers, former trustee of Sausalito School District and wife of a former mayor of Sausalito, was elected last night chairman of a citizen committee to promote the $250,000 March 7 bond election for a new library.

City Councilman Jan Paul Dyk was elected co-chairman.

More than 50 persons attended an organizational meeting of the committee at Cambell Hall. Mayor Mel Wax, who chaired the meeting, reported that most of them signed up to work on the committee.

"Therre is absolutely no known opposition to the library," he said, aside from doubts by some residents about the site on the city-owned sand spit northeast of Vina Del Mar Plaza." The site was recommended by the city's planning consultants, including Garrett Eckbo, dean of the School of Environmental Design at University of California, the mayor noted, the library board and city council.

A second committee meeting was set for Jan 19 at 8 p. m. in city hall.

Youth Caught After Shoplifting Spree

While on patrol near the Safeway, 700 B Street, San Rafael, yesterday, Patrolman Gilbert Fretias noticed a man emerge from the store with his sweater bulging.

Fretias stopped the youth, later identified as Robert W. Hullinger, 22, of Wilkens Hotel, San Rafael. He said Hullinger admitted shoplifting two cartons of cigarettes from the store and stuffing them under his sweater. Hullinger was booked at the sheriff's office.

Hub Chamber Names Officers

James J. Levensaler, president of the J. A. Levensaler Insurance Co., was elected president of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Other new officers are Kenneth Adams, assistant manager of the San Anselmo branch of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, vice president, and Lee C. Jett, assistant cashier at the San Anselmo branch of Bank of America, treasurer. Harriet Haly was re-elected secretary-manager.

The chamber voted to accept the design review ordinance prepared by the Congress for Community Progress and recommend its adoption by the city council.

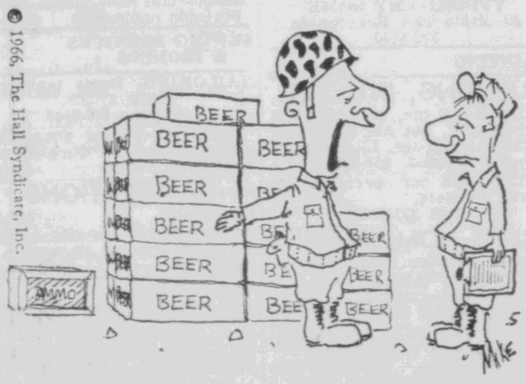

It also voted to recommend that the city council "proceed with hiring of a chief administrative officer at a salary approximately equal to the amount budgeted for this position in the 1966-67 budget." (The council voted 3-2 last night to hire a new administrator.)

The chamber donated $25 toward the landscaping of parking lot A.

Clothing Is Stolen

About $90 worth of clothing, left by Wilson B. Partridge of 1004 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, at the Village Laundrette, 1139 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur at 3 p.m. yesterday, was gone when he returned at 4 p.m., he told Larkspur police.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

There's Limit To How Much Noise Can Be Taken

VAN DELLEN

Noise is synonymous with work and prosperity, but there is a limit on how much the body can tolerate. Some individuals are more sensitive than others, just as the range of hearing varies from one to another. Hearing is disturbed when loud noises are maintained over a long period and unless something is done deafness may ensue.

The early effects result from ear fatigue; hearing returns to normal after an interval of quiet and rest. But when the racket continues year after year the sensitive nerve endings in the ear may be damaged. "Boilermaker's deafness" was one of the first conditions of this nature to be described.

NOISE ALSO affects the body in other ways. All manner of vague ills and ailments have been blamed; some sound logical, others are questionable. There is no doubt that when sleep is disrupted lower efficency in both manual and mental work may ensue. Years ago, Lord Horder reported that a loud noise caused temporary rise in blood pressure, temporary paralysis of stomach movements and increases in the metabolic rate, the speed of the heart beat, and the rate of respiration.

Fear also produces these changes and there is a question whether the blood pressure, for example, mounts because of noise or fright. Moreover, our reaction to noise depends upon whether we regard it as unnecessary or unavoidable. The honking of a horn two or three times a day to attract the attention of the neighbor's daughter is more upsetting than the clatter created by the carpenter who is building a roof on the home down the street.

MANY PSYCHIATRISTS regard noise as one of the most serious threats to health. There are individual variations to noise. The same sound might reduce the efficiency of a routine worker 5 per cent, whereas an executive will experience a 30 per cent loss. The trend is toward stressing the need for a quieter world. More and more factories and offices are being soundproofed to protect the worker.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

CHANGE IN BOWEL HABITS

Mrs. O. writes: What is meant by "a change in normal bowel habit" in connection with detecting cancer? Does it mean blood in the stools?

REPLY

Yes, in that blood is a change. Most of us are regular unless we change our diet or go on a trip. The person who has been regular for years and suddenly becomes constipated or develops attacks of diarrhea has had definite changes in bowel hab

Sewage Treatment Expansion Due Study

San Rafael Sanitation District directors are going to check the feasibility of having the district expand the Peacock Gap sewage treatment plant.

Directors have been pushing for expansion of the plant from 400 to 900 connections, as previously agreed by the developers, first Latipac-Perini and then Draper Companies, but progress has been nil.

When the capacity of 400 connections is reached, no more building permits will be granted in the area.

Directors have been seeking to have Latipac, Inc., which purchased Draper Companies' holdings in the area, finance the plant.

Edward Lee, a vice president of Lapitac, told directors yesterday that the firm cannot proceed on expansion until its determines who owns an adjacent unit; Draper Companies or American Savings and Loan Co.

Deputy County Counsel Richard Godino reported litigation to force Latipac to build the plant could take several years.

Chairman Fred E. Jensen suggested that the district study the possibility of constructing the plant and charging an extra $600 to $700 a connection to get back its outlay. Lee said Latipac would be willing to join in financing on "an assessment district" basis.

It was estimated that construction of the plant would cost from $225,000 to $250,000.

Directors also considered expansion of the main treatment plant. John Jenks of Palo Alto, consulting engineer, said he would not want to see the district postpone that project in favor of building the Peacock Gap plant.

Directors approved plans and specifications for aeration and centrifuge facilities at the main plant. They also authorized Jenks to draw up plans and specifications for de-gritting facilities and chlorination station control.

These projects at the main plant would total $267,000, but direcors auhorized Jenks to apply for 30 per cent federal funds, which would cut the district costs to $187,000.

The San Rafael Sanitation Dis trict Board also:

1. Agreed that Peacock Gap Unit Six, a 52-lot subdivision proposed by D. M. Christensen, would be acceptable for sewer connections on a "one by one" basis, but continued its appeal on the tentative map before the city council on the ground of lot sizes.

2. Approved installation of a new recirculation pump at the main treatment plant at cost of $1,000 to $1,500.

3. Granted Edward K. Wachsman a $2,690 sewer connection refund because the proposed connection was not made at 3 Woodland Avenue.

4. Postponed is discussion of charging fees to school districts.

5. Renewed its five-year lease of district property to the city and Marin County for use as a pistol range for $1 a year.

6. Set for Feb. 2 at 5 p.m. at City Hall public hearing on detachment of seven parcels along San Rafael Ridge to the Ross Valley Sanitary District — parcels that drain to the Ross Valley side of the ridge.

Marincello Road Plans On Agenda

The Marin County Planning Commission Monday will consider development plans for the extension of the access road into Marincello.

The session will start at 8 a.m. at the Civic Center. The first two hours will be devoted to a discussion of data processing and its application to planning.

The Marincello road is Item 10 on the agenda. The initial phase of construction is being contested in the courts by the Golden Gate Headlands Committee.

Other items on the agenda include discussion of the Kentfield Corners commercial area, Item 12; design of Corte Madera Creek flood control second phase, Item 13, and further discussion of the West Marin master plan, Item 14.

Collecting barbed wire has become popular, says the National Geographic.

South Picked In Senior Bowl Game

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Otto Graham is a veteran of all-star football games, but the Washington Redskins' coach doesn't plan to call the shots tomorrow when his South team plays the North in the 18th annual Senior Bowl.

"I let the kids call the plays," said Graham, who, like North Coach Norm Van Brocklin of the Minnesota Vikings, is making his first bid in this play-for-pay game in which winning players get $1,000 and the losers $750.

Graham, however, coached the College All-Stars eight times against the National Football League champions in the College All-Star game in Chicago before he became the Redskins' coach last fall.

"This game is a lot different because we only have a week to get ready, and in the All-Star game where we had three weeks to practice we could set up a complete offense and defense," Graham said.

Graham said the South — a surprising five-point favorite — probably will take to the air "because the kids usually like to throw a lot in these games. But we will have to run quite a bit to make our passing game work."

Terry Southall, Baylor passing whiz who was on the losing side two weeks ago when the South played the North in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala., will quarterback the South.

Virgil Carter, running and passing standout from Brigham Young, is scheduled to quarterback the North, where Van Brocklin has a pair of bruising runners in Harry Wilson of Nebraska and Ray McDonald of Idaho.

South runners Jim Bohl of New Mexico State and Billy Masters of Louisiana State lack the credentials of the North rushers, but the Rebels have an All-America pass catcher in flanker Ray Perkins.

The elusive receiver, who led Alabama's rout of Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl Monday, is backed up by Johnny Mills of Tennessee, stand-out in the Vols' conquest of Syracuse in the Gator Bowl.

The brawny North team has an All-American lineman on defense in Bubba Smith of Michigan State, and All-America Larry Wacholtz of Nebraska heads up the secondary.

Southern defenses will be led by a pair of All-America players from the Southeastern Conference, George Patton of Georgia and Paul Naumoff of Tennessee.

Van Brocklin says the North "will do a lot of passing" to bypass the two linemen, with Carter's top targets expected to be Eppie Barney of Iowa State and Chet Anderson of Minnesota.

The game, in which the North hasn't won since 1960, will be televised nationally by NBC-TV starting at 11 a.m. Under the game's special rules a team nine or more points behind can receive a kickoff after it scores.

MARIN PREP ALL-STAR GRID COACHES NAMED

Coaches for the Ross Valley Kiwanis North-South All-Star Football Game, pitting the top senior players in the Marin County Athletic League Aug. 24, were named today.

Bob Munster, who piloted a small, unheralded San Rafael team to a 5-2-2 mark last season and Jess Payan, architect of Terra Linda's stout defense that paved the way to a share of the MCAL title, will coach the North squad.

Carl Brown, assistant coach for Drake's co-champions and Joel Kiff of Marin Catholic, will guide the South team.

JIM MURRAY

Big 10 Beats Us In Show Business, Too

As a West Coaster, I'm getting good and bloody sick of the Big 10 Rose Bowl pact.

Wait a minute! It's NOT the football team. We can handle them. It's show business where they're clobbering us. In football, we're 5 for 21. In bands, we've been shut out. Never mind The Four Horsemen. It's the Four Glockenspielers we can't match.

TAKE MONDAY'S game. Purdue came out with a band that John Philip Sousa never dreamed of—plus, they had four girls in sequins, balloons, smoke bombs, and more tubas than a hock shop on New Year's morning. The band had more people in it than the Washington Senators drew last season.

I DON'T MEAN to take anything away from the poor kids at USC but they looked like an Indian club act by comparison. "What's the name of that combo?" the pressbox's Bud Tucker asked suspiciously as their thin red line trickled out onto the field.

I HAVE given some attention to the difficulty and I have put my finger on the trouble. These Big 10 bands and halftime acts come from sophisticated centers like Lafayette, Ind.; Columbus, O.; Ann Arbor and East Lansing, Mich.; Champaign-Urbana, Ill., and some citadel of the musical comb in Iowa. Naturally, they're way ahead of a bunch of rustics like us. I mean, all we have is Disneyland, Irving Berlin, MGM, Warner Bros., Meredith Willson, Ella Fitzgerald, Ray Charles, Sinatra, Crosby and Andy Williams. How can we be expected to know anything about show biz? Or how to put on a halftime musical? We'd just rather sit there with those dead card tricks and march in the stadium like there was a body behind us.

I THINK THE trouble is, we're concentrating on the wrong thing for these New Year's spectaculars—i.e., football players. The country isn't laughing behind their hands over our athletes. What panics them is those some old vaudeville routines.

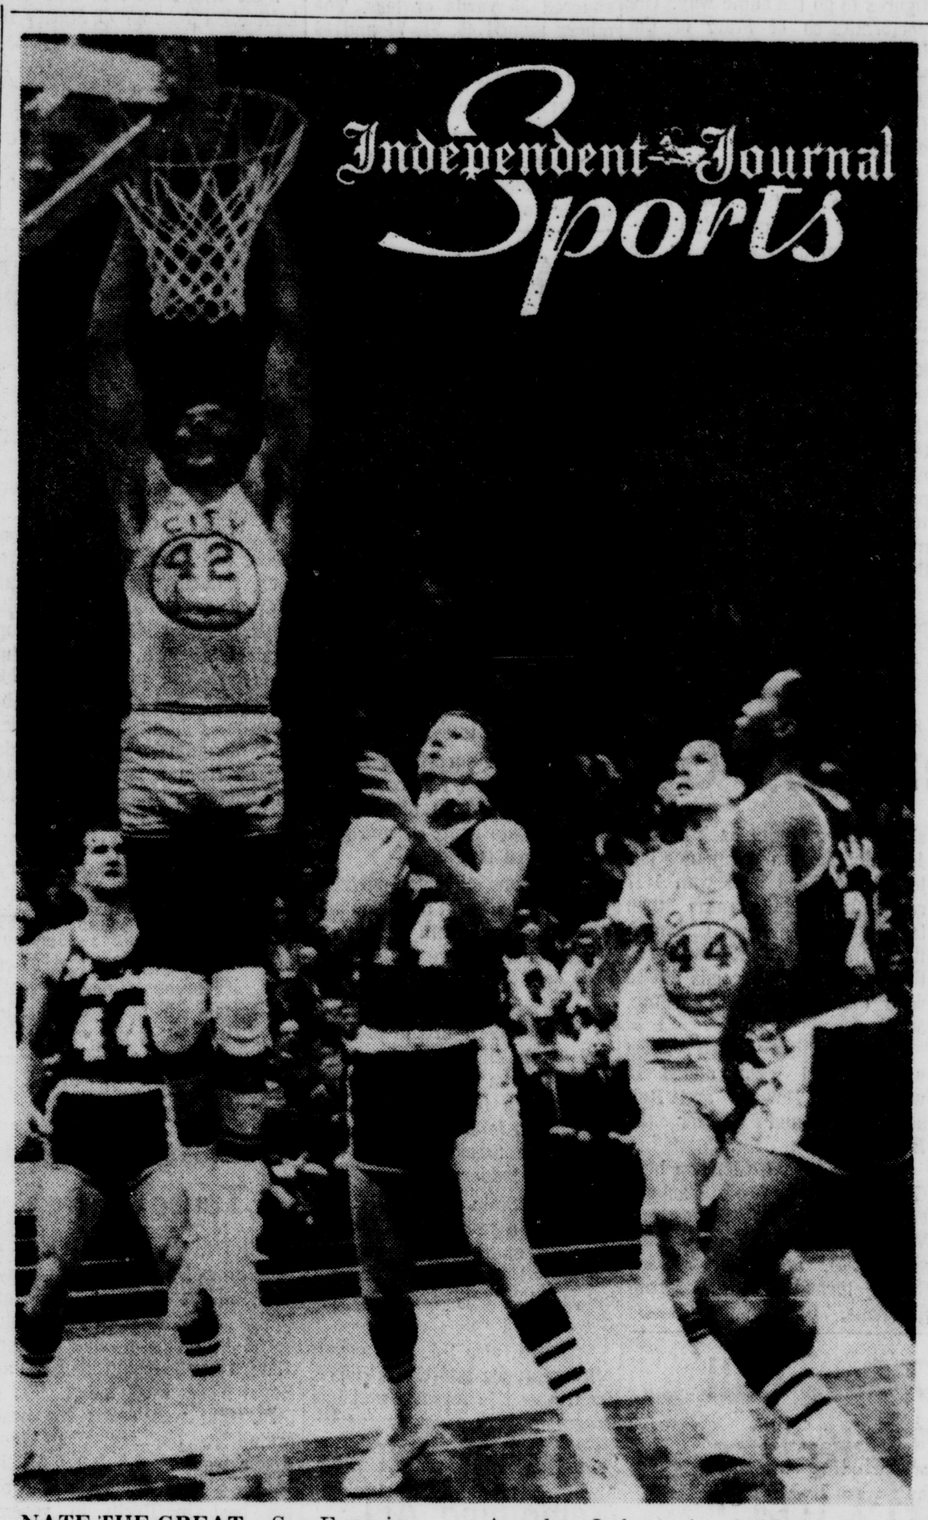

OUR COLLEGES should start recruiting the Swiss Bell Ringers, not scatbacks, fiddlers, not fullbacks. I can hear it right now. "Rah-Rah" Jones, the alumni's demon recruiter, all excited: "Boss, have I got a kid for you! Wait'll you hear this! He was all-state on the cymbals three years in a row. Broke 115 eardrums! Fifteen schools are after him, including the Rochester Symphony and Herb Alpert!"

OR, HE MIGHT be gloomy: "Boss, we're going to have to come up with a better offer for Efrem the cymbalist. He can get board, room, and tuition from Lawrence Welk, too. And he doesn't want one of those phony scholarships where he has to play for the school dances, or blow taps when they take the flag down. He wants a full ride, and a convertible on the side."

THE ENROLLMENT of choreographers will be critical, too. "Boss, you remember that last Rose Bowl show? Looked like it was choreographed by two blacksmiths and a torch solderer, right? Well, Boss, I got just the kid for you! I'm trying to get him to sign the letter of intent right now. Is he a great choreographer? Boss, this guy wears leotards to empty the garbage! He DANCES to work every morning. Five miles! He's been on his toes so long his heels aren't even wrinkled! He makes Nijinsky look like he's got the gout."

THE MUSIC department will have a dormitory all its own like the University of Alabama football team. The walls will be covered with action photos of French horn players, and charts of statistics showing the number of times the bass drum player hit dead center.

INSTEAD OF bronzed shoes a famous drop-kickers, they will have bronzed lips of the cornet player, the straps with which Humpback Clancy held the bass drum the year they beat Purdue, the callouses on the stomach where he got too fat to wear the Sousaphone, and a recording of the great speech of bandleader Knute Rockhead, "When you hit those tubas on a downbeat, I want to see those things spray! And when the going gets tough, I want to win one for the old Lipper—George Lipp, the greatest saxophonist ever to hit a football field for this institution!"

NATE THE GREAT—San Francisco center Nate Thurmond doesn't even have to swat a fly away as he's all alone for a big stuff shot on a rebound follow-up against the Los Angeles Lakers in Oakland last night while Lakers Jerry West (44), Darrall Imhoff (14), Archie Clark (21) watch. Warrior Fred Hetzel approves. The Warriors won, 122-91. (UPI Telephoto)

Warriors Are Too Much For Lakers Again, 122-91

OAKLAND (UPI) — Remember last season when the Los Angeles Lakers beat the San Francisco Warriors 10 times in 13 meetings?

That definitely was last season, too, as the Warriors now have knocked off the once-fearsome Lakers five times without a loss in the current campaign.

With Nate Thurmond scoring 24 points and grabbing 25 rebounds, San Francisco hung a 122-91 defeat on the Lakers last night and moved out to seven games ahead of the idle St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division of the NBA.

Los Angeles is home again tonight to face the Boston Celtics while San Francisco entertains the Hawks. If nothing else, the Lakers hold two wins over Boston this year while the Warriors are 0-3 against the legendary club.

Jerry West was old reliable for the Lakers yesterday, putting away 21 points to lead their chilly attack. And Tom Hawkins and Jerry Chambers checked the Warriors' Rick Barry so closely that the NBA's top scorer didn't hit a field goal until there was 1.22 left in the first half.

But "super soph" still finished the night with 23 points.

A crowd of 11,102 at the Oakland Coliseum, the largest Bay Area turnout for the Warriors this season, watched Thurmond click on eight of his first nine shots during the first half.

The Lakers, meanwhile, only could hit at a 28.8 per cent clip before intermission and finished the night at 34 per cent. San Francisco was 45.5 over the same distance.

Wisconsin Makes Final Try To Keep Baseball

MADISON, Wis. (AP)— Wisconsin returned to the U.S. Supreme Court today as its last resort in its antitrust battle to return baseball to Milwaukee.

The 11-page document carrying Wisconsin's last hopes was to be filed with the court in Washington late today. A copy of the request for a rehearing was made public in Madison.

State attorneys asked the nation's highest court to reconsider its refusal to review a Wisconsin Supreme Court ruling that baseball is exempt from prosecution under antitrust laws.

A state official conceded the argument was "a long shot."

Wisconsin is asking that the National League be ordered to give Milwaukee an expansion club as compensation for moving the Braves to Atlanta last season.

The U.S. Supreme Court will be the graveyard for the state's struggle should the latest plea perish.

The U.S. Supreme Court usually agrees to hear an appeal on the vote of four of the nine justices. Wisconsin said three should be sufficient if one of the justices takes no part in the case.

Justices Hugo Black, William O. Douglas and William J. Brennan Jr. announced in December they had voted to hear the case. Justice Abe Fortas said he had not participated in consideration of the appeal.

The Boston-born Braves took big league baseball to Atlanta last season after a 13-year stopover in Milwaukee.

Gilmer On Way Out?

DETROIT (AP) — Both Detroit newspapers reported yesterday that Detroit Lions' Coach Harry Gilmer had been fired from his National Football League job and would be replaced by assistant Joe Schmidt.

Neither Schmidt, a former star linebacker with the Lions, nor Lions' owner William Clay Ford could be reached for comment.

Gilmer, on a scouting trip in Mobile, Ala., said, "All I know is what a friend told me he saw on television. I certainly haven't had any official word about it."

Both the Detroit News and the Detroit Free Press quoted unnamed sources in their report.

Soccer League To Hold Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Professional Soccer League announced yesterday it would hold a draft for college soccer players at its meeting next week in Atlanta.

Robert R. Hermann, president of the league, declared "professional sports have been a big incentive for college athletes in every major team sport except soccer. Now the college soccer star will have an opportunity to go beyond the amateur ranks."

The league meeting and the draft will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday in the Atlanta Stadium Club.

Redwood and Terra Linda high schools go at it tonight in one of three opening round Marin Athletic League basketball games, this one scheduled for the Terra Linda gym.

Action starts at 7 o'clock with the "B" teams, followed by the varsity teams at approximately 8:15.

Redwood has a high-scoring team, led by guard Andre Horn who is top scorer among the MCAL cagers in non-league games. Horn, 5-10, is averaging 16.7 points per game.

The Giants are also the tallest team in the league, and that will be a factor tonight against the Trojans. Redwood will be taking a 7-5 record into the gym, compared to Terra Linda's 3-7 mark. It is this pre-league showing that makes Redwood the choice over Terra Linda.

In addition to Horn, Redwood gets good scoring out of forward Jack Fitzhenry who is averaging 14.1 points per game. Fred Smith, Paul Lee and Steve Congdon will most likely do most of the Trojans scoring tonight.

SCRIBES PICK DRAKE TO WIN LEAGUE TITLE

Independent-Journal sportswriters have installed the Drake High School Pirates as favorites to win their second straight Marin Athletic League basketball title.

In voting among the four members of the staff, Drake got three of the first place votes and Tamalpais earned the other first place nod. Points were scored 7 for first, 6 for second, 5 for third, etc. Drake got 26 points, followed by Tam with 22 and Redwood, 21.

Voting, with number of points, and first place votes in parenthesis:

1. Drake, 26 (3)
2. Tamalpais, 22 (1)

7. Novato, 4

Tamalpais Will Host San Rafael

Tamalpais High School's Indians, picked as Marin Athletic League favorites by coaches even though they have lost all but one of their nine practice games, host San Rafael High School's Bulldogs in a league-opening basketball game tonight.

Guard Mike Biber is listed as a doubtful starter for Tam because of a hurt back, and Steve Woodward, another guard, has been slowed by a hurt ankle. Injuries have been costly to the Tam boys.

Hurt ankle and all, Woodward is the team's leading scorer, sporting a 13.3 average. But he's going to have to get help along the scoring line from returning starter Steve Johnson, juniors Leroy Barrow and Floyd Jackson, and center Pat Schafer.

San Rafael is sporting a 6-5 record going into the league skirmish. The Bulldogs have a pretty balanced scoring attack, led by Chip Tyson who is averaging 12.4 points.

The varsity game begins about 8:15, following the Class B contest which starts at 7 o'clock.

Marin 'Cats Go Against Novato '5'

Marin Catholic High School's small but explosive basketball team tries to start Marin Athletic League play on the right foot tonight against the Novato Hornets on the Novato court.

The varsity game will follow the 7 o'clock Class B game.

Sporting the best win-loss record among Marin Athletic League teams in non-league scraps, the Wildcats have won 6 of their 10 practice tilts. They're led by the scoring of Harry Matsinger, Ches Bornia, Jim Ingrassia and Rich Garms, all scoring in double figures on the average. Matsinger is high man at 15.0.

Only one of the starting five for the M.C. team is taller than six feet so the Wildcats will be giving up height in all their games.

Novato isn't considered one of the threats to take the title, but will be trying for upsets all along the circuit. Frank Howard is a very capable shooter (11.9) and will be the big man in the Hornets' offensive attack. Lack of experienced players will hurt the Novato quint in the early league games.

Seals Host Last Place Gulls Tonight

OAKLAND (UPI) — The San Diego Gulls just did the Seals a favor by winning. Now they can do them just as big a favor by losing tonight.

San Diego blanked Seattle 3-0 Wednesday with Les Binkley getting his first shutout of the campaign in the Gull nets. It was a big win from the Seals point of view since they kept in the thick of the race for third and fourth spots. Seattle has 35 points, Los Angeles 33 and California 32 with the season nearly at the half-way point.

San Diego is in last, but has won five out of eight from Seattle and is 4-3 against Los Angeles. The Seals owe the Gulls plenty but will just try to present them with a loss at the Jewel Box arena tonight.

The visitors have ex-Seals Al Nicholson, Eddie Panagabko, Larry McNabb, Len Haley, Jim Wilcox, and red-hot Del Topoll on their squad.

Coach Charlie Burns of California has indicated he will go with young Jean Paul Morisette in the goal since he led the Seals to a win last time and shut out the Los Angeles Blades for the final 44 minutes in the process.

Regular net-minder Jack McCarten is resting a while to calm his game "nerves," but will probably perform Saturday against the Blades in Los Angeles.

Either Tom Thurlby or Ron Harris will probably play on defense in place of injured John Gravel.

Latest Seals scoring statistics show George Swarbrick with 12 goals and Burns and Forbes Kennedy with 11 apiece. Burns is the top point-maker with 30, followed by Wayne Maxner with 24 and Kennedy with 23.

Drake Edges Salesian In Overtime Contest, 48-46

The Drake Pirates, outshot, outrebounded and missing free throws as if it was a charity game, nevertheless commandeered a 48-46 overtime victory over frustrated Salesian at Drake yesterday.

The Pirates refused victory in the final period by missing three one-and-one free throw situations including one with four seconds showing but go down to serious business in overtime.

Stu Clemons started it with a jumper for a 43-41 lead. Salesian came back to tie it and Drake went ahead again, this time on a drive by Karl Stein. Salesian got a tie again but 6-5 Jerry Sprout sank a pair of free throws with 35 seconds left and suddenly jittery Salesian threw it away to give the Pirates a win.

Sprout showed his championship form as he paced the Pirates with 15 points and 19 rebounds. Stein added 13 points and Chet Carlisle chipped in with 10.

Drake shot only 42 per cent at the charity line to Salesian's 50 per cent and 31 per cent from the field to Salesian's 42 per cent. The Pirates were outrebounded, 35-38.

The pill was mighty bitter for Salesian. The loss was the second to Drake, the first being a one-point verdict.

Drake led 10-6 after the first period. Salesian tied it at 23-23 at the half and led 35-32 after three quarters before a 41-41 regulation tie.

The win was Drake's sixth against four losses.

South Picked In Senior Bowl Game

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Otto Graham is a veteran of all-star football games, but the Washington Redskins' coach doesn't plan to call the shots tomorrow when his South team plays the North in the 18th annual Senior Bowl.

"I let the kids call the plays," said Graham, who, like North Coach Norm Van Brocklin of the Minnesota Vikings, is making his first bid in this play-for-pay game in which winning players get $1,000 and the losers $750.

Graham, however, coached the College All-Stars eight times against the National Football League champions in the College All-Star game in Chicago before he became the Redskins' coach last fall.

"This game is a lot different because we only have a week to get ready, and in the All-Star game where we had three weeks to practice we could set up a complete offense and defense," Graham said.

Graham said the South — a surprising five-point favorite — probably will take to the air "because the kids usually like to throw a lot in these games. But we will have to run quite a bit to make our passing game work."

Terry Southall, Baylor passing whiz who was on the losing side two weeks ago when the South played the North in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala., will quarterback the South.

Virgil Carter, running and passing standout from Brigham Young, is scheduled to quarterback the North, where Van Brocklin has a pair of bruising runners in Harry Wilson of Nebraska and Ray McDonald of Idaho.

South runners Jim Bohl of New Mexico State and Billy Masters of Louisiana State lack the credentials of the North rushers, but the Rebels have an All-America pass catcher in flanker Ray Perkins.

The elusive receiver, who led Alabama's rout of Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl Monday, is backed up by Johnny Mills of Tennessee, stand-out in the Vols' conquest of Syracuse in the Gator Bowl.

The brawny North team has an All-American lineman on defense in Bubba Smith of Michigan State, and All-America Larry Wacholtz of Nebraska heads up the secondary.

Southern defenses will be led by a pair of All-America players from the Southeastern Conference, George Patton of Georgia and Paul Naumoff of Tennessee.

Van Brocklin says the North "will do a lot of passing" to bypass the two linemen, with Carter's top targets expected to be Eppie Barney of Iowa State and Chet Anderson of Minnesota.

The game, in which the North hasn't won since 1960, will be televised nationally by NBC-TV starting at 11 a.m. Under the game's special rules a team nine or more points behind can receive a kickoff after it scores.

MARIN PREP ALL-STAR GRID COACHES NAMED

Coaches for the Ross Valley Kiwanis North-South All-Star Football Game, pitting the top senior players in the Marin County Athletic League Aug. 24, were named today.

Bob Munster, who piloted a small, unheralded San Rafael team to a 5-2-2 mark last season and Jess Payan, architect of Terra Linda's stout defense that paved the way to a share of the MCAL title, will coach the North squad.

Carl Brown, assistant coach for Drake's co-champions and Joel Kiff of Marin Catholic, will guide the South team.

Big 10 Beats Us In Show Business, Too

As a West Coaster, I'm getting good and bloody sick of the Big 10 Rose Bowl pact.

Wait a minute! It's NOT the football team. We can handle them. It's show business where they're clobbering us. In football, we're 5 for 21. In bands, we've been shut out. Never mind The Four Horsemen. It's the Four Glockenspielers we can't match.

TAKE MONDAY'S game. Purdue came out with a band that John Philip Sousa never dreamed of—plus, they had four girls in sequins, balloons, smoke bombs, and more tubas than a hock shop on New Year's morning. The band had more people in it than the Washington Senators drew last season.

I DON'T MEAN to take anything away from the poor kids at USC but they looked like an Indian club act by comparison. "What's the name of that combo?" the pressbox's Bud Tucker asked suspiciously as their thin red line trickled out onto the field.

I HAVE given some attention to the difficulty and I have put my finger on the trouble. These Big 10 bands and halftime acts come from sophisticated centers like Lafayette, Ind.; Columbus, O.; Ann Arbor and East Lansing, Mich.; Champaign-Urbana, Ill., and some citadel of the musical comb in Iowa. Naturally, they're way ahead of a bunch of rustics like us. I mean, all we have is Disneyland, Irving Berlin, MGM, Warner Bros., Meredith Willson, Ella Fitzgerald, Ray Charles, Sinatra, Crosby and Andy Williams. How can we be expected to know anything about show biz? Or how to put on a halftime musical? We'd just rather sit there with those dead card tricks and march in the stadium like there was a body behind us.

I THINK THE trouble is, we're concentrating on the wrong thing for these New Year's spectaculars—i.e., football players. The country isn't laughing behind their hands over our athletes. What panics them is those some old vaudeville routines.

OUR COLLEGES should start recruiting the Swiss Bell Ringers, not scatbacks, fiddlers, not fullbacks. I can hear it right now. "Rah-Rah" Jones, the alumni's demon recruiter, all excited: "Boss, have I got a kid for you! Wait'll you hear this! He was all-state on the cymbals three years in a row. Broke 115 eardrums! Fifteen schools are after him, including the Rochester Symphony and Herb Alpert!"

OR, HE MIGHT be gloomy: "Boss, we're going to have to come up with a better offer for Efrem the cymbalist. He can get board, room, and tuition from Lawrence Welk, too. And he doesn't want one of those phony scholarships where he has to play for the school dances, or blow taps when they take the flag down. He wants a full ride, and a convertible on the side."

THE ENROLLMENT of choreographers will be critical, too. "Boss, you remember that last Rose Bowl show? Looked like it was choreographed by two blacksmiths and a torch solderer, right? Well, Boss, I got just the kid for you! I'm trying to get him to sign the letter of intent right now. Is he a great choreographer? Boss, this guy wears leotards to empty the garbage! He DANCES to work every morning. Five miles! He's been on his toes so long his heels aren't even wrinkled! He makes Nijinsky look like he's got the gout."

THE MUSIC department will have a dormitory all its own like the University of Alabama football team. The walls will be covered with action photos of French horn players, and charts of statistics showing the number of times the bass drum player hit dead center.

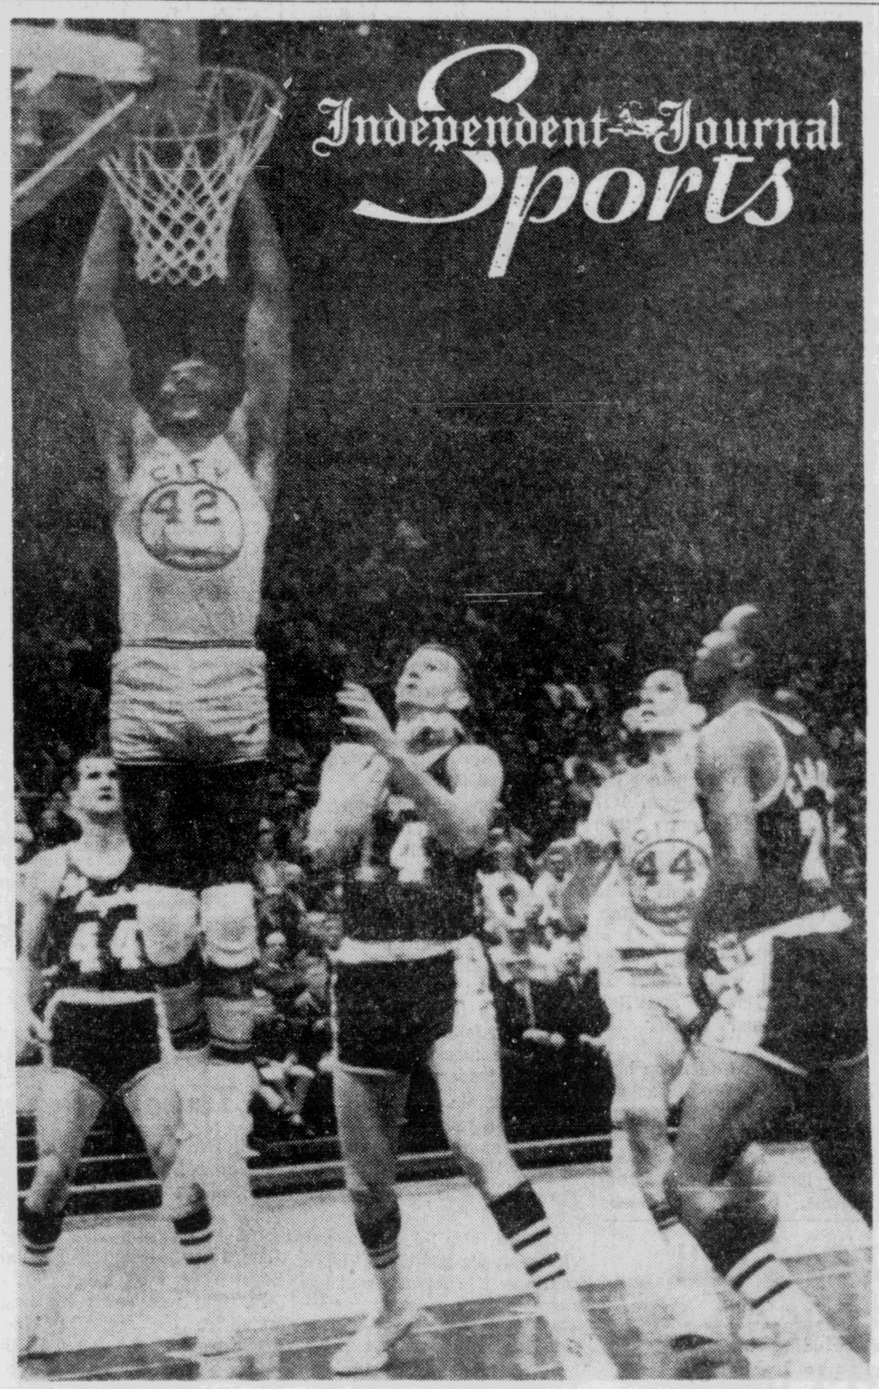

INSTEAD OF bronzed shoes a famous drop-kickers, they will have bronzed lips of the cornet player, the straps with which Humpback Clancy held the bass drum the year they beat Purdue, the callouses on the stomach where he got too fat to wear the Sousaphone, and a recording of the great speech of bandleader Knute Rockhead, "When you hit those tubas on a downbeat, I want to see those things spray! And when the going gets tough, I want to win one for the old Lipper—George Lipp, the greatest saxophonist ever to hit a football field for this institution!"

Soccer League To Hold Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Professional Soccer League announced yesterday it would hold a draft for college soccer players at its meeting next week in Atlanta.

Robert R. Hermann, president of the league, declared "professional sports have been a big incentive for college athletes in every major team sport except soccer. Now the college soccer star will have an opportunity to go beyond the amateur ranks."

The league meeting and the draft will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday in the Atlanta Stadium Club.

NATE THE GREAT—San Francisco center Nate Thurmond doesn't even have to swat a fly away as he's all alone for a big stuff shot on a rebound follow-up against the Los Angeles Lakers in Oakland last night while Lakers Jerry West (44), Darrall Imhoff (14), Archie Clark (21) watch. Warriors Are Too Much For Lakers Again, 122-91

OAKLAND (UPI) — Remember last season when the Los Angeles Lakers beat the San Francisco Warriors 10 times in 13 meetings?

That definitely was last season, too, as the Warriors now have knocked off the once-fearsome Lakers five times without a loss in the current campaign.

With Nate Thurmond scoring 24 points and grabbing 25 rebounds, San Francisco hung a 122-91 defeat on the Lakers last night and moved out to seven games ahead of the idle St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division of the NBA.

Los Angeles is home again tonight to face the Boston Celtics while San Francisco entertains the Hawks. If nothing else, the Lakers hold two wins over Boston this year while the Warriors are 0-3 against the legendary club.

Jerry West was old reliable for the Lakers yesterday, putting away 21 points to lead their chilly attack. And Tom Hawkins and Jerry Chambers checked the Warriors' Rick Barry so closely that the NBA's top scorer didn't hit a field goal until there was 1.22 left in the first half.

But "super soph" still finished the night with 23 points.

A crowd of 11,102 at the Oakland Coliseum, the largest Bay Area turnout for the Warriors this season, watched Thurmond click on eight of his first nine shots during the first half.

The Lakers, meanwhile, only could hit at a 28.8 per cent clip before intermission and finished the night at 34 per cent. San Francisco was 45.5 over the same distance.

$14,000 WARMUPS–VOLLEYBALL

The Kansas City Chiefs warm up for what could be as much as a $14,000 payday in the Superbowl by using a goalpost for a net during a volleyball game while practicing in Long Beach. The Chiefs meet the Green Bay Packers, champions of the NFL, Sunday Jan. 15 in Los Angeles. There will be no goofing off for the Chiefs. Coach Hank Stram announced that any violations of training rules would result in an automatic $1,000 fine. That's money. (UPI Telephoto)

Quarterbacks Hold Key To Super Bowl

NEW YORK (AP) — Vince Lombardi hit it right on the nose last week when he said, "If Bart Starr has a real hot day, we are going to win."

Starr had a four-touchdown sizzler and Lombardi's Green Bay Packers beat Dallas 34-27, turning back the Cowboys with a great goal line stand in the final minutes.

The Super Bowl game in the Los Angeles Coliseum Jan. 15 figures to go the same way. The performances of Starr of the Packers and Len Dawson of the Kansas City Chiefs probably will determine the winner of the first meeting of NFL and AFL champions.

Dawson, 31, is a 10th year pro who spent the first five in the NFL with Pittsburgh and Cleveland. When he was cut by the Browns he contacted Hank Stram, his old backfield coach at Purdue, and joined the Dallas Texans, later to become the Kansas City Chiefs.

While leading the Chiefs to the title, Dawson had one of his better years. He wound up the regular season with 26 touchdown passes and was interepted only 10 times. Len threw for two more TDs last Sunday against Buffalo in the Chiefs' 31-7 romp.

Starr, in his 11th year as a pro, is 32. A control passer who seldom is intercepted, Starr threw for 14 TDs in regular season and four more in the Dallas game. He has been intercepted only three times all year.

Although it is generally believed that Dawson goes for the long ball in the Chiefs' high-powered attack, while Starr features the short pitch and ball control, the statistics do not bear this out.

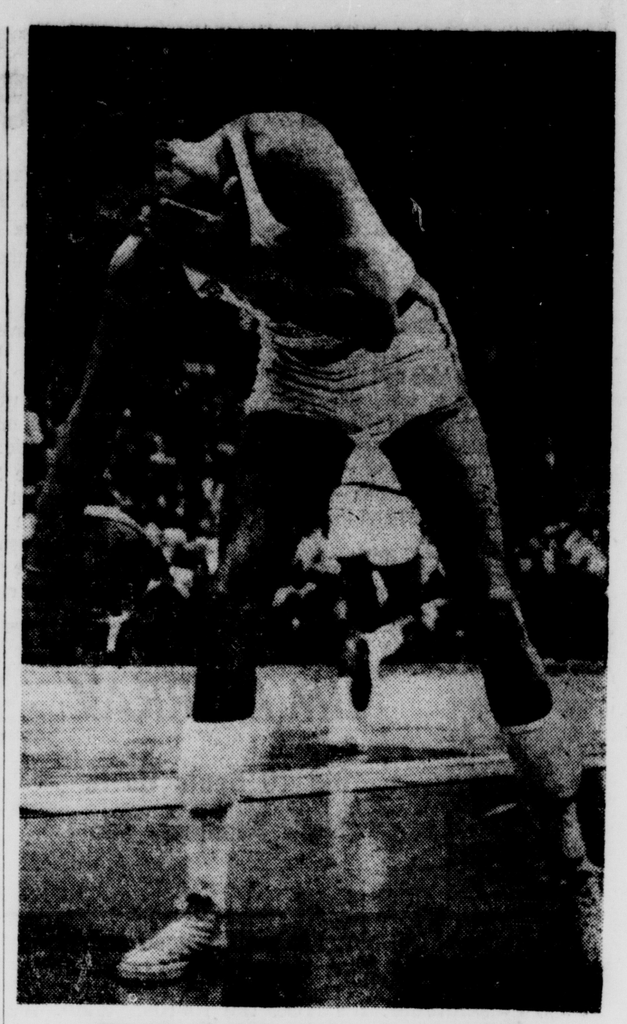

Of Dawson's 28 TD passes, including the title game, 22 have covered 35 yards or less. The others gained 45, 71, 74 and 89 yards. Otis Taylor took the three long bombs.

Starr, the control artist, has 18, including the Dallas game. Ten have covered more than 35 yards, including an 80-yard gainer to Elijah Pitts and 78- and 83-yard plays to Carroll Dale.

When he is throwing for the touchdown, Dawson is most likely to go to flanker Taylor, a 6-foot-2, 211-pound second year speedster from Prairie View, or Chris Burford, a 6-3, 210-pound split end who runs fine patterns.

Taylor caught eight TD passes from Dawson, Burford seven. Taylor also got one from Pete Beathard and Burford one from halfback Bert Coan.

Split end Dale had five and halfback Pitts four of Starr's 18 TD tosses. Three went to Paul Hornung, who saw little service in the second half of the season due to a pinched nerve in his back but who just might turn out to be a very important factor in the warm California sunshine.

LOUISVILLE UPS RECORD TO 13-0

Tulsa Nips Cincinnati Cagers, 65-64

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

It was supposed to have been just the beginning for the Cincinnati Bearcats in the tough Missouri Valley Conference but it may have turned out to be the end.

The Bearcats, the nation's fifth-ranked team in the United Press International ratings, were confident they had a good shot at beating out Louisville, the No. 2 team, for the Missouri Valley (MVC) title and a berth in the NCAA tournament.

But when the Bearcats, the defending MVC champions, opened their conference campaign last night, they suffered a 65-64 setback in overtime to Tulsa.

With a loss on their conference record after their first game, it's going to make it that much tougher for Cincinnati to catch Louisville, which romped past North Texas State, 86-66, to boost its record to 13-0. Louisville, which doesn't believe UCLA is invincible, is now 3-0 in the MVC.

The MVC has three teams among the nation's top 13 teams and no other conference has more than one. It was also typical that 13th ranked Bradley was also upset by a conference team last night, suffering an 83-69 loss to Wichita State.

Besides second-ranked Louisville and fifth-ranked Cincinnati, three other teams among the nation's top 10 were in action last night.

Sixth-ranked Houston topped Lamar Tech, 82-62, eighth-ranked Providence edged Massachusetts 62-59, as Jimmy Walker scored 29 points to top the career school scoring record and 10th raked Vanderbilt edged fast-fading Kentucky, 91-89, in overtime. It was the fifth loss for Kentucky this year and all five have been at home where the Wildcats used to be unbeatable.

Cincinnati started the season with eight straight victories but then was upset by Iowa in a non-conference game before being spilled by Tulsa.

Hitting on 52 per cent of its shots, Tulsa fought back from a 44-38 deficit with 11 minutes left to take a 52-50 lead with 1:17 remaining. The teams then traded two points and Cincinnati's Mike Rolf hit two free throws with nine seconds left to send the game into overtime, 54-54.

Bob Washington led Tulsa with 20 and Webb added 15 while John Howard and Rolf scored 19 and 18 for the Bearcats.

In other action, Clemson beat Georgia Tech, 76-55, Canisius edged Iona, 80-71, in overtime, Virginia beat New York University, 91-84, and New Mexico State turned back Hardin Simmons, 71-61.

PACIFIC-8 CAGE RACE TO BEGIN

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Conference basketball play opens tonight in the Pacific - 8 and for perhaps the only time in the season, UCLA won't be heading the list.

Only, however, because the top ranked Bruins don't open play until tomorrow afternoon when they meet the Cougars at Washington State in the afternoon regional television contest.

California's surprising Bears, champions of the Rainbow Tournament in Honolulu, play host to Oregon State while Oregon goes at Stanford tonight.

Those clubs exchange partners for tomorrow night meetings and Southern California plays at Washington.

Virtues of a guard-dominated offense have helped Cal's Bears to a 7-2 record in the pre-conference battling. Charlie Perkins lead the scorers with 170 points with fellow guard Russ Critchfield following at 153.Center Bruce Steckel follows well down the ladder at 89.

Oregon State won the conference title a year ago but stands only 5-4 so far this campaign with Loy Petersen and Ed Fredenburg the only returnees off the starting five.

Stanford, also 5-4, has moved all conference guard Art Harris from guard to forward and has two-year letterman Rich Baker at forward.

Coach Steve Belko's Oregon Ducks are 4-4 against collegiate foes, finishing fifth in the Far West Classic during the holidays. The starting lineup against Stanford will have John Pinkstaff, 6-7, at center, Nick Jones, 6-2, and either Rick Abramson, 6-2, or Mike Nicksic, 5-11, at guards, and forwards picked from a group including Bill Thomas, 6-6, Ken Smith,6-4 and Bob Craven, 6-7.

Nicksic is a doubtful participant because of an ankle injury suffered during the tournament.

UCLA, with 7 - 1 sophomore Lew Alcindor, plays Monday night at Washington and after that, if forecasts are correct, the Bruins will head the Pacific 8 list the rest of the way.

Providence Star Leads Alcindor In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Walker, the agile 6-foot-3 Providence guard, has leaped over 7-foot-1's Lew Alcindor of UCLA for the individual scoring lead among the nation's major-college basketball players.

Walker held a slim 0.03 lead over the Bruins' sophomore center in games through last Saturday according to figures compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau.

The Providence star scored 100 points while leading his team to the Holiday Festival championship in New York last week and raised his average to 29.90 points for 10 games. Alcindor totaled 67 in his last three games and his average dropped to 29.87 for eight games.

Bob Lloyd of Rutgers is a close third with a 29.3 mark. He is followed by Gary Gray of Oklahoma City with 28.3 and Andy Anderson of Canisius, 28.0.

Alcindor maintained first place in field goal percentage with a .714 average on 94 baskets in 131 attempts. Lloyd is the free throw accuracy leader with .943 while Westley Useld of Louisville is tops in rebounds with an average of 22.4 a game.

The team leaders through games of Jan. 3 were UCLA in scoring with a 97.3 average for eight games, Memphis State in defense with an average yield of only 50.8 points, Bradley in field goal percentage with .545, Rutgers in free throw percentage with .788 and Louisville in rebounds with .605.

Divers Still Search For Racer's Body

CONISTON, England (UPI)—Navy divers today awaited a wintry dawn to descend 142 feet into the "cold, black and miserable" waters of Lake Coniston to seek the body of daredevil speed king Donald Campbell.

The main wreckage of Campbell's jet-engined boat "Bluebird," which he rode to death in a 300 m.p.h. airborne somersault Wednesday, was found by divers late yesterday.

Campbell's body was not discoverd but crash experts said they expected it would be found near the place where the Bluebird, its engine still screaming at full power, crashed with deadly impact into the lake.

Campbell's chief mechanic Leo Villa said after watching films of the fatal last run he believed the British holder of world land and water speed records had hit 340 m.p.h."and possibly quite a bit more."

The Bluebird tore free of the lake surface and catapulted into the air as Campbell made his final bid for his lifetime dream of a 300 m.p.h. record.

Motor racing driver Innes Ireland, a well-known daredevil on Europe's tracks, but a man who never has traveled faster than 40 m.p.h. on water, immediately volunteered to take over Campbell's unfinished task.

Ireland said, "I feel that someone ought to carry on where Campbell left off.

Colts, Eagles Prepare For Playoff Grid Tilt

MIAMI (UPI) —Veteran Willie Richardson will substitute for injured Baltimore Colts flankerback Jimmy Orr in the upcoming playoff game Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Richardson proved himself in the last regular-season game against the 49ers, snagging a 39-yard touchdown pass. Orr will be out of commission because he is recovering from a broken collarbone. He apparently is the only man on either team sidelined.

Otherwise, both teams are reported in top physical shape.

Both clubs concentrated on defensive strategy yesterday, with the Eagles working on Baltimore's passing attack and the Colts generally running through their drills.

Philadelphia did some light passing with all three quarterbacks, including Jack Concannon, doing some of the throwing. Concannon is considered fully recovered from a strained back muscle suffered in the last game.

Johnny Unitas is ready to go at quarterback for the Colts. Gary Cuozzo will be his backup man.

Tom Matte, who regularly plays as the No. 1 running back, also will be standing by to fill in at quarterback if needed. Matte shifted to quarterback in last year's playoff bowl to lead the Colts to a 35-3 victory over the Dallas Cowboys.

76ers Fall To Knicks, 112-104

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

It might not have been the greatest game the New York Knickerbockers have ever played but it certainly was one of the most satisfying.

The Knicks, who suffered a heartbreaking 148-142 overtime loss to the Philadelphia 76ers Tuesday night at Madison Square Garden in what some observers labeled the finest game ever played by the Knicks, finally caught up with the 76ers last night at a neutral court in Pittsburgh.

With Walt Bellamy, often the target of the boo birds in New York, playing a superb game, the Knicks stunned the 76ers 112-104.

It was only the fourth loss of the entire season for the 76ers, who have won 37 games and are expected to set records this year for most victories and highest winning percentage in a single season. The loss broke a 76er 11-game win streak and was only their second loss in the last 24 games.

Bellamy led the New York attack with 29 points and 20 rebounds as he outplayed Wilt Chamberlain, who scored 13 points although he pulled down 22 rebounds.

Billy Cunningham led the losers with 22 points.

Chiefs To Fill Remaining AFL All-Star Spots

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)— The Kansas City Chiefs are expected to fill the remaining 12 spots on the West team for the American Football League's All-Star game in the Oakland Coliseum Stadium Jan. 21.

Coach John Rauch of the Oakland Raiders yesterday announced nine more selections for the team in addition to the 12 Raiders picked earlier.

Six are from the San Diego Chargers: flanker Lance Alworth, tackle Ron Mix, safetyman Ken Graham, kicker Dick Van Raaphorst, guard Walt Sweeney and cornerback Leslie (Speedy) Duncan.

The other three are from the Denver Broncos: flanker Bob Scarpitto, guard Jerry Sturm and linebacker John Bramlett.

The remainder of the West players are expected to be named after Kansas City meets Green Bay in the Super Bowl game in Los Angeles Jan. 15.

Banquet Tickets Still Available

There are still a few tickets available for the Marin Rod and Gun Club's 40th annual Stag Banquet to be held Saturday, Jan. 28, at the Rod and Gun Clubhouse at Point San Quentin.

Places have been set for 550 members and guests. Monty Marzetta, entertainment committee chairman, has lined up seven outstanding acts for the banquet.

Members who have not yet bought tickets are urged to buy any remaining ducats.

Cliffey Loses To Aussie Roche In Tense Match

PERTH, Australia (AP) — Australian Davis Cup star Tony Roche defeated Cliff Richey of Dallas after a tense two-hour battle in the semifinals of the State Championship singles at Royal Kings Park today.

In what was easily his best match in the series so far, Roche won 6-4, 6-3, 7-9, 7-5. Richey's performance was one of his best in Perth in recent years.

The third set produced the best tennis seen at the championships. Richey raced to a three-game lead before Roche improved his service and fought back to level 4-4.

Each held the service four times before Richey broke Roche's service to win the set. It was not until the 12th game of the fourth set that Roche was able to break Richey's service, and then hold his own to win the set and match.

Roche will now meet the winner of the Owen Davidson-Bill Bowrey semifinal match in Sunday's final.

Those clubs exchange partners for tomorrow night meetings and Southern California plays at Washington.

Virtues of a guard-dominated offense have helped Cal's Bears to a 7-2 record in the pre-conference battling. Charlie Perkins lead the scorers with 170 points with fellow guard Russ Critchfield following at 153.Center Bruce Steckel follows well down the ladder at 89.

Oregon State won the conference title a year ago but stands only 5-4 so far this campaign with Loy Petersen and Ed Fredenburg the only returnees off the starting five.

Stanford, also 5-4, has moved all conference guard Art Harris from guard to forward and has two-year letterman Rich Baker at forward.

Coach Steve Belko's Oregon Ducks are 4-4 against collegiate foes, finishing fifth in the Far West Classic during the holidays. The starting lineup against Stanford will have John Pinkstaff, 6-7, at center, Nick Jones, 6-2, and either Rick Abramson, 6-2, or Mike Nicksic, 5-11, at guards, and forwards picked from a group including Bill Thomas, 6-6, Ken Smith,6-4 and Bob Craven, 6-7.

Nicksic is a doubtful participant because of an ankle injury suffered during the tournament.

UCLA, with 7 - 1 sophomore Lew Alcindor, plays Monday night at Washington and after that, if forecasts are correct, the Bruins will head the Pacific 8 list the rest of the way.

Providence Star Leads Alcindor In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Walker, the agile 6-foot-3 Providence guard, has leaped over 7-foot-1⅜ Lew Alcindor of UCLA for the individual scoring lead among the nation's major-college basketball players.

Walker held a slim 0.03 lead over the Bruins' sophomore center in games through last Saturday according to figures compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau.

The Providence star scored 100 points while leading his team to the Holiday Festival championship in New York last week and raised his average to 29.90 points for 10 games. Alcindor totaled 67 in his last three games and his average dropped to 29.87 for eight games.

Bob Lloyd of Rutgers is a close third with a 29.3 mark. He is followed by Gary Gray of Oklahoma City with 28.3 and Andy Anderson of Canisius, 28.0.

Alcindor maintained first place in field goal percentage with a .714 average on 94 baskets in 131 attempts. Lloyd is the free throw accuracy leader with .943 while Westley Useld of Louisville is tops in rebounds with an average of 22.4 a game.

The team leaders through games of Jan. 3 were UCLA in scoring with a 97.3 average for eight games, Memphis State in defense with an average yield of only 50.8 points, Bradley in field goal percentage with .545, Rutgers in free throw percentage with .788 and Louisville in rebounds with .605.

Divers Still Search For Racer's Body

CONISTON, England (UPI)— Navy divers today awaited a wintry dawn to descend 142 feet into the "cold, black and miserable" waters of Lake Coniston to seek the body of daredevil speed king Donald Campbell.

The main wreckage of Campbell's jet-engined boat "Bluebird," which he rode to death in a 300 m.p.h. airborne somersault Wednesday, was found by divers late yesterday.

Campbell's body was not discoverd but crash experts said they expected it would be found near the place where the Bluebird, its engine still screaming at full power, crashed with deadly impact into the lake.

Campbell's chief mechanic Leo Villa said after watching films of the fatal last run he believed the British holder of world land and water speed records had hit 340 m.p.h."and possibly quite a bit more."

The Bluebird tore free of the lake surface and catapulted into the air as Campbell made his final bid for his lifetime dream of a 300 m.p.h. record.

Motor racing driver Innes Ireland, a well-known daredevil on Europe's tracks, but a man who never has traveled faster than 40 m.p.h. on water, immediately volunteered to take over Campbell's unfinished task.

Ireland said, "I feel that someone ought to carry on where Campbell left off.

Colts, Eagles Prepare For Playoff Grid Tilt

MIAMI (UPI) —Veteran Willie Richardson will substitute for injured Baltimore Colts flankerback Jimmy Orr in the upcoming playoff game Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Richardson proved himself in the last regular-season game against the 49ers, snagging a 39-yard touchdown pass. Orr will be out of commission because he is recovering from a broken collarbone. He apparently is the only man on either team sidelined.

Otherwise, both teams are reported in top physical shape.

Both clubs concentrated on defensive strategy yesterday, with the Eagles working on Baltimore's passing attack and the Colts generally running through their drills.

Philadelphia did some light passing with all three quarterbacks, including Jack Concannon, doing some of the throwing. Concannon is considered fully recovered from a strained back muscle suffered in the last game.

Johnny Unitas is ready to go at quarterback for the Colts. Gary Cuozzo will be his backup man.

Tom Matte, who regularly plays as the No. 1 running back, also will be standing by to fill in at quarterback if needed. Matte shifted to quarterback in last year's playoff bowl to lead the Colts to a 35-3 victory over the Dallas Cowboys.

76ers Fall To Knicks, 112-104

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

It might not have been the greatest game the New York Knickerbockers have ever played but it certainly was one of the most satisfying.

The Knicks, who suffered a heartbreaking 148-142 overtime loss to the Philadelphia 76ers Tuesday night at Madison Square Garden in what some observers labeled the finest game ever played by the Knicks, finally caught up with the 76ers last night at a neutral court in Pittsburgh.

With Walt Bellamy, often the target of the boo birds in New York, playing a superb game, the Knicks stunned the 76ers 112-104.

It was only the fourth loss of the entire season for the 76ers, who have won 37 games and are expected to set records this year for most victories and highest winning percentage in a single season. The loss broke a 76er 11-game win streak and was only their second loss in the last 24 games.

Bellamy led the New York attack with 29 points and 20 rebounds as he outplayed Wilt Chamberlain, who scored 13 points although he pulled down 22 rebounds.

Billy Cunningham led the losers with 22 points.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Forward Joe Galbo's ten points in overtime gave San Francisco State an 83-73 Far Western Conference basketball victory over Hayward State last night.

Chiefs To Fill Remaining AFL All-Star Spots

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)— The Kansas City Chiefs are expected to fill the remaining 12 spots on the West team for the American Football League's All-Star game in the Oakland Coliseum Stadium Jan. 21.

Coach John Rauch of the Oakland Raiders yesterday announced nine more selections for the team in addition to the 12 Raiders picked earlier.

Six are from the San Diego Chargers: flanker Lance Alworth, tackle Ron Mix, safetyman Ken Graham, kicker Dick Van Raaphorst, guard Walt Sweeney and cornerback Leslie (Speedy) Duncan.

The other three are from the Denver Broncos: flanker Bob Scarpitto, guard Jerry Sturm and linebacker John Bramlett.

The remainder of the West players are expected to be named after Kansas City meets Green Bay in the Super Bowl game in Los Angeles Jan. 15.

Banquet Tickets Still Available

There are still a few tickets available for the Marin Rod and Gun Club's 40th annual Stag Banquet to be held Saturday, Jan. 28, at the Rod and Gun Clubhouse at Point San Quentin.

Places have been set for 550 members and guests. Monty Marzetta, entertainment committee chairman, has lined up seven outstanding acts for the banquet.

Members who have not yet bought tickets are urged to buy any remaining ducats.

Cliffey Loses To Aussie Roche In Tense Match

PERTH, Australia (AP) — Australian Davis Cup star Tony Roche defeated Cliff Richey of Dallas after a tense two-hour battle in the semifinals of the State Championship singles at Royal Kings Park today.

In what was easily his best match in the series so far, Roche won 6-4, 6-3, 7-9, 7-5. Richey's performance was one of his best in Perth in recent years.

The third set produced the best tennis seen at the championships. Richey raced to a three-game lead before Roche improved his service and fought back to level 4-4.

Each held the service four times before Richey broke Roche's service to win the set. It was not until the 12th game of the fourth set that Roche was able to break Richey's service, and then hold his own to win the set and match.

Roche will now meet the winner of the Owen Davidson-Bill Bowrey semifinal match in Sunday's final.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHT OF 1966

Matson Goes For Indoor Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Randy Matson aims at the world indoor shot put record tomorrow night to put beside his outdoor mark.

Still the 262-pound Texas A&M star doesn't do any predicting.

"I still have some trouble with the indoor shot," he says and points out that circles indoors sometimes vary.

Yet most expect him to eclipse the 64-foot, 11¾ inch mark established by Gary Gubner at New York in 1962. His first 1967 chance comes in the All-American Indoor Games at the Cow Palace.

Matson is the only man ever to put the shot past 70 feet and holds the outdoor record at 70-7.

Standing 6-6½, Matson works with weights an average of two hours a day to ready himself for the tough competition leading up to the 1968 Olympic Games.

"Last year, I played on the basketball team so I couldn't work with weights," he told local meet director Jim Terrill. "I expect to be in much better form and condition this season."

He added:

"I skipped basketball so I could begin preparing for the Olympic Games. Making the 1964 team and winning the Silver Medal in Tokyo has been my most satisfying achievement, aside from setting the world record."

Matson went from 215 in 1963 to 250 in '64, 258 the following year and as high as 290 in 1966. He now terms himself as a "competitive 262."

Although he hopes to improve his mark, Randy says he has no specific goal in mind since, "I would be afraid to try to guess what the ultimate distance is in the shot, for myself or anyone else."

Matson will face Oregonian Neal Steinhauer and four-time Olympian Parry O'Brien in the All-American. He rates the two his toughest competition "as of now."

Watching O'Brien has been a help to him, Matson admits,and he credits several coaches for help but adds, "Now I do almost all of my work on technique and by myself."

Lamar Hunt Is Hot For New Stadium

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs' owner, Lamar Hunt, is enthusiastic about the 75,000-seat football stadium in a proposed $54 million 2-stadium complex but the position of A's owner Charles O. Finley on a 50,000-seat baseball plan remains unknown.

Hunt has offered to purchase more than $5 million in revenue bonds to help finance the stadium, officials reported. He declined to name a specific figure, explaining:

"The Chiefs could help in various ways, such as purchasing bonds, guaranteeing the bonds, a long-term lease, or a specific contribution. Studies are still under way."

Efforts by The Associated Press to reach Finley were unsuccessful. He is a Chicago insurance executive. His office said he was traveling and unreachable. He wasn't expected at his La Porte' Ind., home until the weekend.

Finley several times over the past year delined to make any comment on a proposed multi-purpose domed stadium.

Without his commitment to a lease, revenue bonds for a multi-purpose stadium couldn't be sold and the project would never get off the ground.

His four-year lease at the old stadium here expires after the coming baseball season.

Obviously this is a major reason the Jackson County Sports Authority junked the idea of a two-sport stadium, domed or otherwise.

Finley's commitment also is needed about the 50,000-seat baseball stadium proposed for the same eastern Kansas City site where the football plant is planned. Parking for 18,750 cars would serve both stadiums.

Dutton Brookfield, authority chairman, said the authority had sent two letters to Finley, the first about 60 days ago, but "we haven't been able to begin negotiations with Mr. Finley."

Brookfield cited various reasons why a multi-purpose stadium is inferior to the 2-stadium concept. He also said the two stadiums would cost $500,000 less than a domed stadium at the eastern site and $43 million less than a domed plant downtown.

"This stadium would be second to none in football," said Hunt, 34-year-old owner of the AFL champions.

"This idea is unique and will make Kansas City unsurpassed in sports facilities. A multi-purpose stadium doesn't have many bad seats, but it doesn't have many goods one, either, and football suffers more than baseball."

North Vs. South In Hula Bowl Tonight

HONOLULU (UPI) Floyd Little of Syracuse was named captain today of the North's offensive platoon for tonight's 21st annual Hula Bowl game in which Charlie Brown of Missouri will lead the South in the same capacity.

On defense, it will be George Webster of Michigan State heading the North and Arkansas' Lloyd P. Phillips directing the South.

Much of the action was expected to center around a passing duel between Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier (Florida) of the South and Purdue's Bob Griese.

The teams concentrated on passing and place-kicking in final workouts yesterday amid forecasts of cool but damp temperatures.

By kickoff time at 7:45 p.m. HST (9:45 p.m. PST) today every one of Honolulu Stadium's 24,000 seats was expected to be filled.

Near-perfect football weather was forecast with the temperature down to an abnormally cool —for Hawaii —64 or 65. The forecast was for mountain showers, some of which probably would drift over the stadium which is located at the mouth of Manoa Valley.

The biggest incentive for both teams was the presence of at least a dozen professional football scouts and coaches who came to Honolulu just to size up the talent going on parade.

Among the football talent-hunters was Allie Sherman, coach of the New York Giants, who hopes to get either Griese or Spurrier in the pro draft the end of this month.

Both teams finished their workouts without any major injuries. The odds makers have listed the game a tossup.

Soccer Vice-President

NEW YORK (AP) — Julio Menendez of San Jose State was elected vice president of the Intercollegiate Soccer Football Association last night, succeeding John McKeon of East Stroudsburg. It was the only office voted on.

Mike Lynn, Roommate Plead Guilty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—UCLA basketball star Mike Lynn and his college roommate pleaded guilty yesterday to possessing a credit card and planning to use it without permission of the owner.

Lynn and Larry McCollister, both 21, had been charged with two counts of forging credit card signatures but were permitted by the district attorney's office to plead to the lesser charge.

Superior Court Judge Vernon P. Spencer set Jan. 26 for sentencing. A misdemeanor, the charge carries a maximum penalty of six months in county jail and a $500 fine.

Lynn, slated to be a starter on UCLA's No. 1 ranked team this season, has not been allowed to play pending disposition of the case.

The two were arrested in November at a department store where they allegedly were attempting to purchase records in the music department.

The Boston Celtics captured the most rebounds in a National Basketball Association season with 6,131 during 1960-61.

Special Season On White Geese; Another Award For Virgil Hollis

STEVENS

All shooters of shotguns are reminded that after the close of the regular waterfowl season this weekend there will be a special season on white geese.

Regular goose season will extend through this Sunday, except in northeastern California where it ended with other waterfowl hunting yesterday. BUT there is a special white goose season which will open Monday and run through Jan. 22 statewide. The daily bag and possession limit will be six white geese, only one of which may be a Ross's goose.

SEVERAL Department of Fish and Game managed waterfowl areas will be open weekends during the special season. These include Honey Lake, Gray Lodge, Sacramento, Delevam, Colusa, Sutter, and the Wister Unit of Imperial County. Specifically they will be open to hunters on Jan. 14, 15—21 and 22 on a first-come, first-served basis. Fees are $3.50 per day. (On the Honey lake area, the $6.50 season permit will be honored during the special season!)

I talked with the well known hunter safety instructor, Jules Mandere and learned that he was to begin his first course of 1967 today. Jules teaches all comers from 9 to 72.

Each course lasts for three weeks, is conducted at Hamilton Air Force Base. There is no fee charged by Mandere, he only asks that all who sign up stick with it until the end.

THE CALIFORNIA Wildlife Federation just released the information that Dr. Virgil S. Hollis of Belvedere was named as the Conservation Educator of the year in the Sears-Roebuck National Wildlife Federation Achievement Award.

CONGRATULATIONS TO 12-year-old Dale Warnock of Hayward, for landing a 6-foot, 1½-inch sturgeon while aboard the good ship, Phil Ray, out of Rodeo. Hal Miller, skipper of the Phil Ray, reported more sturgeon are being taken at present than bass. Hot spot has been the shallows above the Pump House off the mouth of the Petaluma Creek.

Charlie Schmelz of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor reported the party boat, Lancer, with 17 anglers aboard, brought in 17 sturgeon, most of which I understand were taken on shrimp bait.

FROM BUCK'S Landing at Santa Venetia: fishing for bass as well as sturgeon very, very good. "Joe Mello took his limit of stripers weighing from 25 to 33 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Wamasaki went out four times and boated limits or near-limits each time mostly large bass to 28½ pounds."

Asked about striped bass generally, it seems a great many fish were landed over the long weekend. "Thirty sturgeon came in with the top fish going 57 pounds. Best action has been on shrimp and decapitated sardine and bullheads," reported Buck Edding.

Walter Mails Still Listed In 'Fair' Condition

Walter Mails, long time Marin County resident now living in San Francisco, is still resting in Wheeler Hospital in Gilroy after suffering a heart attack.

Mails, 70, was born and reared in San Quentin Village. A pitching star in the major leagues in the 1920's. Mails is now director of the San Francisco Giants Speakers Bureau. He suffered the attack Dec. 29 while driving through Gilroy to the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena.

A hospital spokesman yesterday said Mails remained in "fair" condition.

Gordie Howe Scores His 700th Goal

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Just like Babe Ruth, Gordie Howe today stands alone in his profession.

The 38-year-old right-winger of the Detroit Red Wings scored the 699th and 700th goals of his professional hockey league career last night while leading his team to a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks. He is the first player in National Hockey League history to score 700 goals.

Howe, now in his 21st season, has collected 635 regular season goals and 65 in playoff competition, and his two goals last night boosted his season's total to 11.

Howe scored his first goal of the game on a backhand shot against Chicago goalie Denis DeJordy in the first period to tie the score at 1-1 and tallied again in the second period to knot the score at 3-3.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHT OF 1966

Matson Goes For Indoor Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Randy Matson aims at the world indoor shot put record tomorrow night to put beside his outdoor mark.

Still the 262-pound Texas A&M star doesn't do any predicting.

"I still have some trouble with the indoor shot," he says and points out that circles indoors sometimes vary.

Yet most expect him to eclipse the 64-foot, 11¾ inch mark established by Gary Gubner at New York in 1962. His first 1967 chance comes in the All-American Indoor Games at the Cow Palace.

Matson is the only man ever to put the shot past 70 feet and holds the outdoor record at 70-7.

Standing 6-6½, Matson works with weights an average of two hours a day to ready himself for the tough competition leading up to the 1968 Olympic Games.

"Last year, I played on the basketball team so I couldn't work with weights," he told local meet director Jim Terrill. "I expect to be in much better form and condition this season."

He added:

"I skipped basketball so I could begin preparing for the Olympic Games. Making the 1964 team and winning the Silver Medal in Tokyo has been my most satisfying achievement, aside from setting the world record."

Matson went from 215 in 1963 to 250 in '64, 258 the following year and as high as 290 in 1966. He now terms himself as a "competitive 262."

Although he hopes to improve his mark, Randy says he has no specific goal in mind since, "I would be afraid to try to guess what the ultimate distance is in the shot, for myself or anyone else."

Matson will face Oregonian Neal Steinhauer and four-time Olympian Parry O'Brien in the All-American. He rates the two his toughest competition "as of now."

Watching O'Brien has been a help to him, Matson admits,and he credits several coaches for help but adds, "Now I do almost all of my work on technique and by myself."

Lamar Hunt Is Hot For New Stadium

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs' owner, Lamar Hunt, is enthusiastic about the 75,000-seat football stadium in a proposed $54 million 2-stadium complex but the position of A's owner Charles O. Finley on a 50,000-seat baseball plan remains unknown.

Hunt has offered to purchase more than $5 million in revenue bonds to help finance the stadium, officials reported. He declined to name a specific figure, explaining:

"The Chiefs could help in various ways, such as purchasing bonds, guaranteeing the bonds, a long-term lease, or a specific contribution. Studies are still under way."

Efforts by The Associated Press to reach Finley were unsuccessful. He is a Chicago insurance executive. His office said he was traveling and unreachable. He wasn't expected at his La Porte' Ind., home until the weekend.

Finley several times over the past year delined to make any comment on a proposed multi-purpose domed stadium.

Without his commitment to a lease, revenue bonds for a multi-purpose stadium couldn't be sold and the project would never get off the ground.

His four-year lease at the old stadium here expires after the coming baseball season.

Obviously this is a major reason the Jackson County Sports Authority junked the idea of a two-sport stadium, domed or otherwise.

Finley's commitment also is needed about the 50,000-seat baseball stadium proposed for the same eastern Kansas City site where the football plant is planned. Parking for 18,750 cars would serve both stadiums.

Dutton Brookfield, authority chairman, said the authority had sent two letters to Finley, the first about 60 days ago, but "we haven't been able to begin negotiations with Mr. Finley."

Brookfield cited various reasons why a multi-purpose stadium is inferior to the 2-stadium concept. He also said the two stadiums would cost $500,000 less than a domed stadium at the eastern site and $43 million less than a domed plant downtown.

"This stadium would be second to none in football," said Hunt, 34-year-old owner of the AFL champions.

"This idea is unique and will make Kansas City unsurpassed in sports facilities. A multi-purpose stadium doesn't have many bad seats, but it doesn't have many goods one, either, and football suffers more than baseball."

North Vs. South In Hula Bowl Tonight

HONOLULU (UPI) Floyd Little of Syracuse was named captain today of the North's offensive platoon for tonight's 21st annual Hula Bowl game in which Charlie Brown of Missouri will lead the South in the same capacity.

On defense, it will be George Webster of Michigan State heading the North and Arkansas' Lloyd P. Phillips directing the South.

Much of the action was expected to center around a passing duel between Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier (Florida) of the South and Purdue's Bob Griese.

The teams concentrated on passing and place-kicking in final workouts yesterday amid forecasts of cool but damp temperatures.

By kickoff time at 7:45 p.m. HST (9:45 p.m. PST) today every one of Honolulu Stadium's 24,000 seats was expected to be filled.

Near-perfect football weather was forecast with the temperature down to an abnormally cool —for Hawaii —64 or 65. The forecast was for mountain showers, some of which probably would drift over the stadium which is located at the mouth of Manoa Valley.

The biggest incentive for both teams was the presence of at least a dozen professional football scouts and coaches who came to Honolulu just to size up the talent going on parade.

Among the football talent-hunters was Allie Sherman, coach of the New York Giants, who hopes to get either Griese or Spurrier in the pro draft the end of this month.

Both teams finished their workouts without any major injuries. The odds makers have listed the game a tossup.

Soccer Vice-President

NEW YORK (AP) — Julio Menendez of San Jose State was elected vice president of the Intercollegiate Soccer Football Association last night, succeeding John McKeon of East Stroudsburg. It was the only office voted on.

Mike Lynn, Roommate Plead Guilty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—UCLA basketball star Mike Lynn and his college roommate pleaded guilty yesterday to possessing a credit card and planning to use it without permission of the owner.

Lynn and Larry McCollister, both 21, had been charged with two counts of forging credit card signatures but were permitted by the district attorney's office to plead to the lesser charge.

Superior Court Judge Vernon P. Spencer set Jan. 26 for sentencing. A misdemeanor, the charge carries a maximum penalty of six months in county jail and a $500 fine.

Lynn, slated to be a starter on UCLA's No. 1 ranked team this season, has not been allowed to play pending disposition of the case.

The two were arrested in November at a department store where they allegedly were attempting to purchase records in the music department.

The Boston Celtics captured the most rebounds in a National Basketball Association season with 6,131 during 1960-61.

STEVENS

All shooters of shotguns are reminded that after the close of the regular waterfowl season this weekend there will be a special season on white geese.

Regular goose season will extend through this Sunday, except in northeastern California where it ended with other waterfowl hunting yesterday. BUT there is a special white goose season which will open Monday and run through Jan. 22 statewide. The daily bag and possession limit will be six white geese, only one of which may be a Ross's goose.

SEVERAL Department of Fish and Game managed waterfowl areas will be open weekends during the special season. These include Honey Lake, Gray Lodge, Sacramento, Delevam, Colusa, Sutter, and the Wister Unit of Imperial County. Specifically they will be open to hunters on Jan. 14, 15—21 and 22 on a first-come, first-served basis. Fees are $3.50 per day. (On the Honey lake area, the $6.50 season permit will be honored during the special season!)

I talked with the well known hunter safety instructor, Jules Mandere and learned that he was to begin his first course of 1967 today. Jules teaches all comers from 9 to 72.

Each course lasts for three weeks, is conducted at Hamilton Air Force Base. There is no fee charged by Mandere, he only asks that all who sign up stick with it until the end.

THE CALIFORNIA Wildlife Federation just released the information that Dr. Virgil S. Hollis of Belvedere was named as the Conservation Educator of the year in the Sears-Roebuck National Wildlife Federation Achievement Award.

CONGRATULATIONS TO 12-year-old Dale Warnock of Hayward, for landing a 6-foot, 1½-inch sturgeon while aboard the good ship, Phil Ray, out of Rodeo. Hal Miller, skipper of the Phil Ray, reported more sturgeon are being taken at present than bass. Hot spot has been the shallows above the Pump House off the mouth of the Petaluma Creek.

Charlie Schmelz of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor reported the party boat, Lancer, with 17 anglers aboard, brought in 17 sturgeon, most of which I understand were taken on shrimp bait.

FROM BUCK'S Landing at Santa Venetia: fishing for bass as well as sturgeon very, very good. "Joe Mello took his limit of stripers weighing from 25 to 33 pounds, Mr. and Mrs. Wamasaki went out four times and boated limits or near-limits each time mostly large bass to 28½ pounds."

Asked about striped bass generally, it seems a great many fish were landed over the long weekend. "Thirty sturgeon came in with the top fish going 57 pounds. Best action has been on shrimp and decapitated sardine and bullheads," reported Buck Edding.

Walter Mails Still Listed In 'Fair' Condition

Walter Mails, long time Marin County resident now living in San Francisco, is still resting in Wheeler Hospital in Gilroy after suffering a heart attack.

Mails, 70, was born and reared in San Quentin Village. A pitching star in the major leagues in the 1920's, Mails is now director of the San Francisco Giants Speakers Bureau. He suffered the attack Dec. 29 while driving through Gilroy to the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena.

A hospital spokesman yesterday said Mails remained in "fair" condition.

Gordie Howe Scores His 700th Goal

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Just like Babe Ruth, Gordie Howe today stands alone in his profession.

The 38-year-old right-winger of the Detroit Red Wings scored the 699th and 700th goals of his professional hockey league career last night while leading his team to a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks. He is the first player in National Hockey League history to score 700 goals.

Howe, now in his 21st season, has collected 635 regular season goals and 65 in playoff competition, and his two goals last night boosted his season's total to 11.

Howe scored his first goal of the game on a backhand shot against Chicago goalie Denis DeJordy in the first period to tie the score at 1-1 and tallied again in the second period to knot the score at 3-3.

Hunters' Course

Marin Rod and Gun Junior Rifle Club will sponsor another 10-week hunters' safety course, beginning Monday, with sign-ups at the San Rafael police pistol range, 7-10 p.m.
